

Barnett Bros. Show
Coming On Oct. 23

Miss Allen Will Present Her Creation Of "Sweethearts On Parade."
By The Press Agent
No doubt you are aware of the fact that a real, honest to goodness circus is the greatest entertainment of all amusements, and the only branch of the amusement world that does not need censoring. A visit to the circus is a day of enjoyment for the old and the young. It is a day that the kiddies always remember and the old folks never forget.

Barnett Brothers Circus and Trained animal shows which is bigger and better this year and offering an unusual program of sensation and merit with more real novelties than all other shows combined.

A grand spectacle precedes the regular circus program in which Miss Lillian, Thelma Alton presents her own creation of "Sweethearts On Parade," introducing over a hundred men, women, children and animals, with a wealth of wardrobe and showing beautiful women and feminine grace. This is in connection with the already wonderful program, without extra charge and presented only by the Barnett Brothers Shows, which will exhibit at Shelby on Wednesday, Oct. 23, for one day only, afternoon and evening at 2 and 8 P. M. Doors open one hour earlier, street parade at noon through the principal streets, the mammoth tents are waterproof and lighted by electricity. The Barnett Brothers never disappoint, divide or postpone or consolidate with any other organization, but will exhibit as advertised in its entirety. Ample space for parking car free. Shows will be located on West Warren street.

Oldest Citizen Of Rutherford Is Dead

Mrs. Bryson Walker, 98, Of Rutherford, Buried Near Ellenboro.
Rutherford, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Bryson Walker, age 98, the oldest person in Rutherford county, was buried at Ellenboro this afternoon.
She died suddenly yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lindsey Purgason near Bostic, with whom she lived. She appeared to be in her usual health, which was unusually good for one of her age. She awoke early, after a good night's rest, dressed herself as usual and was putting on her shoes when her daughter came into her room and found her dead sitting in a chair. She passed suddenly and without any struggle. She was a resident of Ellenboro for 30 years before moving to the country. She was a charter member of Bethel church, Ellenboro, one of the oldest Baptist churches in the county. Her husband died about 35 years ago. She was born and reared in Rutherford county. She was a devoted member of the Baptist church and was held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends and relatives. She leaves two daughters and one son, Mrs. Purgason and Mrs. Lucy Grayson of Bostic and Raleigh Walker of near Ellenboro. Twenty-four grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Negroes Of Gaston
To Attend Fair In Shelby This Friday

Gastonia Gazette.
The colored population of Gastonia and the county will likely turn out in large numbers next Friday for the last negro excursion of the season, and what promises to be the biggest. The excursion in question is being put on in connection with the big Cleveland County Negro Fair, which will be at its height on this day, and negroes are expected to crowd the excursion trains, which will carry crowds to Shelby from Salisbury, Concord, Charlotte, Gastonia, Kings Mountain, and Blacksburg, S. C.
With a football game, horse race, and many other free acts, including fire works, on the fair program for Friday, October 18, it is expected that a record crowd of colored people will flock to the Cleveland negro fair.
The train will leave Gastonia at 9:30 o'clock Friday morning, and will not leave Shelby until 11:00 o'clock in the evening.

VISITORS TO MAN'S TOMB
MUST PAY $1 TO VIEW BIER

Topeka.—If a Kansan desires to have his body placed in a mausoleum where his bier may be viewed by all who care to pay a fee for the privilege, there is no Kansas law to prevent.
This opinion was by William A. Smith, Attorney General, to C. A. Dinsmoor of Lucas, who said his father had built the mausoleum and requested that his children charge those who desired to visit it $1 a head.
The younger Dinsmoor objected to the plan, but the Attorney General says there is no statute to prevent the father's wishes from being observed.

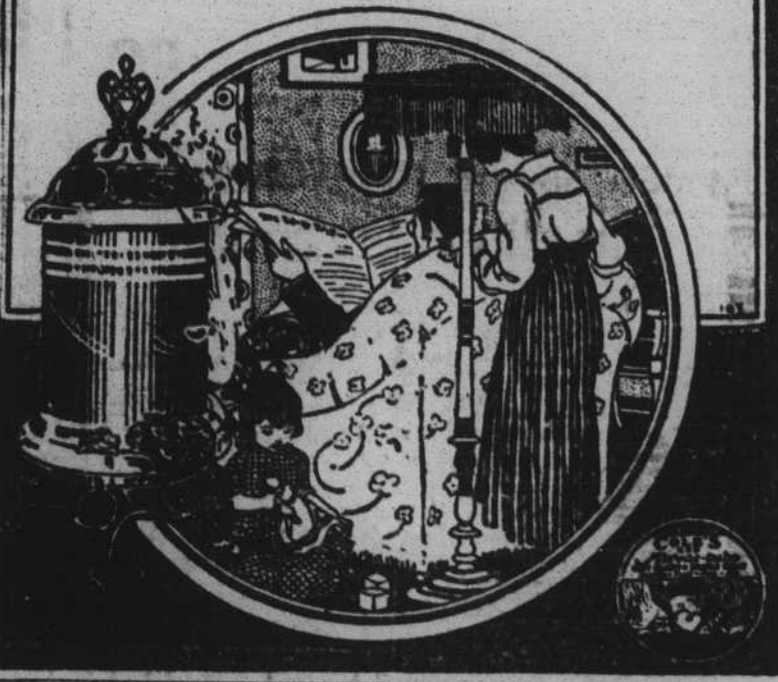

You can't always tell by his looks whether or not a man is married. Bachelors sometimes have things to worry about, too.

Sickly Boy, 7, Gains
15 lbs.—Father Happy

"My boy, 7, would not eat. I gave him Vinol and the way he eats and plays now makes me happy. He gained 15 pounds."—J. F. Andres.
Vinol is a delicious compound of cod liver peptone iron, etc. The very FIRST bottle often adds several pounds weight to thin children or adults. Nervous, easily tired, anemic people are surprised how Vinol gives new pep, sound sleep and a BIG appetite. Tastes delicious. Quinn's Drug Store. adv.
