Campbell Planning For Clearance Sale

Amongst the clearance sales of the current season, one of the largest is that planned by the Campbell company, which will open Friday morning.
 The managers, Messrs. Campbell and Lutz, announce that the price cuts will be store wide from the bargain basement to the furniture floors, including ready-to-wear in all departments, piece goods of all kinds, shoes, hats, furnishings, etc.
 Campbell's has held some notable sales in the past, and this one is expected to be up to the high standard of the company.

When Monsignore Borgongini Duca, first Papal Nuncio to the United Kingdom of Italy, presented his letters of credence to King Victor Emmanuel at the Quirinal Palace recently, he was accorded all the honors that would have been given to the ambassador of any other major power.
