At The Theatres

"Two Weeks Off," starring the popular favorites, Jack Mulhall and Dorothy Mackall, is the feature picture today and tomorrow at the Webb. It's a First National, directed by William Beaudine. According to the press sheet, this is the theme of the picture: Are vacation romances, real love affairs? Is the last vacation kiss forgotten the first day back at work? See what happens to Dorothy when she falls in love with a vacation "show off."

Bebe Daniels has turned to the newspapers for the theme of her latest, ripping, thrilling comedy, "What a Night!" which opens for a two day run at the Princess theatre Thursday. It is said to be the best comedy-melodrama that has appeared here in some time and during the next two days of its local run, "What a Night!" is bound to thrill thousands more.

Excitement, thrills, laughter and love make up the adventure which this dashing star evokes in this story of newspaper life and newspaper doings. Crooked politicians, gang leaders, reporters and Bebe, herself, make up its characters. It is the tale of a "big scoop" which the newspaper tries unsuccessfully to break until Miss Daniels' blundering efforts as a reporter uncovers the necessary data.

No Fear.
From the Philadelphia Star.
Producers do not need to fear saturation of the market when they learn that only 30 per cent of American homes have radios, only 50 per cent of homes have washing machines, only 5 per cent of homes have electric refrigeration. And as for motor car saturation, no danger of that so long as man's imagination is such that he wants a new car every time a new model comes out, whether he needs it or not.
