Vatican City Has Population Of 518

Rome.—A census just taken of the inhabitants of the Vatican City reveals the pope has 518 subjects.

Two of these acquired their citizenship by birth within the precincts of the papal state since February 1, the date of the coming into force of the Lateran agreement. The remainder automatically became subject to papal sovereignty on the same date by reason of possessing vatican domicile.

Although the papal territory has been more than doubled by the agreement, the present number is almost exactly equal to that of the previous parishioners of the vatican before the Vatican City was formed.

This is due to the rigorous combing out ordered by the pope, so that the privileges going with vatican citizenship should be restricted to the minimum number.

Italy contributes the largest contingent of Vatican citizens—380. Then comes Switzerland with 113 belonging to the Swiss guard. France has eleven, the United States one and other countries 12.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF LAND.

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain deed of trust executed by Mrs. M. M. Lowery, widow, to the undersigned trustee for Commercial Bank and Trust company, dated December 5, 1928, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds for Cleveland county, N. C., in book 152, page 133, default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured, and at the request of the beneficiary, I will sell for cash to the highest bidder at the court house door in the city of Shelby, on Monday, December 9, 1929, at 12 o'clock noon, the following described real estate: Situated in the town of Kings Mountain, N. C., and beginning at a stake in the east edge of City street, Sam Mode's corner and runs thence with his line N. 83 E. 148 feet, more or less, to a stake in Plonk's line; thence with Plonk's line southerly 75 feet to a stake, new corner; thence a new line westerly and parallel with King street, 146 feet, more or less, to a stake in the edge of City street; thence with said street northerly 75 feet to the beginning, containing 10,290 square feet, more or less, and being the same lot conveyed by Wiley Atkinson and wife to Mrs. M. M. Lowery as will appear on record.

This November 4, 1929.

GRAF TO CRUISE IN ARCTIC AREA

German Airship Will Float Over Wastes Never Before Seen By Man.

Washington.—Over the top of the world it once encircled, the Graf Zeppelin, bearing scientists and explorers who envision an unbroken control of the Arctic, will cruise in April and May.

Memorable expeditions have opened up narrow tracks into the Arctic but great gaps exist in man's scientific knowledge of polar conditions that scatter their influence to the inhabited world.

Through systematic and widespread observations for which the basis will be laid by the Graf's flight, a permanent control will be established by scientific studies hindered so far by the inaccessibility of the region.

The ship will float over stark wastes never before seen by man, a ghostly region of ice and snow where the sun may shine at midnight or a night may be six months long, lighted alone by the fluttering banners of the northern lights.

Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, famous Norwegian explorer, will be the scientific leader. Included in his scientific staff of 15 will be Sir Herbert Wilkins of Australia, H. U. Sverdrup, noted Norwegian explorer and three American scientists.

The expedition is sponsored by the International Society for the Exploration of the Arctic region by means of the airship, more frequently known as the Aeroarctic society, for a preliminary reconnaissance paving the way to more intensive studies in later years.

Polar phenomena will be studied for their effect on weather and climate, soundings will be taken in the seas and meteorological observations so important in the development of air navigation will be taken. Arrangements in the United States are being made by John A. Fleming of the Carnegie institution of Washington and acting vice-president of the American branch of aeronautics.

The project envisions a control of the Arctic region by which knowledge may be secured where and when it is needed, a control impossible in the age of sledges and sea-ships but forecast in the success of expeditions with planes by Byrd, Wilkins and Eielson and with airship by Amundsen, Ellsworth and Noble.

From northern Norway at Tromsø, the dirigible will start April 1. Its destination will be Fairbanks, Alaska, definitely selected as the base because of the government railroad which connects it with the west coast, permitting the transportation of gas and supplies.

From Fairbanks the Graf will head again over uncharted regions, areas in which only narrow strips have been covered, by explorers. Looping close to the pole, it will return to the base, its home flight to Norway will carry it over more unknown territory.

Capt. Ernst Lehmann and a crew of 34 will operate the big ship.

Only One Cured Of Cancer In Mouth

Just One In The World And She Lives In Winston-Salem, Says Dr. Bloodgood.

Winston-Salem.—The only person in the world to be cured of cancer of the mouth lives in Winston-Salem at 2440 North Liberty street, according to a statement made today by Dr. J. C. Bloodgood, cancer specialist of Baltimore, Md. He stated that there is no record of any other actual cure, so far as he has been able to learn. The individual who holds this world's record is Mrs. Mary Hutchens, wife of the late W. A. Hutchens, a well known citizen of Yadkin county. The cure was effected sixteen years ago in Johns Hopkins hospital, and at that time Mrs. Hutchens lived in Yadkinville. Recently she called at the hotel to see Dr. Bloodgood, and was examined by him in the presence of a number of physicians in attendance upon the sessions of the eighth district of the North Carolina Medical Society here.

Dr. Bloodgood is of the opinion that the concentrated efforts to educate the public regarding the discovery of cancer, its cause, prevention and control will have a wonderful result, and that much will be accomplished when the facts are known.

In a statement given out Dr. Bloodgood said: "Mrs. Hutchens had cancer because she used snuff, and anyone who uses tobacco in any form runs the risk of cancer of the mouth. The two factors are tobacco and teeth, which are not perfectly smooth and clean."

Fat And Lean Reparies.
A very fat man got into a bus. He almost smothered a sour-faced little man when he sat down. The sour-faced man glared at him and growled, "They ought to charge by weight in these busses."
"In that case," bellowed the fat man, "it would not be worth while stopping to pick you up."

Each Year More Mothers Treat Colds Externally

The Dangers of "Dosing" Colds Now Avoided by Use of Modern Vaporizing Ointment

When Vicks VapoRub was introduced, mothers especially were quick to appreciate it, because it is just rubbed on and cannot upset children's delicate stomachs, as "dosing" is so apt to do. Today, the whole trend of modern medicine is away from needless "dosing."

As more and more mothers adopt this modern external treatment, the fame of Vicks spread until today it is the standby for colds—adults as well as children's—in over 60 countries.

Just rubbed on throat and chest, Vicks acts through the skin like a plaster; and at the same time its medicated vapors, released by the body heat, are inhaled direct to the inflamed air-passages, loosening the phlegm and easing the difficult breathing.

Ever-increasing demand for this better method of treating colds is shown in the familiar Vicks slogan. Made famous when Vicks reached "17 Million Jars Used Yearly"—later raised to "21 Million"—there are now "Over 26 Million Jars Used Yearly."
