Dance
Thursday Night.
Gene Wofford's orchestra at Cleveland Springs will furnish music at that hotel Thursday night for the regular weekly dance.

Informal
Dance.
Mrs. G. B. Elam surprised her husband, with an informal dance on his birthday last Friday evening at their home on East Sumpter street. There were about thirty guests present and delightful refreshments were served.

Mrs. Gray
Honors Visitors.
Mrs. Bessie Gray delightfully entertained Monday morning at her home on West Marion street with a lovely rook party, honoring Mrs. J. B. Gibbs of Hickory, guest of Mrs. P. L. Hennessy, Mrs. Darwin of Athens, Ga., and Mrs. Dougherty of Pennsylvania, guests of Judge and Mrs. Webb. The rooms and tables were beautifully arranged with mixed flowers. At the close of the games, the hostess was assisted by Mrs. W. T. Alexander in serving a delicious salad and ice course.

Miss Mull
Gives Party.
Miss Mary Margaret Mull entertained a number of her friends, this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with a lovely rook party, at her handsome new home on North LaFayette street. The large living room and parlor were arranged with a variety of summer flowers and the guests found their places at the six tables with the most attractive tallies. At the close of the games, the hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. John Mull and Miss Sophia Hurt in serving delicious cream, cake and candies. The guests included, Misses Rebecca and Sara Lee Hopper, Veva Armour, Margaret Lewis McNeely, Sophia Hunt, Amanda Wakefield, Louise Jones, Constance Dellinger, Ellen Ford, Hazeline Webb, Mary Lewis Wilson, Edna Earl Grigg, Helen Marshall Hamrick, Jeannette Post, Germaine Gold, Eleanor Hoy, Elizabeth Sparks, Mary Sue Barnett, Ruth

Birthday
Party.
Misses Macie Laula Pendleton and Pearl Norman honored their sisters, Linder and Ethel with a surprise birthday party Saturday evening from 8 till 11 o'clock at the Pendleton home near Lawndale. After many games were played on the lawn, they were invited into the dining room which was arranged with beautiful summer flowers, and pink and white decorations. The table was centered with a white birthday cake holding pink and white candles. The boys found their partners by drawing cards with the girls. After which lemonade, ice-cream and cake were served. They received many useful gifts. Those who were present are, Misses Launa Mae Irvin, Olen Ottie and Wilma London, Winnie Whisnant, Marie and Dalphine Hunt, Gillie Devenny, Macie Linden and Laula Pendleton, Viva Crowder, Ola Gettys, Pearl and Ethel Norman, Messrs. Van Stroud, Lester Warlick, Lemmie Spangler, Paul Gibbs, Edgar Grigg, Virgil McSwain, Roy and Ivey White, Manand Blanton, Ray McKey, Wade Harrill, Eunette Eskridge, Newland and Bob Lattimore, Boyd Whisnant, Clem Hunt, John Pendleton.

First Ice Cream At Age Of 47 Years

Winfield Johnson of Henry didn't know ice cream was good, so he lived 47 years of his life before he tried to eat it. He is now crazy about it, that is he likes it fine since eating a few saucers this week. He gives as his reason for the delay the fact that he never liked milk, butter, cream, or beef, in fact liked nothing about a dairy, including the cow, hence he thought ice cream tasted about like milk and never thought about trying it out until this week. He is all smiles when ice cream is mentioned.

Mrs. Hugh Walker of Detroit is visiting relatives in the city.

Mr. G. B. Brackett Buried At Moriah

(Special to The Star)

Casar, July, 30.—There was a large crowd attended Mr. G. B. Brackett's funeral Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Moriah church.

The grave was decorated well with pretty flowers.

Aphus and Alto Deviney wrecked their cars quite a little Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Robert Brackett's family of Gastonia are spending a few weeks with their relatives near Casar.

Guy Waters, Clayton Deviney, and brothers are working at Cane creek on a bridge this week.

Quite Enough.

The young judge had a bootlegger before him. It was his first case and he was undecided as to what to do with the offender.

Excusing himself for a moment, he stepped into the corridor and met an old-time jurist.

"Oh, Judge," he said, "I've a bootlegger before me and I don't know what to give him."

"Well," replied the old-timer, "don't give him more than four dollars a pint—that's all I ever give."

Card Of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and help during the sickness and death of our husband and father.

Wife and Children,
MRS. G. B. BRACKETT.

He got at least eight hours sleep every night.

He never smoked, drank or lost his temper.

He did his daily dozen daily.

He was all set to live to be a hundred—

At The Theatres

Belle Bennett in an all-talking production of the colorful drama, "My Lady's Past," tops the bill at the Princess today and tomorrow. Joe E. Brown is also in the cast. This is a dramatic production of the first importance, a piece especially suited to the personality of this widely heralded star. The program is pepped up with extra features, such as the Pathe Review, Pathe News and a smart vitaphone act, all in sound.

A crook drama, thrilling, mysterious and gripping—"The Terror"—is the head of the show at the Webb today and Thursday. It's a Warner Bros. production, May McAvoy and Louise Fazenda starring. This play, said to be the best of its kind now before the public, ran for three years on the London stage. It will grip your interest from the first flare up of action, moving along to a great climax with precision and definiteness. It is a wonderful play.

An Average Man.

"How about tackling this house; do you know anything about the people who live in it?" asked the first burglar, pointing to a bungalow.

"Nothing doing there," replied the other. "If you want to get any money from that poor sucker, you'll have to hold him up on Saturday afternoon before his pay reaches his family."

Making It Plain.

A colored preacher down South was trying to explain the fury of hell to his congregation.

"You all is seen molten iron runnin' out from a furnace, ain't you?" he asked.

The congregation said it had.

"Well," the preacher continued, "dey use dat stuff fo' ice cream in de place what I'm talkin' bout."

Setting Her Straight.

They had just come in from Where From to see the old-fashioned show.

"Gracious, Hiram!" said the old lady, "them awful society women dress like they was goin' swimmin'!"

"O' course, Jerusha. Hain't you heard that in the social swin' the wimmen try to outstrip each other?"

Stokes county farmers now have a county farm agent to advise with them after being without this service for ten years.
