Dinner Party.

Mrs. Fred Baber gave a delightful dinner Sunday last, in celebration of Mr. Baber's birthday and Mr. Joe Baber's also, which came on the same day. A four course dinner was served and covers were laid for Messrs. Fred and Joe Baber, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Laughridge, and Dr. and Mrs. B. M. Jarrett.

Meeting Of Home Demonstration Club Leaders.

Mrs. Irma Wallace announces a meeting of the local leaders, the councils and officers of the county federation at the club room Saturday at 2 o'clock. This will be the most important meeting of the year. Leaders who cannot attend will be substituted as Mrs. Wallace wants all clubs represented. They will discuss plans for the year and reports and demonstrations of the year will be heard.

Mothers Meet.

Mrs. Chas. Coble entertained the mothers of the beginners' department of the Central Methodist church at her home in Beaumonde Terrace Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The subject for the afternoon was "Childhood and Youth," and those taking part on the program were: Mesdames Coble, Roscoe Lutz and J. R. Robinson. The devotional was conducted by Mrs. Thad Ford.

The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Hallowe'en Party.

Misses Margaret and Ellen Ford entertained about twenty-eight of their young friends on Friday evening at their home on Seaboard avenue with a Hallowe'en party. The rooms were decorated with autumn flowers and Hallowe'en suggestions and all the guests wore Hallowe'en costumes. Miss Dorothy Leonard was awarded the prize for the best gotten up costume of the girls and Dudley Maxwell for the boys.

Numerous games, fortune telling and contests were enjoyed after which the hostesses were assisted by their mother, Mrs. Thad Ford and Mrs. M. P. Coley in serving Eskimo pies, sandwiches and candies.

Sunday School Class Entertained.

One of the loveliest Hallowe'en parties given this fall was given by Misses Ruby Ellis, Ruth and Pauline Dedmon, on last Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock in the primary department of the First Baptist church, in honor of their Sunday school classes. The youngsters were dressed in their costumes and masks, which caused quite a bit of excitement.

The entire primary department was decorated with autumn leaves and Hallowe'en decorations. Many Hallowe'en games and contests were played, after much excitement was enjoyed. The hostess served fruits, nuts, candies and dixie cups in Hallowe'en favors.

Hallowe'en Party.

The local telephone company gave a delightful Hallowe'en party last evening from 8 to 11 o'clock in the Key club building which was effectively decorated with Hallowe'en suggestions, quantities of yellow and white chrysanthemums and lighted jack-o-lanterns.

The guests included the business men and their wives of the city, some of the telephone officials and operators from Gastonia, Kings Mountain, Cherryville, Forest City, Rutherfordton, Mt. Holly and Caroleen. About 75 were dressed in Hallowe'en costumes and the prizes for the best costumes went to Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Shelby and prizes for the best stunts were awarded Misses Sneed and Walker. A very interesting program was given by the local operators and stunts by Gastonia operators.

Talks were made by Dr. J. S. Dorton, Messrs. George Blanton, E. T. Switzer, John Schenck, Jr., and W. E. McKee, district plant chief of Gastonia. Delicious refreshments were served by Misses Wilkerson, Green, Bowling and Mrs. F. H. Taylor. About 150 guests were present. The party was closed with an old time square dance and the music was furnished by a local orchestra.

Flower Show At Kings Mountain.

Friday—the annual flower show will be held in Kings Mountain. It will open at 10:30 a. m. and luncheon and refreshments will be served all day.

No. Two Division.

The following attractive Hallowe'en invitations were received today: Goblins and Witches, Black Cats and Pumpkins too, are waiting at the club room, for a Hallowe'en frolic with you, Thursday 3:30, division No. 2.

Mrs. Coley Honored.

The teachers, officers, children and parents of the junior department of the Central Methodist church honored Mrs. M. P. Coley, the superintendent of this department, who is moving to Charlotte this week, with a farewell service at 9:45 Sunday morning in this department of the church. The officers and teachers presented her with a handsome gift and the children gave her a shower of pretty gifts. Mrs. Coley will be greatly missed by all the Sunday school, where she has been a faithful worker since moving to Shelby. She will be at home next week at 2115 Avondale Ave., Charlotte.

South Shelby Teachers Entertained.

Mesdames Rush Padgett, C. A. Morrison and C. A. Benoy were joint hostesses last evening at a delightful party entertaining at the home of Mrs. Morrison on S. Lafayette street, honoring the teachers of the South Shelby school. The large living room was arranged with lovely white and yellow chrysanthemums. Miss Jones, the violin instructor, assisted by Miss Vernie Morrison entertained with a number of musical selections. While Mrs. Morrison was showing old colonial relics, Miss Bleka Blanton recited "In Grandmother's Day." Interesting talks were made by Rev. Rush Padgett, Miss Selma Webb and Rev. T. B. Johnson. Mrs. C. A. Morrison, dressed like a negro mammy, gave an humorous reading. At the close of the evening, the hostesses were assisted by Mesdames Herbert Blanton and C. H. Reinhardt in serving a sweet course with nuts and punch.

Flower Show Success.

The annual flower show held at the club room yesterday was a great success, over fifty dollars was realized after all expenses. The judges were Mesdames J. R. Davis, Hunter Patterson, and E. W. Griffin of Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Mull Gives Beautiful Reception.

The handsome new Hotel Charles was the setting for one of the largest and loveliest receptions of the autumn season yesterday afternoon, the hours being from 3:30 to 5 o'clock, when Mrs. O. M. Mull charmingly entertained, honoring the Chilcra club members. The spacious lobby which lends itself so perfectly for entertaining, was elaborately decorated with a wealth of autumn flowers, chrysanthemums predominating, arranged in large stands, baskets and bowls.

The long dining table was centered with a huge mound of mixed autumn flowers, and smaller mounds of the same flowers at each end with groups of luring tapers in six autumn shades between each mound and autumn leaves in all the shades scattered over the table.

Receiving the guests as they entered and welcoming them, were: Mesdames George Blanton and W. B. Nix. Directing the guests to the first receiving line was Mrs. Mudge Webb Riley, Mrs. Mull, handsomely gowned in turquoise blue chiffon velvet, introduced the officers of the club: Mrs. O. M. Suttle, the president wearing orchid chiffon. Mrs. P. L. Hennessy, wearing gray lace and velvet and Mrs. R. L. Ryburn in black lace.

Mrs. Paul Webb, sr., gowned in rose beaded chiffon, introduced the following visitors, who formed the second receiving line. Mrs. Ches. Forbes of Greenville, wearing princess blue satin, Mrs. Baron Caldwell of Cliffside in tan lace, over satin, and Miss Mary Forbes of Greenville in pink satin.

In the third receiving line were: Mrs. J. T. Gardner wearing black lace and Spanish shawl, Mrs. T. W. Ebbeltoft in black satin and lace, Mrs. Mary McBrayer in chiffon and lace, Mrs. Esther McBrayer in black chiffon with orchid scarf and flowers and Mrs. Julius Smith wearing black satin.

Mrs. Felix Gee and Mrs. W. F. Mitchell directed the guests to the dining room. Receiving just inside the dining room were Mesdames J. F. Jenkins and L. A. Gettys.

Entertaining in the dining room were, Miss Elizabeth McBrayer, Mesdames Carl Thompson, Jap Suttle and A. V. Wray. Pretty plates of sandwiches, cakes and tea with mints in all the autumn shade, were served by Misses Sara Ellen Wray, Mabel Hord, Louise Tedder and Mrs. Evans Shull. Presiding at the piano and furnishing music during the afternoon were, Mesdames Paul Webb, Jr., Otto Long and Miss Bertha Bostic.

Mrs. J. J. Lattimore invited the guests to the register, which was presided over by Miss Selma Waub and Mrs. L. P. Holland. There were 300 guests invited.

HEART OF BRUCE IS MISSING AGAIN

London.—The heart of Robert the Bruce, the great Scottish chieftain, is missing.

Eight years ago the casket believed to contain Bruce's heart was taken from excavations at Melrose Abbey and given over for safe-keeping to the public works department at Edinburgh. In some way it now has been mislaid or purloined.

It was intended eventually to comply with the chieftain's dying request, that it be conveyed to the Holy Land.

Robert the Bruce died just 600 years ago at Cardross, after winning Scottish independence from England on June 24, 1314, and confirming his own right to the title of Scottish king.

He was unable personally to fulfill a vow to visit the Holy Sepulchre and requested his faithful follower, Sir James Douglas, to carry his heart there.

Sir James perished on the way to battle against the Moors in Spain. Sir William Keith recovered the heart of Bruce and found it its resting place at Melrose.

A Birth.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Spangler announce the birth of an eight pound daughter on Tuesday at the Shelby hospital. Mother and babe are both doing nicely.

A small seed association has been organized by the farmers of the Eureka community in Moore county. The association is starting work with Abruzzi rye.

Cotton growers of Richmond county estimate a loss of more than 2,500 bales of cotton this year because proper boll weevil control measures were not followed.

Forty purebred Guernseys were sold at Salisbury during the recent consignment sale for $8,985 or an average of $224.60 each. A well-bred bull topped the sale at $650.
