Vienna.—There is not a woman air pilot in Austria, either amateur or professional.

Last year there was a woman applicant for a flying license, Miss Therese Braun-Storfinger of Linz, who was accepted as an apt pupil and passed all the physical tests. She went through a course of instruction at Salzburg, but then suddenly gave it up and has not asked for a license.

NO PATIENCE WITH CHILDREN

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Stood Her Nerves

Dalton, Pa.—"I was weak, nervous and run-down before my last baby was born. I had no patience with them and they just wore me out. My mother told me about someone who took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped her. I took it myself and got fine results. I am getting along fine now, thanks to your Vegetable Compound. L. S. Gibbs Funeral Conducted At Union

(Special to The Star.)

Rev. D. G. Washburn, pastor of the Union Baptist church conducted the funeral services of the remains of L. S. Gibbs, a citizen of No. 8 township of this county. Mr. Gibbs died Monday morning Nov. 11 after an illness of more than two months. He developed pleurisy and was under the care of the medical staff of the hospital at Lincolnton, for nearly three weeks, after which he was carried back to his home and seemed for a short time gaining rapidly, when suddenly his condition reversed, which was partly caused from a poisoned system, originating from his teeth. The doctor had been trying to get him strong enough to remove his teeth for some time, but had never been able to do so.

He was born in Rutherford county, and was in his 47th year. He leaves his wife and six children, having survived four children. The living children are Paul, Hergie, Clifford, Mrs. Susan Henderson, Mrs. Theron Covington, and a small daughter, Hattie, age 10. The following brothers were present for the funeral: W. L., and B. F. Gibbs of Hendersonville; James Gibbs, of Campobello, S. C., Route 3, and J.

I wouldn't be without it— not if it cost twice as much

When Don and I first started keeping house we felt that we couldn't afford a telephone. There was the furniture to buy—linens—and a dozen and one little things that cost no end of money. Then one day after we had been married a couple of months I was left all alone. I expected Don for dinner but he didn't come—seven o'clock came but not Don—eight o'clock and still no word. I was frantic. Usually when Don was late he called Mrs. Brown next door or sent word by a friend who lived close by. After I felt that I couldn't wait any longer I ran to Mrs. Brown's to call Don's office, but Mrs. Brown wasn't there. Then I couldn't understand why I hadn't heard from Don through our friend.

If Don hadn't come when he did I believe that I would have gone crazy. He had tried to call Mrs. Brown but no one had answered, and our kind messenger friend was out of town. That incident cured us. We ordered a telephone the next day—my dear, it was a pleasant surprise to learn how reasonable the cost really is. But if a telephone cost twice as much I wouldn't do without it—not for a single day.

H. Gibbs, of Mill Springs. Also one sister Mrs. J. H. Cochrane, of Mill Springs. His mother passed away about 40 years ago and one sister 31 years ago. His father died about 15 years since. His parents were the late John and Susan Gibbs of Rutherford county.

The deceased became a member of the Baptist church at the age of 14 and has been a consistent worker in the Union Baptist church for the past fifteen years, where he held his membership.
