

Hasn't Missed Sunday School In Six Years

Grover Youth Has Established Fine Record. Baptist Church Elects Officers.

(Special to The Star.) The Grover Baptist church elected the following officers for next year: Mr. E. C. Byers, treasurer; Mr. B. F. Bird, church clerk; Mrs. Ophelia Rollins, pianist; Mr. Jonathan Byers was elected to assist E. C. Byers as chorister. Rev. J. T. Dendy is leading his people in a Bible study course this month. They meet three evenings a week. Rev. Dendy reports that attendance and interest is fine. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ellis and daughter, Miss Olive, of Pacolet, S. C. were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mullinax. Miss Beverly Jones of Shelby spent Sunday with her sister Miss Eleanor Jones who is one of our high school teachers this year. Mrs. Will Moss of Earl is visiting this week with her sister-in-law Mrs. F. A. Moss. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Herndon and Mrs. J. P. Herndon and daughter Miss Aquilla, all of Baden, are visiting this week with Mrs. W. J. Moss. Mrs. J. L. Parker of Shelby spent part of last week with her mother Mrs. J. G. Herndon. Rev. W. E. Furcron and Mrs. Furcron motored to Greenville, S. C. last Friday to witness the football game between Parker high and Eastley. Jack Furcron is on the Parker team this year playing right halfback. The score was 6 to 0 in favor of Parker. Grover has one long distance champion with an enviable endurance record. Lewis Hamrick, 12 years old, has not missed Sunday school in six years. He is not only a regular attendant of Sunday school but he also attends preaching service and he is president of the Junior B. Y. P. U. and makes a splendid presiding officer.

Home, Farm And Schools On Parade At Fair Exhibit Hall

Exhibits from home, farm and school in the exhibit hall at the Cleveland county fair this year are far above anything that has ever been shown, declared Mrs. Irma Wallace, as she piloted a representative of The Star through the wilderness of pretty things yesterday. Cleveland county is on parade there this year and the quality of things shown is far above. The quantity is much larger. Although two of the exhibit halls have been connected with a large octagon shaped structure, over which points a massive silver colored dome, every available inch of space is taken. Each year the fair grows greater and this year it is truly "Cleveland's Greatest."

Community Booths. Starting at the south entrance, one sees on the left the community booths. No. 8 township is exhibiting for the first time and this booth is a show within itself. Bethlehem is back again. Two years ago that community won first prize for the best community booth. Saint Paul is shown the third time this year. Last year this thriving community won second place. Lattimore brought the best from its community fair and will run all other exhibits close for first prize. Lattimore is the only community in the county that had a community fair this year. Then comes an exhibit from the Methodist church community at Spear, N. C. Spear is not a familiar place, but it is up in Avery county and when The Star reporter passed by one of the Avery farmers stated that two car loads of registered cattle and a quantity of sheep were en route for exhibit. Then comes the legume and hay crops in a general display and this is followed by "household arts department" where everything on exhibit is made by a needle. The curio department is something new for the fair, but Mr. Carvus Hamrick in charge, has a number of interesting Indian relics and freaks of nature. Down the inside of the central aisle on the east is the honey department, then pastry and cakes, and canned fruits, and vegetables that are so tempting, they make one's mouth water to view them. Flowers Under Dome. Under the mammoth dome are the flowers banked in a pyramid and these make a very attractive setting as one enters at this point. Around the flowers is arranged the horticultural exhibit. Home Demonstration Clubs. Mrs. Wallace has 16 home demonstration clubs in the county. Nine of these have exhibits at the fair, all arranged side by side and each teaching a lesson of importance. Beulah's exhibit is showing the use of old sacks. Everything in the exhibit was made from sacks. Sharon shows the five keys to good health; Polkville, the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow; Waco shows Gulliver's adventures in health; Patterson Grove shows a baseball game between the stars and the scrubs, indicating the food to eat that builds a strong body and the food not to eat, with a bottle of milk acting as umpire. Piedmont presents the ladies of health; Boiling Springs the wheel of health and Bethlehem the walk to health, represented by the wavy steps and the open door. El Bethel shows the diet shop, representing the fat, thin and normal woman. The Shelby Woman's club is the only federated club with an exhibit and this project compares the school buildings of 1829 with those of 1929. At the usual place is the antique department with a wonderful collection of old relics showing the progress through which this section has passed since its first settlement. Then in the corner are the arts and crafts. Two entries that are especially interesting here are a chair and a flower box made from metal caps from bottled drinks.

School Exhibits. Practically all of the high schools of the county have exhibits, as a project emphasizing some important idea or lesson. Patterson Springs exhibit is a project on "England to America." Kings Mountain has a library exhibit; Mooresboro the "solar system of the family"; Belwood a general project; each emphasizes the idea of organization and the three important units of the community such as the Parent-Teachers association, literary societies and boy and girl scouts. Lattimore shows what team work in the community will do; Boiling Springs has a special project on outdoor playgrounds; Grover, Cass and Piedmont have two attractive exhibits with school projects; No. 8 township emphasizes health and a balanced ration; the Shelby city school display trophy cups won in various contests while Waco exhibit is made up of several projects.

Individual Farm Exhibits. Many farmers are showing individual farm exhibits this year, and they come not only from Cleveland county but from Avery and Gaston counties; R. L. Eaker from the Sunnyside section of Gaston is here, also D. Buchanan of Avery is trying to take honors from Cleveland county. George Hamrick is down with an exhibit from Lattimore, Coran Campbell, one of the diversifying farmers of No. 8 is back again with a splendid exhibit; J. P. McDaniel from No. 4 township; Beam brothers farm from No. 5 township; G. M. Goforth of No. 4. In the center of this exhibit hall will be found work done by old ladies over fifty years of age and the Woman's club has a miscellaneous lot of entries, while at the north end of the hall will be found a rare collection of minerals.

Firms Display Modern Wares In Manufacturers Fair Hall

The business building at the fair is solidly occupied by Shelby and Cleveland county business enterprises, no less than 21 of the 23 exhibits being of local origin. Modern appliances of many descriptions are on display, from the latest in motor vehicles, to the radio, the last word in farm implements, electric appliances, even an exhibit of structural steel being in the list. Some very novel devices have been employed to advertise the wares of the time. Amongst the very noticeable new things to be seen in the booth of the Union Trust company, where one may see a burning building, with a big time fire apparatus doing its bit on the scene. And included in the display is a building partially burned. These visual ideas, are of course assembled to advertise the fire insurance business of the company. Charles L. Eskridge, who sells the well known product from Detroit, has a very effective display in the form of a Ford car that is effectively taken apart so that the spectator may see how it works. The chassis is on display in one section, with the removed body in another. And of course there is a complete Uncle Henry, fully equipped, on full view. Bost's bakery has a tasteful exhibit of the products of the well known bakery; the First National bank is amongst those present; the Pilot Life Insurance company, the Woman's club, and there is a Presbyterian booth, dispensing refreshments. The Shelby Hardware company has no less than two booths, one given over exclusively to the Alway-Kent radio, and the other to finer lines of paints and lacquers. The Pan-American Life Insurance company is represented in a very attractive booth. And of especial merit is a display representative of the Shelby Creamery. This booth is, one might say, almost sensationally arranged, taking the form of a miniature farm, with the farm house, the grainery, the barn, the rural charm of the scene being enhanced by a picture lake in the foreground of the picture. And then there is a miniature of the creamery building itself. The Arey Refrigerating company displays its wares effectively—the well known Frigidaire, the RCA radio, the Westinghouse electric stove, etc. The structural steel display is fathered by the J. C. Weathers company, and includes no less an item than a steel bridge, a water tower of modern construction, and steel pieces in many sorts. The Cleveland Hardware company has a very well arranged booth down the center space, the display including such things as "Washburn's" features—modern farm implements and sporting goods. W. A. Pendleton has a big radio displaying special attention to the Majestic and Victor. This booth has a puzzle for the public to solve, in the form of a flying Zeppelin, representing Majestic "The Monarch of the Air" which is suspended in space, no one seems to know just how. The Staf-O-Life Feed company is represented, and W. H. Blanton, jr. head of the Shelby Auto and Wagon company has a strategic position at the entrance of the hall, where is displayed no less an object than a wrecked automobile. (Mr. Blanton being a reconstructionist) together with a representation of duco painting and truck body building. The Ellis studio is amongst those present, together with an effective display of Buick and Marquette cars by Lawrence Lackey, and the Dodge and Chrysler by the Litton Motor company. Amongst other well known firms who have displays are the Cleveland Oil company, and the Blue Bird Ice Cream company.

Murder Witness

Hobart White, one of the persons riding on the truck, when Gastonia, N. C., mob opened fire on union strikers and killed Mrs. Ella Mae Wiggins. White had his arm broken in the battle that followed the killing and will be one of the important witnesses when the suspected mob members are brought to trial.

Big Memorial For Chicago Boy Killed

Chicago—The Bobby Franks memorial to perpetuate the memory of the child victim of the Loch-Leopold "thrill murder" has been decided upon by the trustees named in the will of Bobby's father, who died 18 months ago. "The American boys' commonwealth has been chosen as beneficiary under the elder Franks' $100,000 bequest. The choice was made, the trustees explained, in keeping with the father's desire as expressed in the will. "The type of memorial I desire my trustees shall establish shall be a fitting memorial to perpetuate the memory of my boy, who would desire that the memorial in his name should be one that would give pleasure, help, encouragement to boys, as he in his lifetime gave sympathy, encouragement and consideration to his playmates. One half of the $100,000 will be voted to improving the property of the American Boys' Commonwealth. The other half will be sequestered as a trust out of which from time to time help may be given boys in connection with the work of the commonwealth. Richard Loeb and Nathan Leopold, jr., are serving life sentences at Joliet for the murder of the Franks boy. Touching a live wire, a black cat in Waukegan, Ill., was electrocuted and the short circuit put two factories out of commission.

READ THE REASONS WHY

These Oldsmobile Owners Bought Their Cars

Nowhere is the thorough satisfaction that comes with Oldsmobile ownership more frequently or more definitely expressed than in the thousands of written messages which purchasers of Oldsmobile cars are constantly sending, of their own free will, to the Olds Motor Works.

"In my opinion, Oldsmobile is a mighty good car for its price. For a small difference it gives an excellent cooling system; smoothly balanced crankshaft; smart appearance; and many other items that cheaper and lighter cars don't give." —Paris, Ill.

These expressions of owner opinion are typical of thousands of others which tell the same story of brilliant performance, restful travel, and dependable operation. Oldsmobile owners in your own community will express the same enthusiasm. Ask them yourself what they think of their cars. Then come in and examine Oldsmobile's fine features . . . and drive the car. The many sound reasons why Oldsmobile owners bought their cars will become more and more apparent to you as you become better acquainted with this fine car of low price.

Read the reasons why these owners bought Oldsmobiles—and their experiences in owning and driving Oldsmobiles.

"I like the pick-up and ease of handling of Oldsmobile—also its many new features. The location of the distributor on top of the engine is convenient. Radiator shutters are an excellent feature. Front end appearance and general good looks of the car appeal to me." —Kingston, N. Y.

"Oldsmobile has attracted my attention for a long time, due to its constant perfection without radical changes. Its construction is sturdy throughout, and its engine develops a lot of horsepower for its size." —Newark, Ohio

"My neighbor drove an Oldsmobile 11 years, and the car had a good record all that time. I looked at a new one, thought it the best proportioned car I ever saw, and bought it. I'm glad I did." —Lebanon, Ohio
