Mrs. Mal Spangler Improving.

Friends of Mrs. Mal Spangler will be delighted to learn that she is gaining strength while confined at her home in Belvedere Heights.

Birthday Dinner For Mr. Phifer.

Mrs. John Phifer was a delightful dinner hostess Sunday at her home on Sumter street, the occasion being her husband's birthday. Beautiful flowers were artistically arranged in the living room and dining room. An elegant course dinner was served.

Covers were laid for Dr. Harbinson, Dr. Sam Schenck, Misses Ella McNichols and Etta Beverly, and Mrs. Lee B. Weathers, and Mr. and Mrs. Phifer.

Miss Hoye Has Dainty Party.

The handsome Hoye home was a scene of rare loveliness Friday evening when the charming daughter of the home gave a dinner party to Misses Ethel Hoyt and Jean Craig and Mr. Sam Brown from Charlotte and Mr. James Riley of Richmond. Misses Craig and Hoyt toured Europe with Miss Hoye this summer.

Bright hued flowers were in evidence everywhere and the table was a thing of beauty with cut glass and silver on an imported table cloth which Miss Hoye had brought from Italy. A most bountiful repast was served, and the guests spent the evening reminiscing and telling jokes.

Room And Bridge Parties.

Mrs. Talmadge Gardner was a charming hostess at two parties—one on Friday afternoon and one on Saturday afternoon. Her attractive apartment was ablaze with brilliant hued flowers. On Friday afternoon, the high score prize for room was won by Mrs. F. R. Saunders, and a lovely guest of honor prize was presented to Mrs. B. L. Smith. On Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Oliver Anthony was the winner of the high score, bridge prize and the hostess presented Miss Louise Gill with a guest of honor prize.

On each occasion, the hostess assisted by Mesdames Eliza Roberts, Herman Eskridge, Louis Gardner, J. T. Gardner and Bright Carrick, served a tempting fruit salad course, sandwiches and punch.

Mrs. McMurry Entertains Chieora Club.

Mrs. S. A. McMurry was a charming hostess to the Chieora club Friday afternoon. Beautiful vases of late summer flowers adorned the rooms and hall. The new president, Mrs. O. M. Suttle, presided with grace and dignity.

Miss Selma Webb gave an interesting description of "When the Stars and Stripes Saluted the Confederate Flag." Mrs. Nix described the Old Calvary church in Tarboro. Mrs. O. M. Mull read beautifully, "Tragedy of the War Between the States."

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. McMurry assisted by Mesdames Lander McBrayer, L. P. Holland and Miss Mary Suttle, served a tempting ice course with punch and nuts.

Birthday Party For Major Lee Hopper.

Master Major Lee Hopper delightfully entertained about 25 of his little boy and girl friends on Friday celebrating his twelfth birthday. A contest was held between the boys and the girls, little Miss Margaret Hamrick winning for the girls and little E. P. Riviere, Jr. for the boys. After many interesting outdoor games were played, the children were invited into the dining room which was prettily decorated with garden flowers for the occasion. The twelve pink candles on the pink cake were blown out by the host. His mother, Mrs. Major Hopper was assisted in serving and entertaining by Misses Ruth Hamrick, Mabel Hord and Ruth Hopper. Dixie cups, cakes and candies were served. Major Lee was delighted with his many gifts which were on display in the reception hall.

Birthday Party For Daughter.

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. Russell Laughridge entertained the neighbors of her little daughter, Betty Sue, in celebration of her eighth birthday.

The children had a merry time playing games on the lawn. Mrs. Laughridge presented the guests with lovely pink baskets filled with nuts, each girl received a doll and each boy a whistle. After many games delicious ice cream and cake were served.

The beautiful birthday cake, topped with eight tiny pink candles, was cut, and Helen Wells received the dime, Bobby Frazier the dime, Betty Sue Laughridge the dime, and Helen Maxwell the button.

Contract Bridge Club Entertained.

Mrs. Robert Hord was a charming hostess to the Contract Bridge club Saturday morning at her cozy apartment on North LaFayette street. The rooms were abloom with late summer flowers and stately Gladioli. Bridge was played at four tables and after an exciting game it was found that Mrs. Charlie Hubbard had won top score prize, and Mrs. Henry Edwards was winner of the second prize.

Miss Minnie Eddins Roberts was unanimously elected a member of the club. During the social hour, the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Clyde Nolan and Charlie Hubbard served a complete salad course.

Beautiful Party For Miss Nolan.

Perfect in every detail was the party given by Miss Mary Helen Lattimore on Saturday afternoon, honoring the charming bride-elect, Miss Kathleen Nolan. The hostess received her guests in a handsome purple crepe gown, while the bride to be was gowned in beautiful blue velvet, with shoulder corsage.

The home was a bower of beauty with its floral decorations. Bridge was played at twelve tables. The score cards were dainty little cupid standing in a wedding ring. The top score prize was won by Miss Thelma Young. Miss Lattimore presented Miss Nolan with a handsome silver sandwich tray, and Miss Lula Moore Suttle, another prospective bride, with a lovely guest towel.

When cards were laid aside, an elegant salad course was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Mary C. Hamrick, and Mesdames T. W. Hamrick and Roy Morris.

Ishping Club At Forest City.

Scarcely have the members of the Ishping club had a more enjoyable meeting than that held at the beautiful home of Miss Mary Moore at Forest City on Saturday morning. The guests were welcomed with an appetizer in the form of cider and ginger bread.

The home was lovely with a profusion of brilliant fall flowers. The club is taking a course of study from the Geographic Magazine and a most interesting program was carried out.

Miss Elizabeth Ebeltoft described the beautiful Lake country in England. Miss Elizabeth Roberts read a delightful paper on Canada, written by Mrs. Addie Gardner Farthing, and Mrs. Draper Wood closed the program with an interesting description of Holland.

A fitting close to this splendid program was the delicious two course luncheon served by the hostess, assisted by her sisters, Miss Ruth Moore and Mrs. Terry Moore.

Evening Division Meets.

The first fall meeting of the Evening Division of the Woman's club was held Thursday evening at the home of Miss Oeland Wasburn, with Misses Washburn and Ina Carpenter as hostesses, and Mrs. Mary Lou Yarborough as leader.

The home was beautifully decorated with bright fall flowers. The subject was, "Our Neighbors to the North." Miss Mayme Jones read an interesting paper, "Ambling Through Arcadia." This was followed by a paper, "Canada, the Spellbinder," written by Shelby's own Mrs. Addie Gardner Farthing, and read by Mrs. Ryburn in her usual charming manner.

The music for the evening, two piano solos, was furnished by Misses Lucile Nix and Jane Washburn. Special guests were Mesdames Grover Beam, Will King, Cline Hendrick, George Washburn, M. P. Coley and Miss Lottie Mae Hendrick.

The hostesses assisted by Mesdames George Washburn and M. P. Coley, served ice cream, cake, nuts and candy.

Daughter Of Gen. R. Randall Weds In Rock Hill.

Cleveland county friends will be interested in the following because the bride was Lora and reared at Earl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Randall, formerly of Earl, now of Rock Hill.

Cards, reading as follows, were issued today: Mr. and Mrs. George Roswell Randall announce the marriage of their daughter, Neva Gray, to Mr. James Francis Drennan on Thursday, September the nineteenth nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, Rock Hill, South Carolina.

The ceremony was performed at 7:30 in the evening at the home of the bride's parents in Cedar Crest, with Rev. B. R. Turnipseed, D. D., pastor of St. Johns Methodist church, officiating. There were no attendants, bride and groom entering the ceremony room together. Only members of the families and a few friends were in attendance. The couple left for a honeymoon trip of several days. Upon their return they will be with the bride's parents for the present.

Mr. Drennan is a son of W. E. Drennan of Elberton, Ga., and brother of Mrs. J. S. Park of this city, and grandson of Mrs. Laura Drennan, of East Black street. He received his education in the Rock Hill schools, and during the World war he served efficiently as training sergeant at Camp Jackson. He has been with Barron-Caldwell Motor company for some years previously, in the local freight office.

At The Theatres

Corinne Griffith, always popular with a Shelby audience, will appear at the Webb theatre today in Maxwell Anderson's Pulitzer prize play "Saturday's Children." It is a vitaphone production and gives the charming voice of the most beautiful actress on the screen. This is the first time that the voice of Miss Griffith has been recorded on the vitaphone and this is the first time a Pulitzer prize play has been made into a talkie. It is an intensely interesting story of everyday life for everybody.

Carrying the story of a great love that survives the efforts of man and the elements alike to crush it, the FBO production, "Voice of the Storm," opens at the Princess theatre today for an engagement of two days.

Directed by Lynn Shores, a sterling cast, including Karl Dane, Martha Sleeper, Hugh Allan, Theodore von Eltz, Lydia Yeaman Titus, Warner Richmond and Brandon Hurst, interprets the breath-taking action of the feature. What is said to be an example of realism without parallel in motion pictures is incorporated in "Voice of the Storm" in a mad race over muddy roads and tottering bridges.

HOKE SMITH TO SPEAK FOR HOME COMING, LINCOLN

Lincolnton—En-Senator Hoke Smith of Atlanta, will in all probability be the principal speaker for the homecoming celebration to be staged here October 12 and 13, at which time the 150th birthday of Lincoln county will be publicly observed. J. T. Perkins, chairman of the committee delegated to secure a speaker for the occasion, stated yesterday that Mr. Smith has the matter under consideration and will probably announce his decision within the next few days. In the meantime plans for the celebration are being worked out by the committee. It is probable that instead of having a public service in Lincolnton on Sunday every pastor in the county will be asked to have a special homecoming service in his church on that date. It is of interest to note that this year is the sesqui-centennial of the birth of Lincoln county and a part of the homecoming program will be devoted to this event.

Vital Health Found In Piedmont Section

Discovery Of Iodine In Vegetables Grown In Carolinas, Worth Millions.

Manufacturers Record.
The recent discovery that vegetables products of South Carolina have large quantities of iodine and thus are more valuable to humanity than those of practically no iodine content, grown in some sections of the United States, with the result that there is a higher percentage of goiter and other physical deficiencies, is attracting national attention.

The monthly magazine of the Southern Public Utilities company of Charlotte, N. C., for August, in discussing "North Carolina Opportunity" says that Dr. William Weston, chairman of the Southern Research commission of South Carolina, and others, have been exceedingly active in emphasizing the importance of the iodine discovery and pointing out its possibilities in an economic way.

Dr. Weston, in comparing the iodine content in vegetables in several states of the union, shows that carrots in Oregon contain 2.3 parts to a billion, in California 8.5 parts, and in South Carolina 197 parts.

California asparagus contain 12 parts iodine; South Carolina 245 parts; spinach contains 26 parts per billion when grown in California, while South Carolina has 684 parts and that grown in the Piedmont section of the state shows 750 to 770 parts. Quoting from the article in the Southern Public Utilities Magazine, and emphasizing the importance of iodine in the diet, Dr. Weston declared that in some areas the population would dwindle to one-tenth of the present number, in four generations, and that most of the survivors would be deformed or crippled if they attempted to subsist on locally grown products. He declared that 70 per cent of the population of Minneapolis have goiter in some degree, a situation which he emphasizes could be remedied by the consumption of vegetables grown in South Carolina.

Further, Senator Royal S. Copeland, M. D., of New York, was quoted as declaring that the discovery of the peculiarly high iodine content in South Carolina vegetables and fruits was the most important discovery from a health standpoint during the past hurried years. Dr. Copeland told Dr. Weston that there are 30,000,000 people in the United States who are suffering from an insufficiency of iodine, and he declared that this discovery should be worth millions to South Carolina.

Not only does South Carolina share this great blessing of nature, but other sections of the south are beginning to study the chemical values of their food products as well as the great value of southern sunlight which health research is bringing to the attention of the nation. The situation offers a great opportunity for the establishment of canning industries in those areas producing high iodine content vegetables which, with proper advertising of the value of such foods, should become one of the south's most successful developments. It is reported that an increasing demand is already being created for iodized vegetables. Several towns in South Carolina report activity in promoting the establishment of canning plants and are thus proving alert to their opportunity.

Negress Bears 7 Sets Of Twins In Seven Years Time

Raleigh—Mattie Mathey, negro woman of Raleigh, the mother of 12 living children, is believed to hold the mother record for Raleigh.

Mattie, so the story went when her husband was charged with assault with a deadly weapon and had to be defended in court, was married in 1916 and during the span of years until December 23, 1923 gave birth to seven straight sets of twins.

An, with the exception of the year 1923, all of the twins were born on Friday between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock. The woman said that during all of this time she never missed cooking a meal and did her regular weekly washing. She said that she never called a physician.

Mattie retained a lawyer to aid her husband, who earns $210 a day at a local railroad shop, and an investigation by the attorney showed that the man owned an automobile and had a bank account.
