How Times Have Changed.

This is the season of county fairs throughout the state and a few years back a "spell" of weather of the kind that has prevailed this week would have pinned the badge of mourning on every gate, but behold the change! The Cleveland county fair was met on the opening day with a rain, misty atmosphere and generally soggy conditions, and yet the adding machine made record of as many as 35,000 ingoers, which might be regarded as a record attendance even for a good weather day.

Why He Became Ill.

A railroad man was ready to make his usual run. His wife instructed him to get her some turkey eggs to set. In passing through a small town a dirty country lad approached the engineer and asked him, "Don't you want to buy some buzzard eggs?"

Seeing an opportunity to play a joke upon his wife, he gave the lad a nickel for them. About a month later he asked his wife:

"How are your turkeys getting along?"

"Oh, I decided it was getting too late for turkeys, so I put them in your lunch."
