DAY OF JUDGMENT AWAITED BY THREE ON CANADIAN HILL

Masefield, Sask.—High on a hill overlooking the picturesque little town of Masefield, three persons, Archibald Chandler, his wife and brother, Sidney, are awaiting the coming of Christ and the end of the world, which they predict will be signalized on November 6.

Preparing for the day of judgment, which they foresee in celestial signs, and world signs of famine, accidents and war, the Chandler brothers, most influential farmers of the Masefield district, have disposed of their farm-lands and stock and are living in a tent. On their camping ground they have stored ten tons of flour.

STATE PRISON'S POPULATION INCREASED 133 LAST MONTH

Raleigh.—The record of admissions at state prison for September stood at 133 at the end of the month to break the former mark of 121 prisoners received which was set last March. A final check showed that the group of prisoners brought in from Guilford county as the month ended shot the mark to 133 and a new high mark. October got off to a good start with five new prisoners brought in the first day.

ARE YOU A Dairyman?

Dairymen who grow their own roughage; who provide pasture for their cows, who keep high producing stock and who feed a balanced concentrate ration in amounts proportional to production, are making good profits when they send their cream to us.

There is a field in this section for more dairymen; opportunities for those who follow approved practices are brighter than ever. If you want to increase your income hang on to your good cows and buy a few more good cows this fall.

—and too the boll weevil won't get you, nor the wet or dry weather—good cows produce a cash income every day in the year—regardless.

WE FURNISH A CASH MARKET FOR YOUR CREAM.
