No. 2 Division Program.
No. two division of the W. M. U. will meet with the Eastside Baptist church Sunday evening, October 27 at 2:30. The program:
Hymn, greetings by Mrs. Ligon, response, Mrs. Bell Grigg; devotional. The Eastside W. M. U. will give a missionary play and also special music. Talk, by Mrs. John Wacaster.

We hope to have Miss Iva Watson, our young peoples leader, with us. All the churches of this division are urged to attend.
Mrs. J. C. Dodd, Div. Supt.

Mrs. Andrews Hostess.
The South Washington Bridge club members were charmingly entertained by Mrs. William Andrews yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock at her home on South Washington street. The rooms and tables were beautifully decorated with autumn flowers. The high score prize was won by Mrs. Tom Moore and the low score prize by Mrs. Frank Hoy. At the close of the game, the hostess was assisted by Mrs. S. O. Andrews and Miss Elizabeth Rogers in serving a tempting salad course with accessories.

Mrs. Koon Honors Husband.
Mrs. W. E. Koon gave a pretty Halloween party Wednesday evening, at her apartment on North Morgan street, honoring her husband, on his birthday anniversary. Chrysanthemums and marigolds were used effectively with the Halloween suggestions in decorations. In the bridge game, the high score prizes were won by Mrs. Baxter Kirkpatrick and Mr. Koon and the low score prizes went to Mrs. Merrill Green and Mr. Kirkpatrick. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Kirkpatrick in serving a delicious frozen salad course with coffee and candies.

Music Club Meet.
The Cecelia Music club met with Miss Mayme Roberts, yesterday afternoon at her home on North Morgan street. Mrs. George Hoyle the president, presided and interesting minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. Thad Ford.
The most exciting matter discussed was after the telegram was read from Mrs. O. Max Gardner, inviting the Cecelias to Raleigh next week-end where they will be entertained at the executive mansion. The members were thrilled and the invitation was accepted at once and all plans will be made to motor down November 2.

A very entertaining program on Handel, a famous composer, was enjoyed and those taking part were Miss Amos Willis, Mesdames W. B. Nix, Earl Hamrick, Rush Thompson, Grady Lovelace, Pitt Beam, and Miss Bostic. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. S. F. Roberts, Mrs. G. C. Roberts and Miss Lucille Nix in serving a salad course with mints.

Bailey-Rudasill Wedding Announced.
Announcements have been received reading as follows:
"Mr. Charles David W. Bailey announce the marriage of his daughter, Mildred, to Mr. Carmie R. Rudasill on Saturday, the twenty-second of June, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine, Cherryville, North Carolina."
The wedding of Miss Bailey and

Mr. Rudasill was solemnized on Saturday afternoon, June 22, in the presence of only the bride's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wesson.
The bride is the youngest daughter of Rev. C. D. W. Bailey of North Brook. She has been a teacher in the public schools of Lincoln and Catawba counties for a number of years. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Rudasill of Lawndale. He is an accomplished young man and is well thought of by all who know him. For the past while he has been a mechanic in Mt. Holly.

On Wednesday, October 16, Mr. and Mrs. Rudasill left for a wedding tour through the eastern part of the state.

Birthday Party.
Little Robert Lutz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lutz, celebrated his sixth birthday anniversary yesterday afternoon at his home on N. LaFayette street with a Halloween party. About 25 of his little friends and his teacher, Miss Agnes McBrayer were invited.

After playing numerous outdoor games, Mrs. Lutz, invited the children to the dining room, which was decorated with autumn flowers and Halloween suggestions. The tables were centered with the birthday cake, holding six tiny candles, which were blown out, and the cake cut, and served with ice cream, and home made candies. Different colored balloons were given for souvenirs.

Mrs. Lutz was assisted by Mrs. Hoyle Alexander and Miss McBrayer in entertaining and serving the children. Robert was the recipient of many pretty toys and useful gifts.

Mesdames Plaster And Edwards Entertain.

One of the most delightful of a series of parties for Miss Lula Moore Suttle who will be married Saturday, was that given by Mesdames Henry Edwards and Hugh Plaster, at the home of the former on West Marion street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums. Mesdames Edwards and Plaster received their guests at the front door and presented the honoree, who was lovely in a black chiffon afternoon gown with small hat and shoulder bouquet of roses. The guests found their places at the seven tables with the most attractive tallies. Miss Suttle was presented with a pretty line bridge set, Mrs. Chas. Dover, a recent bride was also presented with an honor gift, and Mrs. Ed McCurry won the high score prize. The hostesses were assisted by Mesdames Harry Speck, Brevard Hennessa, and Miss Evelyn Wilkins in serving a frozen salad course with accessories.
Mrs. D. N. Farnell and daughter, Miss Vallie Farnell of Suffolk, Va., were special guests.

LOST IN NEW HAMPSHIRE DOG GETS BACK TO IOWA

Cedar Rapids, Ia.—Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ross, of Woodstock, Ia., saw their alreade puppy disappear from their automobile at Portsmouth, N. H. Mr. Ross searched in vain for the animal several hours last December, and resumed his journey back to Iowa.
Recently the Ross children, playing on the lawn, noticed a strange dog barking at the gate. They paid no attention, but the dog continued to bark until Mr. Ross went out. The dog's joy knew no bounds when he saw Mr. Ross, but the man did not recognize the scrawny, dirty animal. He took it in the house, gave it a bath, and recognized the pet he had lost ten months ago. The distance from Portsmouth to Iowa is 1,500 miles.
The Austrian winter pea is winning favor as a soil improving legume for fall planting in Lee county. Farmers have ordered some 700 pounds so far this fall.

Mrs. Carl Thompson Honors Bridal Party.

Mrs. Carl Thompson charmingly honored the Suttle-Farnell bridal party and wedding visitors with an informal tea, entertaining at her handsome home near Cleveland Springs this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.
The guests were welcomed on their arrival by Mrs. Paul Webb, sr. Informal decorations of mixed garden flowers were used throughout the rooms. The dining table was covered with a lovely lace cloth and graced with a huge bowl of yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. J. D. Lin-berger poured tea and Miss Elizabeth McBrayer and Mrs. Paul Webb, jr. passed the refreshments. The bride-elect, Miss Suttle, was beautiful in blue chiffon afternoon gown and blue soles hat.

The rehearsal at the church tonight will be followed by a luncheon and cake cutting at the Hotel Charles given by Mrs. John Schenck, sr., aunt of the bride.

Pre-Nuptial Affairs For Bridal Party.

Mrs. Jap Suttle delightfully entertained with a one o'clock luncheon today at the Blue Parrot tea room honoring the Suttle-Farnell wedding party and visitors who are in the city to attend the wedding which will be a brilliant event tomorrow at high noon at the First Baptist church.

The tea room on this occasion was attractively decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and lace ferns, a color scheme of yellow and green being cleverly carried out in both decorations and the elaborate four course luncheon. The place cards were yellow baskets of flowers tied with wedding bells. Mrs. Suttle received her guests in a brown and orange crepe sport dress and the bride-elect wore a red sport dress with hat of the same shade.

Birthday Dinner For Mr. T. M. Black

(Special to The Star.)
Eighty-five relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Black in West Shelby last Sunday at noon, at a bountiful birthday dinner in honor of the former's 70th anniversary.

To add to the host's further happiness and comfort his children presented him with a nice blue serge suit of clothes.
Following the dinner, singing was made the feature of the occasion, which was enjoyed by those present. Mr. Black's friends wish him many years yet.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. W. A. Latham and family and Mrs. W. F. Goode of Sharon, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Nesbit Silk of Kannapolis; Mrs. L. F. Queen of Spencer Mt.; and Rev. Dan S. Hardin and children of Forest City.
Aunt Dullis Sills, 76 years of age, was the oldest guest present, while little Bettie Fay Curtis, 3 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis was the youngest guest present.
