

Californian, At 94, Eager To Wed Again

Santa Cruz, Cal.—He was 94 years old, but his ideas were young and he was quite insistent that County Clerk H. E. Miller allow him to file notice of his intention to apply for a marriage license.

That no woman accompanied him did not embarrass him. In fact, he admitted, he had no particular woman in view, but if the clerk would wait "just a few moments" he would go out and get one.

He gave his name as John P. Peters, residence, Santa Barbara, "on a tour with the whole family."

On the court house steps, where the clerk followed him, he was met by two men.

"Hello, grandad, trying to get married again?" queried one.

It was learned that Peters insists on getting married whenever he arrives at a county seat.

Wedded Bliss.

Traveler (as train is about to leave—"Have I time to go to the gate and say goodbye to my wife?" Guard—Can't tell, sir. Depends on how long you have been married, sir."

Ellenboro Contract For Potato House

(Special to The Star.)

The contract to build the third 5,000 bushels sweet potato curing house at Ellenboro was recently let to Messrs. C. B. Harrill and J. K. Blanton by the building committee for the Ellenboro Sweet Potato Storage company.

Part of the lumber is already in Ellenboro and the contractors state that actual work on the house will begin within another week. The building is to be 26x60 feet with a partition through the center which will give two rooms with a capacity of 2,500 bushels each.

When completed the Ellenboro potato curing plant will consist of three houses with a total capacity of 15,000 bushels. The three houses should give ample space to store the crop which is now growing in the eastern section of Rutherford county.

Two Day Community Fair For Ellenboro

Name Of Fair Officials Is Given.
Will Be Known As Colfax Fair.

(Special to The Star.)

At a recent meeting of forty Ellenboro and Colfax township citizens in the Ellenboro school building it was decided to hold a two day community fair at Ellenboro on October 11 and 12, 1929.

Professor Curtis Price, who heads the Ellenboro school this year was asked to talk on the value of a community fair at the very beginning of the meeting after which, the group voted to hold a fair which they named "Colfax Fair" after the name of township. Then officers were elected and directors for the ten departments of the fair were selected by the group.

The names of the officers follow: A. B. Bushong, president, J. E. Beam, vice-president, C. B. Harrill, second vice-president, Fred Harrill, secretary and Miss Bettie Greene, treasurer. The directors selected to head the departments are: G. L. Jenkins, field crops, Mrs. H. G. Moore, horticulture, H. G. Moore, livestock, A. S. Harrill, poultry, Mrs. John Martin, pantry supplies, Miss Maggie Spurlin, canned goods, Mrs. J. E. Beam, fancy work, Professor Curtis Price, school, Miss Ida Greene, floral and Professor R. B. Tapp, athletics.

A nice premium list is now being prepared and as soon as it comes off the press copies will be distributed in the township and community so exhibitors may know what to bring to the fair.

The officers and directors urge citizens of the township and Rutherford county to bring in their exhibits and help make the fair a success. Save your best stalk of cotton, best ten ears of corn, canned goods, horticulture products and products of the farm in general and have them ready. By exhibiting you will help make the fair a success and do honor to yourself.

Fair Exchange No Robbery.

There were two partners in the firm and one of them happened to pass on. An employee approached the surviving partner, with whom he was not exactly what you could call a favorite.

"I am so sorry, sir, to hear of Mr. John's demise, and I have come to ask if you wouldn't like me to take his place."

"Yes, I should very much," was the reply, "if you can get the undertaker to arrange it."
