At The Theatres

The Webb is advertising a three day run—beginning tomorrow—of what is perhaps the hugest picture before the public today—"Noah's Ark." This a Warner Brothers super special, advertised as the spectacle of the ages. It is a gigantic production, dramatizing the famous Biblical scene. The picture vividly carries you back to the far day of the Ark and the flood, and the life and thrill of that day and time is portrayed before you. The cast is as Dolores Costello, Noah Beery, notable including such performers Louise Fazenda and George O'Brien.

The Princess theatre is offering a special feature for Monday and Tuesday the title being "The Yellow Back," a great north woods thriller from the famous story of the same name by James Oliver Curwood. The story is laid in the great northern woods country and has to do with the struggle of a weakling to regain his self respect and win the hand of the heroine. The feature player is Tom Mootz who has been a prime favorite with the theatre audiences for a long time. The added attraction will be a rich comedy entitled "The Pace That Thrills."
