Hull, Jimmie Blanton, E. T. Switzer, C. B. Alexander, Misses Sara Louise Falls and Augusta Alexander.

Mrs. Schenck Holds Bridal Party.

The Suttle-Farnell bridal party were charmingly honored on Friday evening before the rehearsal at the church, with a delightful four course dinner and cake cutting, given at the Hotel Charles by Mrs. John Schenck, sr., aunt of the bride-elect. The private dining room was elaborately decorated, and the long banquet table was graced with large silver vases, tied with white tulle, holding white roses, swansonia and lace fern, and in the center was the three tier white wedding cake, decorated with sprays of valley lilies. In cutting the cake the lucky ones were, Mr. John Eley, who cut the ring, the thimble by Mr. James Hoague, the dime, Miss Mary Forbes and the penny by Mr. William Farnell. Covers were laid for, Mr. and Mrs. John Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. William Farnell, sr., of Suffolk, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Forbes of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Vitt of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. William Farnell of New York, Miss Margaret Blanton and Mr. Graham Holding, Miss Lula Moore Suttle and fiancé, Mr. Newton Farnell, Miss Mary Forbes of Greenville and Mr. A. S. Gifford of Greensboro, Miss Millicent Blanton and Mr. John Eley of Suffolk, Va., Miss Inez Eford of Concord and Mr. Warren West, Greensboro, Miss Virginia Hoye, Mr. James Hoague of Greensboro, Miss Vallie Farnell of Suffolk and Mr. Forest Eskridge, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Baber and Mr. and Mrs. Jap Suttle. The bride-elect was beautiful in a flesh satin evening gown and corsage of Columbia roses. The hostess, Mrs. Schenck wore black lace and shoulder bouquet of sweet-peas.

Mrs. Hamrick Honors Recent Brides.

Mrs. T. W. Hamrick was hostess at one of the loveliest teas, given this season entertaining at her attractive home on North LaFayette street, Friday afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock in honor of Mrs. Charles Dover and Mrs. Clyde Nolan, both recent brides. The guests were welcomed at the front door, by Mesdames J. R. Dover and J. B. Nolan. The entire lower floor was beautifully decorated with large yellow and white chrysanthemums, red and pink roses and other lovely flowers. Mrs. Earl Hamrick directed the guests to the sun parlor, which was banked with ferns and chrysanthemums, where the hostess, handsomely gowned in orchid satin and maline with shoulder bouquet of pink rose buds and swansonia received her guests and presented the honorees: Mrs. Charles Dover, who was beautiful in her wedding gown of ivory satin and corsage of bride's roses and valley lilies, and Mrs. Clyde Nolan, who was charming in a light green chiffon velvet and shoulder bouquet of sweetheart roses. Playing beautiful musical selections were: Mesdames Vick Wray, Gerald Morgan and Miss Mary Helen Lattimore. Entertaining in the living room was Mrs. Fred Morgan. Directing the guests to the dining room were: Mesdames J. L. Lackey and Dewitt Quinn. The dining room was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and ferns, a color note of yellow and green being emphasized. The table was covered with a handsome lace and madiera cloth, and centered with a reproduction of the Nolan-Dover wedding, which the hostess, who is a very clever artist, had arranged. The whole wedding party were shown with tiny dolls dressed in gowns of the material of the bride and brides-maids, even the musicians and officiating pastor were there standing in front of the screen of ferns, softly lighted by tiny electric bulbs. Seated at either end of the table were: Miss Agnes M. Brayer and Mrs. J. S. Dorton, who poured coffee. Serving pretty plates of sandwiches, and cheese biscuits were, Mesdames Louis and Roland Hamrick, Jack Dover and Reld Young.

Entertaining in the dining room was, Mrs. B. O. Stevenson. Mrs. Nelson Lattimore directed the guests to the hallway, where the register was placed and presided over by Miss Ruby McBrayer and Mrs. O. M. Suttle. About one hundred and twenty-five guests called during the afternoon.

Miss Lula Moore Suttle Weds Mr. Newton Farnell.

In a ceremony characterized by beauty and charming simplicity Miss Lula Moore Suttle and Mr. D. Newton Farnell, Jr. were married Saturday at noon at the First Baptist church. Dr. Zeno Wall, the pastor officiated. This was the first wedding to take place in the handsome new church and it was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The altar was banked with palms, autumn leaves and floor baskets filled with large yellow chrysanthemums, which formed the background for the impressive ring service. Mrs. H. S. Plaster, Mrs. Ben Suttle, Miss Vallie Farnell, sister of the groom and Mr. A. S. Gifford of Greensboro rendered a program of wedding music prior to the ceremony. Mrs. Plaster first played an organ selection, "Moonlight in Granada," after which, Mrs. Suttle sang "All for You" and My Heart is a Haven." Mr. Gifford then sang, "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," and "Because," with Miss Farnell at the piano. The ever lovely wedding marches of Lohengrin and Mendelssohn were used as the wedding party entered and left the church and "Schubert's Serenade," was softly played by Mrs. Plaster at the organ, during the ceremony. The ushers were Graham Holding, Robert Frazer, and James Hoague of Greensboro, John Eley of Suffolk, Va., Allen Suttle, brother of the bride and Jean Schenck. The tiny flower girls were, Martha Allen Baber and Elva Anne Thompson, cousins of the bride, who were daintily dressed in pale green crepe frocks and carried small old fashioned bouquets of yellow roses, and fern-Little Ben Suttle, Jr., cousin of the bride, dressed in a white satin suit was the ring bearer. Miss Mary Forbes of Greenville, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant. She wore a brown transparent velvet ensemble, with egg shell chiffon and lace blouse with brown accessories and carried large yellow chrysanthemums, tied with yellow tulle. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Jap Suttle and they were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. William Farnell of New York City. In her wedding dress, which was a handsome ensemble suit of blue Regal DeJure, with collar of parchment lapin and parchment satin blouse with blue accessories, and carrying an arm bouquet of Pernet roses, valley lilies and swansonia, Miss Suttle was an exceedingly lovely bride. Mr. and Mrs. Farnell left immediately by motor for their honeymoon trip and on their return, they will be at home at the Dolly Madison Apartments, Greensboro.

Mrs. Farnell is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jap Suttle and is one of the city's most beautiful and popular young women, having been extensively entertained since her

At The Theatres

The Lyric is bringing back the popular stage attraction this week—opening today—"Desmond's New York Roof Garden Revue." This is a hot stage sketch, that packed 'em in when it was here before. There is a lively jazz band, beautiful chorus and special lighting and scenery. On the screen Douglas Fairbanks appears. The show is "The Nut," displaying all the wiles of the Fairbanks acting. A dance is advertised to follow the snow Tuesday and Thursday nights.

The Webb is advertising one of the season's top-notchers today—"The Gold Diggers of Broadway." This is a truly fine picture—done in technicolor throughout, and a hundred percent singing and dancing show, with a big chorus of one hundred Hollywood beauties. Claude Webb thinks so well of the picture, judging from its long runs elsewhere, that he has booked it for four days—today, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. It is easily one of the most gorgeous, the most beautiful and elaborate and colorful of latter-day specials.

engagement was announced. She was educated at Meredith college in Raleigh and Queens college in Charlotte. Mr. Farnell is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Farnell of Suffolk, Va., and is a prominent young lawyer of Greensboro. He is a graduate of Washington and Lee University and is a member of Kappa Alpha fraternity.

Out of town guests here for the wedding, included: Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Forbes, Miss Mary Forbes, and Charles Forbes of Greenville, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Farnell, New York City, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Farnell, sr., Miss Vallie Farnell, and Mr. John Eley of Suffolk, Va., Miss Inez Eford of Concord, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCauley and Miss Jean Davis of Gastonia, Mr. and Mrs. John Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Schenck, Lawndale, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Vitt, Messrs. A. S. Gifford, Graham Holding, James Hoague, Robert Frazer, Warren West and Siddon Boxley of Greensboro. Things in long skirts and restricted girl of "The Wild Party" fame, comes to the Princess theatre again in an entirely new type of role in "Dangerous Curves" today and Tuesday.

"Dangerous Curves" is a story of circus folk, and all the scenes are taken under the big top and in the circus trains. Miss Bow plays the part of a bareback rider and a clown. The characterization calls for dramatic and deeply romantic work, and she handles the part with a distinction and gusto that is even more interesting than her portrayals of flapper-dancer types.
