Oglethrope's upset victory over Georgia last Saturday was somewhat of a let-down for the in Athens as well as the Tech-Carolina tussle on the previous day in Atlanta.

But Oglethrope's turning over of so much of the kick out of the Yale-Georgia clash for several reasons. First of all, and don't forget football eleven. Every year or two the Atlanta school has a fine eleven. Tech fans who recall the unexpected walloping Oglethrope gave the Golden Tornado a few too, remember that Georgia will be opening a brand new stadium Saturday week and that they will be playing Yale the first time Yale ever came South for anybody. Don't tell us that those Georgia gridders will not put up the battle of their lives for the edification of the record crowd for the new stadium opening and for the benefit of Yale down for a first visit to the land of molasses, cheap moonshine, and beautiful girls.

Football fans, just like the sportwriters, seldom can see a great pigskin carrier unless he happens to be on some outstanding eleven like Georgia Tech, Notre Dame, California, or N. Y. U. Yet in the scores of little college elevens scattered over the country there must be every year plenty of Granges, Thorpes, Mizells, and Browns.

This lad Jimmy Greene, who flashed across the field here last The Novel "Bethel" Saturday against Lenoir Lhyne, is to our way of thinking one of the best all-around backs we have seen in several years. Dick Gurley, whose starts jumping. Although on a minor college eleven, more will be heard of him this year.

If any more tough luck can visit the Shelby high eleven it surely will have to be a smallpox epidemic. About every other had break that could come along has already arrived. When the season opened there were only two experienced backfield men on the squad. Today both of them are hobbling about on

Injuries Weaken Highs For Friday

Eskridge, Fullback, Out With Injury. No Experienced Backs For Forest City.

The Shelby highs will likely go into their game Friday at Forest City with one of the weakest lineups they have sent on a field in many years. Last week the highs lost a hard game to Belmont Abbey because of a lack of experienced men, and this week matters became worse when Eskridge, fullback, the only remaining backfield man of experience, joined the injured list.

If Eskridge is unable to play Frithe dope bucket should not take day, and it appears so now, the four men who will bear the scoring burden for the Morrismen will all be new men, except for the fact it, Oglethrope always has a good that Rippy had some experience at quarter last year.
