Rev. Wade Bostic To Be At Casar Church

Rev. Wade Bostic will speak at Casar Baptist church on Monday night, November 18 at seven o'clock and at Carpenters Grove Baptist church on Tuesday night, November 19 at seven o'clock.

Rev. Bostic is of a noted family. Two brothers and a sister from the same home have been missionaries to China. Rev. G. P. Bostic laid down his life in China. Miss Aitie and Rev. Wade are now at home on a furlough.

It is certainly worthwhile to hear one who has spent twenty-five years of his life in a great country like China. For several reasons we are anxious for all of our people to hear Brother Bostic. MADDRY SUPPORTS MISSION WORK FOR INDIANS IN STATE

Urges That Work Among Indians Be A Direct Part Of Home Mission Endeavor.

(By C. S. GREEN.)

If North Carolina Baptists follow the recommendation of Secretary Charles E. Maddry, mission work among the Indians in this state will after January 1 be directly a part of the state program of missions. It has been announced that the North Carolina board has been in correspondence with the home mission board of the Southern Baptist convention and that this arrangement has been perfected.

Intensely interesting and vital is the work among the Indians. At Cherokee, where is located a big United States school, the Baptists have stationed a missionary and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Lee, who for a number of years have done a marvelous work among the residents there.

Twelve Baptist churches have been organized and are functioning. The churches form what is known as the Cherokee association, an independent association of the state. Ex-Chief Sampson Owl is one of the leading Baptists of the section, and he with his nephew Henry Lee, is coming with Mr. and Mrs. Lee to attend the Baptist state convention in session here. They are expected to be presented to the convention.

The Cherokees belong to that group of about 1,000 that broke away from the band of Indians carried west in 1835 by Andrew Jackson. They hid in the regions of the Great Smokies, and set up their present tribal home. Today they number about 3,200.

Famous among the religious leaders of the Cherokees was Armstrong Cornsilk, who preached actively at the age of 90, and died in the pulpit recently.

In Robeson county, with Pembroke as the center, another stronghold of Baptist work is to be found. This work is under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lunsford, and will also be assumed by the state mission board on January 1. Tradition has it that these Indians of Robeson county are of the famous lost colony of Roanoke.

There are 20 Baptist churches in the Burnt Swamp association, an independent association, formed exclusively of the Indian churches. They have many active ministers, and large memberships, and generally the work is in a good wholesome condition.

The Baptist state convention only promotes mission work in these associations and serves wherever possible to strengthen the churches and aid specifically in their work. There is no organic affiliation of these two independent associations with the convention. Representatives from Robeson county are also expected at the sessions this week.

In a communication to The Star this week Mrs. Dan Sain, of Lawndale route 4, tells of an aged couple living in that section which needs outside aid. REYNOLDS LAUDS IT COUSIN OF LATE R. J.

"I wish I could tell every one of my friends over the South how much I've been benefited by Sargon. I was in a street car wreck eighteen months ago and the shock completely undermined my nervous system. It was impossible for me to get a good night's rest, there was such a ringing noise in my head, and my legs ached so bad I was losing weight and strength steadily when I started Sargon.

"Five bottles built me up from 130 pounds to 145 and every pain I had disappeared! That ringing noise in my head cleared up, I sleep fine and my strength and vitality have been completely restored. I used the Sargon Pills along with the tonic and the two medicines together are the finest I ever took in my life."

The above statement was made by William Reynolds, of Clarkson, Ga., who is Atlantic District Sales Manager for the Texas Oil Company and a cousin to the late R. J. Reynolds, Tobacco magnate.

Sargon may be obtained in Shelby at the Cleveland Drug Co. adv.

Thousands Attend Armistice Program

Forest City Celebration With Cameron Morrison As Speaker Draws Thousands.

Forest City, Nov. 11.—Former Governor Cameron Morrison of Charlotte was the leading speaker at a special dedicatory exercises here today, attended by approximately 7,000 persons. In his address Mr. Morrison discussed the service rendered America by Woodrow Wilson and paid a great tribute to him as a man and as a war president.

An imposing monument to those of this community who died in the World war was dedicated as the featured event of the day.

The celebration, one of the biggest events ever staged in Forest City, began at 9 o'clock this morning with the registration of 350 ex-service men and a concert band by the Spindale band, which provided music at intervals throughout the day. A parade, including floats and decorated automobiles, followed.

At noon, after Mr. Morrison's address, a picnic dinner was served to about 1,200 persons, including all ex-service men, their wives and families.

Features on the afternoon program included a football game between Forest City and Kings Mountain teams. During the evening a brilliant display of fireworks was presented and boxing matches were held on the high school athletic field. From 9 o'clock until midnight several hundred people danced in the street to music played by the Spindale band.

A carnival secured for the occasion provided sideshows and riding devices for the further amusement of the crowds that came from all parts of the county to take part in the celebration.
