Dinner Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Williams were delightful hosts at Cleveland Springs last evening with a dinner party, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Springs Borders of Knoxville, Tenn., who are visiting relatives in the city. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Borders, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Robert Hord Gives Theatre Party.

Mrs. Robert Hord was a charming hostess with a theatre party Tuesday afternoon, at the Princess theatre, honoring her sister, Miss Harriet Thompson of Charlotte. After seeing the picture, "Masked Emotions," Mrs. Hord invited her guests to her apartment on North LaFayette street, where she was assisted by Miss Mabel Frances Hord, in serving delicious tea and sandwiches. Miss Thompson was presented with a lovely gift. The invited guests were, Misses Martha Eskridge, Dorothy King, Mary and Virginia Jenkins, Burton Gettys, Sara Wray, Elizabeth Sparks, Sara Dellinger, Rachel Wells, Minna and Peg LeGrand, Ruth Laughridge, Ruth Thompson, Elizabeth Riviere, Bessie Sue Wilson, Elizabeth Austell, Mabel Hord and Harriet Thompson.

Betty-Jean Beauty Shoppe Opening.

The formal opening of the Betty-Jean Beauty Shoppe, in their new quarters in the handsome new Weathers-Blanton building, next door to J. C. Penny company was attended by several hundred during the hours from 4 to 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon and evening. The Shoppe is one of the most attractive to be found in any city, done in colors of Chinese red and black and the beautiful flowers used for decorations throughout, emphasized the color scheme. The proprietors, Mesdames Betty Phillips and Jean Hamrick, gowned in evening costumes of black lace and shoulder bouquets of red roses received their visitors at the front entrance, and directed them to the register, which was presided over by Miss Thelma Tolbert, who will be associated with this shoppe permanently and comes highly recommended as an all-around operator and also has specialized in hair cutting, permanent waving and finger waves.

Mrs. Ruby Michael Gibson of Little Rock, Ark., assisted in receiving and showing the visitors through the six complete booths, which were beautifully fitted up and the dressing rooms with connecting tub and shower baths in the rear. Presiding at the punch bowl were Misses Sara Richbourg and Ruth Hamrick. Each lady was presented with a complimentary shampoo ticket.

Miss Lattimore Gives Recital. A large number of the music lovers of the city filled the Woman's club room which was decorated with quantities of garden flowers last evening to hear Miss Mary Helen Lattimore in her piano recital assisted by Mr. Horace Eason. The recital was sponsored by the First division of the Woman's club, and the chairman, Mrs. T. W. Hamrick and the following officers and members received the guests informally. Welcoming the guests on their arrival down stairs were, Mesdames W. B. Nix and J. H. Quinn. At the top of the stairs were, Mesdames E. A. Houser and John Suttle. At the entrance to the club room, were Mesdames Hamrick, H. T. Hudson and Mrs. O. M. Gardner, a charming visitor in the city and also a member of this division of the club. The plates were held by Mesdames Bryon Williams and Reid Young. The ushers were Mesdames Carlos Grigg, Otto Long and Thad Ford.

Mrs. T. W. Hamrick in a very pleasing manner introduced the artist and announced the following numbers, which were thoroughly enjoyed by the appreciative audience: Hupsarian Rhapsody No. 14, Nocturn Op. 32, No. 1, and Movement Perpetuel, by Mary Helen Lattimore. "On the Road to Mandalay," and "Wake Up," by Mr. Horace Eason. Polonaise Op. 26 No. 1, and Concert Etude, by Mary Helen Lattimore. "Bedonin Love Song," and Bells of St. Marys, by Mr. Horace Eason. Rhapsody in G Minor No. 11, Mary Helen Lattimore; accompanist, Miss Bertha Bostic.

Miss Lattimore, who recently returned from Winthrop college where she studied under Dorsey Whittington, a famous pianist, played with unusual skill and proved herself a gifted and talented musician. She was beautifully gowned in orchid chiffon, with slippers of the same shade and wore shoulder bouquet of snapdragons and valley lilies.

Hens on which records were kept by 42 farmers last month paid a net profit of 22 1-2 cents each for the month.

Mr. Tom Nolan To Wed Miss Huggins.

Terra Alta, W. Va., Aug. 2.—The engagement of Miss Pauline Huggins of Terra Alta, and Thomas Dixon Nolan of Shelby, North Carolina, was announced at a party given by Miss Gladys Falkenstein at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Falkenstein, on East State street Thursday afternoon. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Huggins of West State street, and Mr. Nolan is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nolan of Shelby, and is a member of the J. B. Nolan real estate firm of that city. The entertainment for the afternoon was progressive bridge seven tables being in play. For the occasion the living room, dining room and reception hall of the Falkenstein home were thrown en suite and were tastefully decorated with garden flowers and ferns, the color scheme of pink and white being carried out in the decorations and the refreshments which were served at the conclusion of the games. The hostess was assisted in serving by her sister Miss Edith Falkenstein and Mrs. R. E. Fraley. A corsage of pink and white sweet peas with a huge bow of white tulle and bearing the engagement ring was presented to the bride-to-be, and each guest was presented with a miniature corsage of sweet peas bearing the announcement card. The wedding will take place in October. Members of the S. I. S. H. club and other guests present included Miss Iva Welch, Miss Kathryn Speicher, Miss Wilma Jones, Miss Wilma Casseday, Miss Margaret Zeller, Miss Louella Parsons, Miss Maxine Cale, Miss Mary Burns, Miss Nina Kelly, Miss Marjorie Nodeck, Miss Edith Falkenstein, Mrs. Gertrude Mayer, Mrs. C. E. Trembley, Mrs. H. H. Parsons, Mrs. W. A. Whitehair, Mrs. P. R. Woltring, Mrs. Ruth Duff, Mrs. Hazel Jones, Mrs. H. P. Shaffer, Mrs. Leo B. Ott, Mrs. G. H. Falkenstein, Mrs. R. E. Fraley and the honor guest Miss Huggins. Out of town guests present were Mrs. Reed F. Martin of Washington, D. C., Miss Mercedes Sellers of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Ray Teets, Oakland, Md., Mrs. Warner Six, Grafton, Miss Willard Brown, Buckhannon, the Misses Grayce and Lois Martin of Washington, D. C., and the hostess Miss Falkenstein.

Miss Irvin Weds Mr. Lowery Austell.

A wedding of much interest throughout the state and one of exceptional beauty, was that of Miss Madge Irvin and Mr. J. Lowery Austell, which took place Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Zion Baptist church, Rev. D. G. Washburn, the bride's pastor officiated, assisted by Rev. J. L. Jenkins, pastor of the church at Earl. The church was artistically decorated, the altar banked with evergreens and feathery ferns, intersected with floor baskets of white and pink gladioli and other garden flowers and beautifully lighted with softly glowing cathedral candles, held in tall standards. Miss Kathleen Young, wearing a pink georgette and shoulder bouquet of sweet peas, rendered the wedding music, playing first, "Thou Art Like Unto a Flower" by Rubenstein. Mrs. Grady Lovelace gowned in brown satin and lace and shoulder bouquet of rose buds, sang prior to the ceremony, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," and "For Love's Own Sweet Sake." The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was used as a processional and Mendelssohn's wedding march as a recessional and during the ceremony, "To A Wild Rose," by McDowell was softly played.

The ushers were, James Irvin, brother of the bride, and Hartness Gibson. The flower girls were, Miss Frances Irvin, sister of the bride, wearing blue chiffon made with ruffled skirt and carrying a pink basket of mixed garden flowers, and Miss Montrose Simmons, cousin of the bride, wearing pink chiffon and carrying a blue basket of mixed flowers. The maid of honor was Miss Ruth Irvin, also a sister of the bride, gowned in white organdy, made with tight bodice and ruffled skirt, short in front and full length in the back, wearing white picture hat and carrying arm bouquet of pink roses and snapdragons. Just preceding the bride, came the ring bearer, Little Thomas Maynard Austell, brother of the groom, wearing a white satin suit and carrying the ring on a white satin pillow. The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Eubert Irvin, who gave her in marriage and they were met at the altar by the groom attended by his best man, Mr. Roger Hewitt of Wilmington.

The bride wore a most striking and handsome beige ensemble with transparent velvet trimming, small hat and accessories to match and carried a shower bouquet of snapdragons, roses and smansonia, showered with valley lilies. Immediately after the ceremony, the couple left by motor for a trip through the Shenandoah valley, Washington, D. C., and other points of interest and upon their return they will be at home with Mrs. T. H. Lowery, the groom's grandmother at Patterson Springs. Mrs. Austell is the second daughter of Mr. G. P. Irvin and is a beautiful and attractive brunette. She was graduated from Bolling Springs junior college in 1926 and for the past three years, has been a popular teacher in the county. Mr. Austell is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Austell of Earl. He was educated at Bolling Springs junior college and has held a responsible position with the First National Bank of Shelby, for a number of years.

Miss Mull Gives Reception.

One of the most brilliant and beautiful affairs of the summer, was the lovely afternoon reception, given at Cleveland Springs hotel yesterday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock by Miss Montrose Mull, honoring her charming visitor, Miss Elizabeth Kelly of Taylorsville. The spacious lobby and dining room were beautifully arranged throughout with quantities of gorgeous garden flowers in large vases, jardiniere and floor baskets. Welcoming the guests on their arrival on the front veranda were, Miss Kathleen Hord and Mrs. Q. G. McCombs. Receiving just inside the front door were Mesdames Webb and M. Webb Riley. The receiving line stood in the center of the lobby, headed by the hostess, Miss Mull, beautifully gowned in silk point d'esprit, with touches of green over pink satin and pink slippers, carrying a colonial bouquet of pink rose buds, swansonla and for-get-me-nots. The honoree, Miss Kelly, was lovely in pink beaded chiffon and shoulder bouquet of snapdragons and roses. Mrs. Mull, mother of the hostess, was handsomely gowned in heavy-ly beaded orchid chiffon. Miss Annie Hall of Belmont wore white and pink taffeta. Mrs. O. M. Gardner the first lady of the state was attired in tan georgette, with brown lace trimmings and absinthe velvet sash. Mrs. Robert Hord, a recent bride was gowned in shaded orchid maline. Miss Bostick of Forest City wore green taffeta and shoulder bouquet and Miss Willie Sowe of Belmont was gowned in red taffeta. Seated on a long davenport, were the grand mothers of the hostess, Mrs. Esther McBrayer in lavender chiffon and hat to match and Mrs. J. L. Smith wearing black lace and georgette, with hat. Directing the guests to the dining room were, Mrs. Paul Webb, jr., and Miss Lula Moore Suttle. The long dining table was centered with a mound of lovely roses, ageratum, phlox, asters and lace fern extending to the ends of the table, where silver candlesticks held green, and pink lighted tapers. A color motif of green and pink predominated in the decorations, which was beautifully carried out in the lovely refreshments of pink

After all = = = everybody is watching CHRYSLER

Rumors about Chrysler's plans are flying thick and fast. The man in the street is saying, "Chrysler has something up its sleeve" = = = Widespread gossip insists that Chrysler will soon make an announcement fully as sensational as its dramatic debut of five years ago. Everywhere you hear that Chrysler is going to write another thrilling page of automotive history. The public, which has long expected the unexpected from Chrysler, is waiting in anticipation = = = Chrysler greatly appreciates the splendid compliment expressed in this nation-wide belief that something important impends—that whatever Chrysler does is of vital interest and tangible value to the motoring public. It is particularly gratifying right now, in the face of the announcements recently made or promised by other manufacturers, to have American motorists thus reiterate their implicit confidence in Chrysler's ability to stay ahead—and go even farther ahead = = = The highest possible tribute to Chrysler prestige is this fact that, after all, everybody is watching Chrysler.
