

GROVER NEWS OF PERSONAL MENTION

Next Sunday Rally Day At Presbyterian Church, Union Services Here.

(Special to The Star)

Grover, Sept. 30.—Yesterday was a great day for the churches of Grover. Mr. T. S. Keeter, superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school reported nearly one hundred per cent on time. The promotion day exercises were in charge of Miss Meldona Livingston and an extremely fine showing was made by all classes.

The fifth Sunday union service was held in the Presbyterian church last night and their large auditorium was well filled with an appreciative congregation. The prayer and praise service was conducted by the Rev. J. T. Dendy. The sermon was preached by the Baptist pastor the Rev. W. E. Furcron. These union meetings are proving to be of great benefit to the town in general and are looked forward to by all the people with much pleasure.

The H. S. Ketter grocery company commenced work this morning on their big glass front which will when finished add considerably to the attractiveness of their fine store on Main street. Mr. J. D. Moore of Shelby is in charge of the construction work and the material will be furnished by W. C. Wallace.

Quite a number of the prizes awarded last week by the Cleveland county fair went to Grover. T. T. and H. S. Keeter received first, second and third prize on their exhibit of black Poland China pigs. Mr. Bert Westmoreland received first prize on a pen of game chickens. Mrs. W. E. Furcron received two prizes on embroidery and crocheted work and Miss Esther Furcron received a prize on homemade dress and the Grover high school received twelve dollars for their booth.

The Grover high school closed last Friday for four weeks to allow the pupils an opportunity to help gather the cotton crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Hillus Ramseur of Bessemer City were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Rube Rollins.

Miss Marie Martin of Spartanburg, S. C. is visiting her sister Mrs. D. A. Moss this week.

Miss Eddie Byers who is attending Limestone college this year spent the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Byers.

Miss Mary Sue Hunt, one of the teachers in the Earl school is spending her vacation with her aunt, Miss M. Livingston.

There will be a big land sale in Grover on October 4 at which time the lands of Dr. George Oates consisting of fine farms and some town lots will be sold at auction. This is some of the finest property in this section.

Next Sunday will be rally day in the Presbyterian Sunday school here. This is an annual day observed in the interest of Sunday school extension and publication in the Presbyterian general assembly. The local church here is arranging quite an interesting program for next Sunday, and the pastor the Rev. J. T. Dendy extends a cordial invitation to the public to meet with them.

The Presbyterian Sunday school has had a splendid growth this year and a fine spirit of development is shown in all of its departments.

TOLUCA AND KNOB CREEK GLEANINGS

Mr. B. G. Yabro received a telegram last week that his brother, Ed Yabro had died last Tuesday, September 24, of pneumonia. He was sick but a short time. Ed was born in the Toluca section leaving this community 27 years ago. He and his father, Tom Yabro, one sister, Ollie, and three brothers, Henry, Burt and Cal. Burt and Charlie lived a few years and returned. His father and mother preceded him to the grave. His mother died before they left North Carolina. He was 47 years old, and leaves to mourn his passing one sister, Mrs. Ollie Olson, three brothers, Mr. Henry Yabro of California, Mr. Burt Yabro of Toluca, Mr. Charlie Yabro of Morganton. Burt and Charlie did not attend the funeral.

The Toluca Gin company ginned their first bale of cotton last Monday. It stays so rainy people cannot get their cotton picked what is open. A lot of people that had late planted corn had their fodder pulled and hanging on the stalk last week it is past taking in, also some had hay mowed and lost it.

A lot of people from this community attended the singing convention at Olive Grove last Sunday. There was a lot of good singing. Miss Vangie Wells took a group of little folks from the Sunday school at Laurel Hill of which she received a lot of compliment. She is invited to take her group to North Brook No. 1 next Sunday. There will be a singing convention there on next Sunday October 6.

SPEND LESS AND SAVE MORE

To get ahead you will have to spend less and save more. For many of us are spending more than we receive, just to keep up with those who have larger incomes.

THAT'S BUNK

Live within your income regardless of what others are doing—and save a certain percent of your income, rain or shine and you'll get ahead. Put on the brakes, cut down, and be happy—get adjusted—

THAT'S SENSE

We invite you to work out a plan, and open a savings account at this bank—Save a certain amount each day, each week, each month and all will be well with you in years to come.

Deposits made up through 5th will draw interest from the first, in our savings department.
