Miss Nolan Is Bride Of Mr. Dover

In a ceremony of surpassing beauty and charm, Miss Kathleen Nolan and Charles Dover were wedded Saturday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the handsome home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nolan on N. Lafayette street. Dr. Jess Wall pastor of the First Baptist church officiated, using the ring service.

The home was arranged throughout with quantities of lovely flowers. A beautiful musical program was rendered preceding the ceremony, with Miss Mary Helen Lattimore, gowned in orchid chiffon and shoulder bouquet of pink roses and valley lilies, at the piano, who played with exquisite charms "Love's Dream" by List. Dr. H. S. Plaster, violinist, rendered Schubert's "Angel Serenade." Mr. Horace Eason next sang "My World" and "Until." The wedding march from Lohengrin was rendered and "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell, was softly played during the ceremony.

The vows were spoken in the north parlor before a bank of ferns and palms and floor baskets of white chrysanthemums, flanked with seven branched candelabras, holding cathedral tapers. The bride was given in marriage by her father Mr. J. B. Nolan and the bridegroom had as his best man, his brother, Mr. J. R. Dover, jr. Mrs. Vick Wray, sister of the bride, was dame of honor and the bridesmaids were: Miss Katherine McBrayer of Forest City, cousin of the bride, Miss Catherine Dover, sister of the groom, Miss Polly Huggins of Terra Alta, W. Va., and Mrs. Clyde Nolan, sister-in-law of the bride. Preceding the entrance of the bridal party, Ed Nolan, youngest brother of the bride, lighted the candles and removed the tulle bows which marked the gateways of the improvised aisle. The bride was never more beautiful than in her wedding gown of handsome ivory satin, made princess fashion with long court train, with slightly low neck and long sleeves, and white satin slippers trimmed with sprays of orange blossoms. The illusion veil was worn, cap-fashion and edged with real lace and caught on either side with orange blossoms. She carried an exquisite shower bouquet of brides roses, valley lilies, pale orchids and swansonia. The dame of honor wore orchid chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of Columbia roses, gladioli and swansonia, tied with ribbon, the color of her dress. The bridesmaids wore transparent velvet gowns, made princess style and carried arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums, tied with yellow ribbon.

Miss McBrayer and Miss Dover wore pink transparent velvet dresses and Miss Huggins and Mrs. Nolan wore green transparent velvets. Little Betty Dorton, lovely daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Dorton, beautifully dressed as a diminutive bride in a handsome white satin gown and long veil, made the same style as the bride, was the ring bearer and carried the ring in the small shower bouquet of roses and valley lilies.

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Dover and the bridal party were: Mr. and Mrs. Nolan, parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Dover, parents of the groom. Mrs. Nolan wore a flowered chiffon with shoulder bouquet of rose buds and lilies, and Mrs. Dover was attired in gold lace and satin.

Receiving in the living room were Mrs. T. W. Hamrick and Miss Agnes McBrayer. In the gift room were: Mrs. Jack Dover and Miss Ruby McBrayer. The register was presided over by Mesdames J. S. Dorton and Hugh Plaster. Entertaining in the sun parlor and serving punch were: Mesdames D. W. Quinn, John Fox, jr., Frank Love, Chas. Roberts and Miss Sara Wray. During the reception Mr. and Mrs. Dover left via motor for a ten days honeymoon trip, after which they will be at home in Shelby. The bride traveled in a navy blue tweed ensemble with small hat and accessories to match and egg shell blouse and wore a handsome light beige fox neck piece.

Bride and Groom.
The bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nolan and is one of the city's most beautiful and popular members of society. She was educated at Meredith college and the conservatory of music at Durham.

The bridegroom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dover and is a prominent and successful young business man, being the secretary and treasurer of the Dover mill. He was educated at State college and Fishburn's military academy at Staunton, Va.

Out-Of-Town Guests.
Those attending the wedding from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Nolan and son, Paul Vernon of Marion; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Nolan and J. O. Jr., of Kannapolis; Miss Muriel Sutton of Raeford, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Pettit, Mr. T. L. Pettit, Mrs. Harry Caldwell, Miss Grace Glary and Miss Miriam Hamrick of Gaffney, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. John Fox, jr., of Teaneck, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Roberts, Betsy Hall and Jean Roberts and Mrs. Eliza Roberts of Red Springs, Mr. and Mrs.

Frank Love and Miss Catherine Love of Lincolnton, Mrs. R. J. Laney, of Monroe, Mrs. Rueben McBrayer, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McBrayer, Misses Nell and Margaret Young, Miss Robbie Biggerstaff and Mrs. Robert Biggerstaff of Forest City, Miss Nina Holt White of Charlotte, Mr. J. B. Sutton of Live Oaks, Fla., and Miss Thea Jentz of Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Linberger Hosts.
Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lineberger were gracious hosts yesterday at their handsome home at Cleveland Springs with an elegant dinner complimenting Dr. Plato Durham, who has been conducting a series of meetings at the Central Methodist church for the past week. The dinner guests included Dr. Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Stonewall Durham of Bessemer City, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hoey and Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Sherrill.

Farnell-Suttle Invitations Received.
The following handsomely engraved invitations have been received, reading:
"Mr. and Mrs. Jap Suttle requests the honour of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Lula Moore to Mr. Daniel Newton Farnell, junior, on Saturday, the twenty-sixth of October, at twelve o'clock noon, First Baptist church, Shelby, North Carolina.

Miss Suttle is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jap Suttle and is a pretty and attractive young lady. Her marriage will be looked forward to with much interest by her hosts of friends.

Gov. and Mrs. Gardner Honored.

One of the affairs of outstanding interest and importance given for Gov. and Mrs. Gardner while in Georgia over the week-end was the delightful breakfast on Friday morning given by Governor Hardman, chief executive of Georgia and Mrs. Hardman first lady of the state, at the executive mansion on Prado in Ansley Park, Atlanta, complimenting the executive of three other states accompanied by their wives, Gov. Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt of New York, Gov. O. M. Gardner and Mrs. Gardner of North Carolina, Gov. Bibb Graves and Mrs. Graves of Alabama, General J. Van B. Metts, adjutant general of N. C. and Gen. I. C. Reeves of Alabama composed the list of honor guests, all of whom went to Atlanta to attend the festivities of the Southeastern fair arranged for Friday, October 11 and set apart as governors day.

County Boys Hold University Meeting

J. M. Wright Heads Cleveland County Club. The Star Is Like A Letter From Mother.

(Special to The Star.)
Chapel Hill, Oct. 12.—The Cleveland county club at the University of N. C. met Wednesday night for the first time of the school year. A short talk was made by G. T. Cornell, former president, and the following men were selected to officiate the club this year: J. M. Wright, president; S. E. Green, vice president, and R. W. Elliott, secretary and treasurer. We have three freshmen in our midst this year, C. R. Caveney, R. S. Gidney, and R. W. Elliott. G. L. Warlick has transferred from Mars Hill college and is continuing his study of chemistry here. J. M. Wright is back after an extensive travel through the western states and has resumed his study of law. C. M. Kendrick and E. V. Moore have taken up the study of medicine here and are slated to lead their class. Kendrick is a graduate of Duke university and Moore is a graduate of Wake Forest. B. M. Kendall has taken up the study of mechanical engineering and we are confident that he will prove to be a figurehead of wisdom in the engineering school. E. S. Eskridge is a senior in our midst, and we are all proud of his record here. He has represented the university for three years in the glee club, band and symphony orchestra. S. E. Green is also a senior, and he has proven his ability as a scholar and is a member of the glee club. G. T. Cornwall is a junior in the school of applied science and has carried up the "basso" end of the University Y. M. C. A. for the past year. F. O. Sain is well on his way for Phi Beta Kappa honors and we offer him our heartiest congratulations.

We are few in number in a student body of nearly 2,700, but we hope to be worthy representatives of our county. The Cleveland Star is like a letter from "mother," and we are always glad when "Star day" comes.

LIFE MILLION YEARS HENCE IS PICTURED

Mountains Will Be Gone And Seas Ice Blocks, Says British Scientist.

Cambridge, England.—What will the world be like 1,000,000 years hence? Jolly good, in some ways—but pretty foul in others. Old Mother Earth will then be almost worn out. Venus will be all the rage as a dwelling place for humans, while the earth as we know it will be completely changed.

Sir James Jeans, the distinguished astronomer and secretary of the Royal society, tells us all about it in his absorbing new book, "The Universe Around Us."

"Life may still exist on earth a million years hence," he says. "If so, I am glad that my life has not fallen in this far distant future. Mountains and seas, which provide some of the keenest pleasures of our present life, will exist only as traditions handed down from a remote and almost incredible past. The denudation of 1,000,000 years will have reduced the mountains almost to plains, while seas and rivers will be frozen packs of solid ice.

"We may well imagine that man will have infinitely more knowledge than now, but he will no longer know the thrill of pleasure of the pioneer who opens up new realms of knowledge. Disease and perhaps death will have been conquered, and life will doubtless be safer and incomparably better ordered.

"It will seem incredible that a time could have existed when men risked, and lost, their lives in raving unexplored country, in climbing hitherto unclimbed peaks, in fighting wild beasts for the fun of it.

"Life will be more of a routine and less of an adventure than now; it will be more purposeless when the human race knows that within a measurable space of time it must face extinction and the eternal destruction of all its hopes, endeavors and achievements.

"Venus, with a mean temperature some 60 degrees higher than the earth, is probably too hot for life at present. But after 1,000,000

SEPTEMBER AUTO SALES NUMEROUS

Total Of 7,360, 2nd Largest Reported During Year; 475,000 Registered.

A total of 7,360 new cars were sold in North Carolina during September, the second largest sales record for any one month during the year, according to figures compiled by Sprague Silver, head of the motor vehicle bureau of the state department of revenue.

July had the largest sales for the year, with more than 7,700 cars disposed of by dealers. Sales for the entire year are running about 10 per cent of sales for the same period last year, Mr. Silver said, predicting that if sales held up during the remaining three months of the year registrations would increase nearly 10 per cent over those of last year.

There were 3,591 Fords and 1,775 Chevrolets sold during last month, these two makes leading others by a wide margin. A check of the files showed 4-75,245 motor vehicles registered in the state, Mr. Silver announced, 422,612 of these being auto-motocycles and the others trucks. Only seven counties in the state showed a registration of more than 10,000 cars. Guilford leading with 28,525 and Mecklenburg standing next in line with 26,735. Forsyth county had 21,950, Buncombe 18,525, Wake 17-700 Gaston 12,160, and Durham 10-240.

B. T. JONES ELECTED TO COUNTY ATTORNEY POST

Rutherfordton.—B. T. Jones, well known young attorney of Forest City has been elected county attorney of Rutherfordton to succeed C. O. Biddings, who resigned. Mr. Jones came to the county from Kingston and is a graduate of Wake Forest college.

will have fallen by 40 degrees, and what the earth is now, Venus may perhaps be, somewhere between 1,000,000 and 2,000,000 years hence. "Whether life will then inhabit Venus, we cannot know, and it would be futile to guess—but there is at least a chance that as the earth falls, Venus may step into its place."
