Habit Of Postmasters Protested.

Bucharest.—Postmasters are asked to forward copies of our newspapers immediately to our subscribers after having read them and not to circulate them first among their relatives and friends." The Czernowitz Zeitung printed this moving appeal in its editorial column. It referred to a cheap and easy way of following the world's events, which is extremely popular in the Balkans, but unprofitable to newspapers. Budapest editors some years ago tried the device of mailing newspapers closed so that they could not be read before delivery, but their endeavors were vain. Vienna coffee houses rubber-stamp their newspapers, "Stolen From Cafe So and So" to prevent their patrons from taking them home. But they take them home just the same. Small economies in this part of the world are generally effected at somebody else's expense.

IN MEMORIAM.

Robert S. Moss. Whereas death again has entered our midst and claimed another of our devoted members, Brother Robert S. Moss, and whereas the membership of Buffalo council No. 27 desires to record the esteem and love of their deceased brother.

Be it resolved, first, that we hereby express our grief and heartfelt sympathy to his family in their hour of bereavement. Second, that we bow in submission to Him who doth all things well. Third, that a copy of these resolutions be inscribed in our minute book, a copy be sent to the family, Gaffney Ledger, Cleveland Star and Junior Order magazine for publication.

Committee: H. L. BYERS MARVIN L. BLACKWELL. THURSTON McSWAIN.

IN MEMORIAM.

G. R. Wylie. Whereas God, our heavenly father, in his infinite wisdom has summoned Gilbert R. Wylie one of our brothers to his other home.

Therefore, be it resolved by Buffalo council No. 27, First, in losing him our council not only lost a loyal member who always took an active part in the upbuilding of the order, and also attained honor of most counselor for service as financial secretary.

Second, while we mourn his loss and extend our sympathy to his loved ones in this time of bereavement, yet we humbly bow to him who doeth all things well.

Third, that we send a copy of these resolutions to the family, and by doing this express our genuine sympathy that a copy be inscribed in our minute book to his memory, and that a copy be published in Gaffney Ledger, Cleveland Star, and Junior Order magazine.

Around Our TOWN Shelby SIDELIGHTS

By RENN DRUM

Perhaps they offer a blue ribbon for such out at the negro fair, but if they do not, they should for the pleasure of all the one-gallon, colored farm boys who are coming into town this week for the event. And what we're talking about is that the keenest competition of the entire fair, could be stirred up if they would offer a blue ribbon and a container of canned heat for the sharpest razor in the crowd.

Reports trickling into town inform this department that Frank Lewis, the big blond harp blower and former member of the famous Princess Pat regiment, is again in our midst. We're not surprised. The Germans killed out most of his heroic regiment over there, but Frank came back to his Cleveland county hills with a few scars and a few service stripes—and, we say, he'll keep coming back, stripes, scars, bars, or what-not. And maybe Frank heard it was Home-Coming Week in Carolina.

Misses His Record.

Nearly every year nearly every newspaper carries a story about the first man to pay his taxes, but this is about a man who tried to and couldn't—and if that isn't a record, what could be? Early this week all citizens of Cleveland county began receiving a little blue slip, signed by Sheriff Allen, informing that "your taxes for 1929 are now due." Mr. S. E. Hoey, of The Star, perhaps thinking about the first-to-pay record, and perchance because he believes in paying-as-you-go, grabbed his slip and headed for the sheriff's office. And they wouldn't take it as the receipt books were not quite ready.

Thanks, Friend.

Having had our own tapped we fall, of course, to savvy why he sent it, but one labelling himself a friend mailed this McIntyre clipping to the colyum:

"And they are telling of a gentleman afflicted with chronic headaches who submitted to an operation. The top of his head was 'apped and his brain removed. While the surgeons took the brain in the other room for examination, the patient disappeared. Two weeks later he was found—writing a newspaper colyum.

NOW THAT CLEVELAND Springs hotel is no more we wonder if the property owners will leave the circle driveway open for the young fellows to drive their girls around before coming back to town to go in the huddle again?

They Wouldn't Mix.

Since the Atlanta feature writers who covered the Georgia-Yale football game would not tell it and since it was one of Shelby's home-product wisecracks, the colyum will tell it.
