to come.

SUPREME COURT SENDS $4,986.03

Grew Out Of Suit Over Boundary Of North Carolina And Tennessee.

Raleigh.—The general fund of North Carolina was increased recently by the sum of $4,986.03 when a check for that amount received from Clerk Charles Elmore Cropley, of the United States supreme court, by Attorney General Dennis G.
Brummitt was turned over to State Treasurer Nathan O'Berry.

The check was for balance due North Carolina after the costs had been paid in the suit of equity brought by the state of North Carolina against the state of Tennessee to establish the boundary line between the two states. The suit was started in 1914 and went to the supreme court in 1916. The late Governor Thomas W. Bickett, then Attorney General, and F. A. Sondley, of Asheville, argued the case and briefs were filed for the state by them and by Theodore F. Davidson and by C. B. Matthews.

The costs of the appeal were to be equally divided between the two states and North Carolina deposited $7,250. One-half of the costs, it developed, amounted to $3,428.97 leaving a balance due to $3,821.03 to which is added the sum of $1,165.00 paid by North Carolina to the commissioners in the case, making the total amount due and received $4,- 986.03.

The suit was instituted because Tennessee claimed the Tellico river and Slick Rock creek basins, largely in Haywood county, North Carolina, on the basis of the survey made by Tennessee and North Carolina commissioners in 1841, claimed these basins, the line at that time having been established and ratified by a conference on both states, as following the Slick Rock creek and Fodderstack ridge, rather than the Hangover ridge, thence following the main ridge of Unaka Mountain in a westerly direction and crossing the Tellico river.

Tennessee has only recently made the deposit in this case, which was won by North Carolina, the supreme court clerk wrote. He expressed thanks to the attorney general for the patience exercised in the matter.

Plane Flag Stop.

Great Bend, Kans.—The railroad flagstop station has its counterpart in aviation.

This little city, in the heart of the Kansas wheat country, has been made a flag stop on the Universal Lines transcontinental train-plane route. The planes stop at the airport here whenever there are passengers to take on or discharge.

The city has lighted its airport for night landings.

Taxicab drivers may not be noted for excessive intelligence, but one in New York recently did some straight and rapid thinking which with the aid of a box of toothpicks saved 30 lives. Seeing an apartment house on fire at right, he rushed from door to door, inserting the toothpicks in doorbells pushbuttons, thus causing the bells to ring continuously until the occupants were awakened, and all escaped.

SOME RUMANIAN WOMEN VOTE, BUT NONE MAY RUN FOR AN OFFICE

Bucharest.—Rumanian women, under a new law, are to be allowed to vote for the first time in parliamentary and municipal elections although they may not stand as candidates. The franchise is not to be universal among women and the categories to whom the privilege is restricted are rather unusual.

They comprise women who have graduated from high school, special school; those who hold a professor's diploma or kindergarten teacher's certificate; women who received decorations during the war; war widows who have not since remarried; women employees of the state, district or city and superintendents of welfare institutions.
