

Veteran Gridders Play Here Saturday In College Clash

The Rah-Rah Outfit Comes Here Saturday

Lenoir Rhyne College President To Permit Students To Visit Shelby.

(Special To The Star.) Hickory.—Students wishing to attend the Lenoir Rhyne-Presbyterian college football game in Shelby Saturday will be given permission to leave the college for the game. President Schaefer announced.

A large number of the students are expected to attend the game and yell for their team as the Mountain Bears open the football season on the Cleveland county fair grounds.

By a recent decree only 500 Moslem religious teachers will be permitted in Turkey.

Schedule Of Sport Event Hereabouts

The Shelby highs are playing Belmont Abbey at the city park here today.

Dick Gurley's Lenoir Rhyne eleven will meet Presbyterian college in this section's first college football game at the Cleveland County Fair tomorrow, Saturday.

Davidson and Clemson will play in Charlotte Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Robert Felsner of Chicago failed in her efforts to compel her husband to support her because she asked him to leave home twelve years ago. Since that time Felsner has become wealthy.

Gurley Pins Hopes On Vets To Beat Scrappy P. C. Team

Hager, Jones, Mauney, and Holschouer In Backfield For Lutheran Eleven.

Football fans who see Saturday's contest at the fair grounds between Lenoir Rhyne and P. C. will see two veteran teams in action. The Mountain Bears, coached by Dick Gurley, will be veterans for the most part of football warfare, while Walter Johnson, Presbyterian coach, will send his best prospects against the Lutheran eleven as the score of a season's opener is often used to judge the strength of an eleven. Lenoir Rhyne and P. C. have never met before, but football strategists consider the eleven about evenly matched.

(By HOUSTON LAWING.)

Hickory.—Drilling behind barred doors, the Mountain Bears of Lenoir Rhyne college are rounding up their practice sessions preparing for the opening game of the season to be played on the fair grounds at Shelby Saturday, September 28 when the Bears tackle Presbyterian college eleven.

Coach Gurley has high hopes of a victory over the South Carolina combination, and with about 20 veterans eligible for the battle, will throw his entire veteran strength into the opening contest.

Realizing the importance of the game and the thought that one of the largest football crowds of the season will witness the fray, the Mountain Bears are hard at work, running plays, scrimmaging, passing, punting and tackling as they prepare for the invasion of the Shelby field. More than 20,000 fans are expected to attend the game, which will feature the closing day's attractions of the Cleveland County Fair.

Early indications point to a veteran team of lettermen for the Shelby game. Cloyd Hager, veteran quarterback, is assured of his post since Gibbs DeHins, his position mate, will be ineligible for the tilt while Lester "Spring" Jones, triple threat of the backfield, will start in his fullback post with Malcolm Reese, another hefty candidate in reserve.

Carl Mauney and Howard Holschouer, lettermen, are favored to take their old positions as halfbacks.

The line will be built around several lettermen and outstanding candidates with "Razz" Miller taking the center post with Hatfield and Wright in reserve. Captain Jack Kiser and Harry Lemon will get the ends, both Lemon and Kiser played on the 1928 combination. Kiser has been working in the backfield some during practice and may be shifted during the game Saturday.

Big Banks Ritchie, hefty 204 pound tackle, is assured of his old position, while Frank Poovey, 197 pounder, and Charles Syre, another hefty candidate, fight for the other tackle post.

The scramble continued for the guard positions with McAllister and Rhodes, two veterans, leading the candidates for the posts, while Rhyne, Kiser and Russell will probably alternate with the guard candidates for honors. Mesimer is running the regulars a race for a tackle post.

The reserve strength of the backfield will include Denny Troutman, Johnny Coulter, Dermont Swiggood and Reese.

China Seeks Even Break For Girls

Shanghai.—One of the hopes of the Nationalists is to give the baby girl equal rights with the baby boy. The Chinese boy for ages had had much the best of it all around.

He is longed for and prayed for and when he arrives he is pampered and spoiled. Wage earners are the thing out here—the boys earn much more than girls. It has been the custom of centuries. A girl is not wanted, but the new regime would change all this, or at least put all the little Chinese misses on an equal footing, in parental eyes, with the tiny male members of the family.

Giant Fullback Here On Saturday

Lester "Spring" Jones (above) will be the outstanding performer in tomorrow's game at the fair grounds here between Lenoir Rhyne and P. C. Jones, who weighs 187 pounds, will be the principal punter and backfield man of the Lenoir Rhyne eleven. A native of Illinois he may reach All-State backfield fame this year.

Cures By Snake-Fright.

New York Times. Violent shock has sometimes been known to cure where medical treatment has failed. A sudden fright is the traditional prescription for hiccoughs. Air plane rides with hair-raising loops and drops have been known to cure deafness. Hopeless paralyses have been known to lead from their beds when a sudden fire threatened their lives.

Utilizing this principle physicians of Guayaquil loosed a nine-foot-long boa constrictor in the paralytic ward of the Civil Hospital. Terrified by the monster several patients forgot their ailments, rushed from their cots to doors and windows and fought each other in their frantic attempts to escape. Those who were unable to leave their beds were hastily reassured by attendants that the snake was really quite harmless.

By this means it was discovered that some of the patients had been shamming. Others, really mental cases, were definitely cured by realizing that they actually could move arms and legs.

Manager Of Great Baseball Team Dead

Miller Huggins, "Mighty Atom Of Baseball," Loses Fight For Life.

New York.—Miller Huggins, the "Mighty Atom" of baseball is dead. The bantamweight manager who knew how to handle the heavy-weight home run king, who manipulated the play of the most powerful team ever known to baseball, winning six pennants and three world's championships in eight years with the New York Yankees, died Wednesday afternoon at St. Vincent's hospital.

The end to one of the most remarkable careers of major league leadership, one which saw Huggins battle against obstacles to produce the richest and greatest club of modern times, came at 3.16 p. m. The diminutive manager had fought a gallant but losing fight against a complication of maladies. He was 49 years old.

Ill Less Than Week.

Huggins became seriously ill less than a week ago. He was removed to the hospital only last Friday and then mainly at the insistence of Dr. Edward H. King club physician of the Yankees, who realized the little man was in dangerous condition. He had suffered from a protracted cold which developed into influenza. A slight infection of the face developed erysipelas and it was the combination of ailments that rapidly undermined his resistance.

Four blood transfusions were made within the last two days in an effort to save the manager's life, but at no time did he rally sufficiently to develop much hope for his recovery. Death was directly due to pyaemia, the process of blood-forming organisms in the blood, with infection of the face and oedema, the filling of the lungs with water, as contributory causes.

Ton Weak For Crisis.

Huggins, an unyielding fighter on the diamond, nervous and aggressive even though he never sought the limelight, did not have the nervous energy or the physical stamina to win his last battle. Never really robust although of veyr build, he had exhausted in a major league career of 25 years most of the strength which he so badly needed in the crisis. Nevertheless he fought hard for life and with characteristic gameness, just as he fought hard for everything he won on the baseball field. At the bedside when the end came were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Huggins, his brother and sister-in-law; Myrtle Huggins, his sister, and the Rev. J. E. Price of the Washington Heights Methodist Episcopal church.

Col. Jacob Ruppert, the wealthy brewer who selected Huggins as manager of the Yankees 12 years ago, backed him to the limit through varying fortunes and made millions through the successes of the club. Had spent most of the morning at the hospital, along with Edward G. Barrow, his business manager. They had left the hospital for lunch shortly before the end came.

Grief-stricken, both shared keenly the regret that was universal tonight throughout the baseball world. The spontaneous character of tributes from friends, leaders, and rivals of Huggins in many a brilliant baseball conflict all testified to the high regard in which he was held. It was an especially hard blow to Colonel Ruppert, whose personal confidence in "Hug" under any and all circumstances was rewarded by the remarkable triumphs of the Yankees.

Funeral Services.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Friday at the Church of the Transfiguration, with Dr. Price, a close personal friend of Huggins, officiating, the body will be taken Friday afternoon to Cincinnati, Huggins' birthplace, where final services will be held Sunday afternoon.

Forgot His New Role.

A minister who had given up his former position as a magistrate in order to enter the ministry, was conducting his first marriage service.

Will thou have this man to be thy wedded husband? he asked the bride.

And you, he continued, addressing the bridegroom, what have you to say in your defense?

You get more for your dollar in America's finest medium-priced automobile

Today's Oakland All-American Six stands out unmistakably as America's finest medium-priced automobile. Its value supremacy has been established by facts revealed in comparison of the All-American Six with twenty other medium-priced automobiles—the most thorough analysis of motor car values of which we have ever heard.

Let us go over all the results of this comparison with you and point out what the information it provides means to you as a buyer of a medium-priced car. When you have seen how on every basis of comparison the All-American Six towers above its field—you will agree with us that you get more for your dollar in America's finest medium-priced automobile.

Proof of Oakland Value Superiority

The following facts were obtained from a comparison of the Oakland All-American Six with 20 other medium-priced automobiles. All told, 878 individual comparisons were made. Of these, Oakland proved to be distinctly superior in 431 or 51.37 per cent. The 20 cars combined were at best equal to Oakland on 382 or 43.50 per cent. And 13 of the 20 were higher-priced than Oakland.

WHEELBASE Only one car as low-priced as Oakland has a wheelbase as long as Oakland's, which is 117 inches. That requires a turning circle to the left of 42 feet as compared with Oakland's 36 feet. Six higher-priced cars have shorter wheelbases.

PISTON DISPLACEMENT Oakland's 228 cubic inch piston displacement is greater than 13 of the 20 cars in its price field. Of the 8 remaining cars, 7 are much higher priced than Oakland.

BRAKES Only Oakland and one other car in its field use the fine type of brakes which Oakland employs. And no car in the field equals Oakland's 290 square inches of brake band area. Oakland's separate emergency brake operates on the transmission. Seven cars in the field have no separate emergency brakes, although three of them exceed Oakland in price.

FISHER BODY Only Oakland and two other cars in the field offer bodies by Fisher. And one of the two is nearly $100 higher in price than Oakland. Of the 18 cars which have less expensive bodies, 11 are priced above the All-American Six.

Consider the delivered price as well as the list (f. o. b.) price when comparing automobiles. The Oakland's delivered price includes only authorized charges for freight and delivery and the charge for any additional accessories an financing desired.

HERE'S EXACTLY THE FEED for Lazy Molting Hens

To bring hens quickly through the molt, and to put them back on their job with lots of vim and vigor, use this famous "Fifty-Fifty" plan. It's easy—just feed a mixture of

Quaker FUL-O-PEP GROWING MASH

Quaker FUL-O-PEP EGG MASH

These two feeds give just what the hen needs to build new feathers, new blood, and they tone up her system so that she soon is active and eager to lay. Both scientific rations, designed to do a special job, in combination they make an unequalled ration for bringing hens through the non-productive period in the shortest possible time. We have these good feeds waiting for you.
