Garden Club Meeting.

The Garden club division of the Woman's club held its regular meeting at the club room yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Mrs. Colin Hull, the chairman, presiding. Thirty-three members responded to the roll call and the topic of study was "Flowering House Plants." An article on the varieties and care of house plants was read by Mrs. W. A. Pendleton. Miss Nora Cornwell gave a reading on the planting and care of bulbous house plants. Mrs. Dwight Houser favored the club with a beautiful violin rendition of Borowski's Adoration. Miss Mary Helen Lathmore, playing her piano accompaniment. The club adjourned to not meet again before the regular meeting on January 14, 1930.

Sunday School Class Social.

There were forty-five members attended Mrs. D. Z. Newton's Sunday school class social at the Central Methodist church Monday evening. The following very delightful Thanksgiving program was given: A song, by all, after which a prayer was offered by the pastor, Rev. L. B. Hays, who also made a very interesting talk. Mrs. Roy Newman gave a reading, Miss Ethel Elmore played a piano selection, "The Lost Chord." Miss Marie King recited, "Betty At the Ball Game." A quartet, "Dance of the Pinetree Fairies," was sung by Mesdames Al Bennett, D. Z. Newton, J. T. Beason and Rush Thompson. A humorous reading was given by Miss Carobel Lever. Mr. Newton, the class teacher made an inspiring talk after which the program was closed with the class benediction. Quite a bit was realized from the measure of pennies, sixteen to each foot. A social half hour followed and a salad course with accessories was served.

Webb-Gregory Wedding In S. C.

Shelby people will be interested in the following social item from a Greenville, S. C., paper as the bride has visited her uncles, Judges James L. and E. Y. Webb here. Among the Shelby people attending were Mrs. O. Max Gardner, Judge and Mrs. E. Y. Webb, and Judge and Mrs. J. L. Webb. The item follows:

"In a setting of artistic beauty, with bridal green and white prevailing, and of wide social prominence throughout the south, the nuptial service uniting the lives of Miss Charles Spurgeon Webb, of this city, and Edward Clark Gregory, Jr., of Salisbury, N. C., was a significant event in the society calendar of Greenville, on Saturday evening, November 16, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles Spurgeon Webb, on North Main street. The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock, with Dr. George W. Quick of the First Baptist church, as the officiating clergyman. There was in attendance not only a large number of Greenvillians, but many other distinguished visitors from out of the city.

"The bride is the second daughter of Mrs. Charles Spurgeon Webb and the late Mr. Webb, who was at one time mayor of Greenville, and one of the leading citizens of this city. She is unusually attractive, and by her sweet disposition and charm of manner, has been very popular since making her debut in Greenville society. General regret is felt that she is to make her residence in another state. Since the formal announcement of her engagement several weeks ago, the lovely bride has been widely and elaborately entertained.

"The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark Gregory, of Salisbury, N. C., and is a practicing attorney of that city and is one of North Carolina's most prominent citizens. He has made a number of friends in Greenville on recent visits here and enjoys the popularity of innumerable friends."

Seeing her husband fall from a scaffold in Chicago, Mrs. John Moynihan dropped dead. Moynihan was only slightly injured.
