Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain deed of trust executed by Carr E. Cline and wife, Blanche Cline, to The Commercial National Bank of High Point, North Carolina, as local trustee for the Central Trust company of Charleston, West Virginia, which deed of trust is of record in book 150 at page 55 of the registry of Cleveland county, North Carolina, said deed of trust having been given to secure an indebtedness for three thousand ($3000) dollars, and said indebtedness not having been paid according to the terms of payment, and the holder of the notes thereby secured having called upon the undersigned trustee to foreclose said deed of trust, the undersigned trustee will offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash at the court house door in Shelby, N. C., at 12 m. on the 31st day of August, 1929, the following house and lot in the City of Shelby, N. C., described as follows:

Pride Of Shelby

(Continued From Page One) remained in the family, it was all the same thing and there was no harm done. The Webb boys know they are good, and they have a right to know it in view of their past performances. There are no strings of any sort attached to their challenge and their "defi" to the whole United States stands until accepted.

NORMAN FRANCIS SURPRISES HIS FRIENDS

Mr. Norman Francis, well known young man of Shelby, member of the Montgomery Ward organization, pulled a surprise on his friends here yesterday when, returning from a vacation trip to Atlanta, introduced his comely companion of the journey as Mrs. Francis.

Lawndale Boy Is Claimed By Death

Dewey Beattie, of Lawndale, student at Lenoir-Rhyne college, died Tuesday morning in a Lincolnton hospital shortly after undergoing an operation for kidney trouble. He was a son of Mrs. Lillie Beattie, of Lawndale, and is survived by his mother and one sister, Miss Kathleen Beattie.

Judge Pro Tem Presides Today

Owing to the fact that Judge Horace Kennedy of Recorder's court was appearing this morning as one of the attorneys in a civil action in Superior court, he found it necessary to designate Judge Pro Tem M. R. Weathers to sit over Recorder's court for him. The session was not very lengthy and no great number of cases came before His Honor for a hearing. He brushed his teeth twice a day with a nationally advertised toothpaste.

Tenth Annual Lutz Reunion August 8th

The tenth annual reunion of the Lutz clan will be held at Trinity E. L. church, Vale, August 8, 1929. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to come. Come equipped with a basket full of good things to eat and let us enjoy one more joyous day together. If you don't come you will always wish you had. S. E. LUTZ, Chairman.

Messenger Stations For Western Union

Thirty or more messenger call stations are being installed in various business places about the city by the Western Union Telegraph company. These stations consist of small call stations which have a lever, the turning of which would signal the Western Union office to send a messenger boy to that particular station to get a message or run an errand. These stations will be in operation shortly.

Lee Now Slipping In Batting Average

Friends in Shelby and Cleveland county of Cline Owens Lee, popular high school baseball player will learn with regret that he is beginning to slip in the heavy batting he did when he first arrived at Columbus, Ga., where he is playing in the southeastern league. Until recent days, the Shelby boy was hitting better than 300 but his percentage has now taken a slump and he is clouting the pill at only 265 but still that is mighty good batting and far better than some of the "old timers" are able to do. Recent figures from The Columbus Enquirer-Sun show that Lee has been at bat 151 times, has scored 17 runs, had obtained 40 hits, has batted in 19 runs and that his total percentage to date is .2655. Shelby sports lovers are confident the young man will be in faster company by next

Barn Is Burned, Lightning Struck

Lightning struck one of the two barns of Mr. Butler Phifer, farmer, living two miles south of Kings Mountain last night during a thunderstorm. The barn and all feed-stuffs were totally destroyed, but the two mules and other live stock were saved from the blaze. It was not learned whether Mr. Phifer was protected with insurance.
