At The Theatres

"The Eternal Woman" starring Olive Borden, is the feature picture at the Lyric today, with "Marked Men," a serial adding zest to the bill. The Lyric is featuring both pictures and stage attractions, and amongst the latter comes the last three days of the week "Hill Billies" — Al Hopkins and his gang. It's a good show, as today's picture is a good picture. Mr. Beam is announcing as returning to play a return engagement — "Desmond's New York Roof Garden Revue."

"Cocoanuts" is on at the Webb for a final showing today, concluding a three day run. This is a musical comedy transferred to the screen with splendid effect. In fact, it is one of the half dozen best shows ever run at this theatre. Featured are the Marks Brothers, and they put over an unforgettable performance — human and humorous. There is a zest and go about the show that furnishes marvelous entertainment. If you haven't seen it, don't miss today's bill.

Every audience will love to join the great detective Nayland Smith in his mad, adventurous chase of that wily, oriental character, "The Mysterious Dr. Fu Manchu," taken from the pages of Sax Rohmer's world famous book and made to live on the screen at the Princess theatre for two days starting tomorrow. Gripping, awful mystery — eerie footsteps in the dead of night, an unseen hand spreading terror and destruction — a beautiful girl hypnotized to work the will of a cruel maniac — and love dominating, controlling, triumphing in the mystic maze of a revengeful career. "The Mysterious Dr. Fu Manchu" is one of the greatest mystery stories ever written and it is one of the greatest moving pictures ever made.

Warner Oland in the title role is great. The master villain of the screen has been doing oriental roles for years but never have his performances approached the perfection of this one. Jean Arthur and Neil Hamilton are irresistible as a pair of young lovers. Everybody loves with them.

Miss Mary Jones Is Hostess to B. Y. P. U.

(Special to The Star.) Miss Mary Jones entertained the senior B. Y. P. U. union of the Second Baptist church at her home on S. LaFayette street Saturday evening. The lovely home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. Many interesting games were played and much beautiful music was enjoyed throughout the evening. In the latter part of the evening the hostess assisted by Cora Harrill, Irene Roberts, Louise Wilkie, Ruth Brown served delicious cakes and hot chocolate.

WILL BE ANOTHER RECORD BREAKER IN OUR

Suit Department

We have our pegs set to sell 75 Suits, Overcoats and Top Coats on this day. We have marked our prices at the lowest notch. A look at the suits at $16.50, $18.50 $19.50, $22.50, $24.50 & $29.50 will convince you without a doubt that this store is the store of all stores to buy your head-to-foot outfit for fall and winter. Our stock is blooming in all that's new and stylish in Men's Wear for the Autumn season. Value counts and we are getting the values. We have found by past experience that it is better to sell three suits at a small profit than one suit at the regular profit made by most people who handle clothing. Doing our own work, and keeping down overhead expenses enables us to give you the best in value and service for your money.

See Sam Blanton or Will Wright and you will be treated RIGHT. NUFF SED.

THE LIQUIDATION OF A DEBT GIVES A THRILL OF Satisfaction

A GOOD FARMER, who usually needs accommodation during the spring and summer, came in the bank a few days ago and PAID IN FULL all of his notes for supplies and fertilizers, and after thanking for the accommodation, he remarked that it made him feel mighty good to be

OUT OF DEBT

and further remarked that he hoped to be able to manage his affairs next year without saying: "I have made a good crop this year and I don't intend to let my money get away from me by buying everything under the sun that comes along. I have started a deposit account today and I am going to have 'money in the bank' from now on."

GOING IN DEBT

THIS MAN could be well termed a WISE MAN. HIS POLICY OF PAYING UP HIS DEBTS and THEN BUILDING UP A CASH RESERVE IN THE BANK IS A MOST EXCELLENT EXAMPLE to follow. We hope many people in Cleveland county will follow his example and put the CLEVELAND COUNTY FARMER on a sound financial basis.
