Jones—"Two years ago I could have bought that valuable piece of property for a song."
Brown—"And you couldn't sing, eh?"
Jones—"Oh I could sing, but I couldn't get the right notes."

Cotton Market

Cotton was quoted on New York exchange at noon today:
Jan. 17.62, March 17.89, May 18.14, July 18.32, Dec. 17.45. Yesterday's close: Jan. 17.58, March 17.81, May 18.05, July 18.20, Dec. 17.36.

Memphis Herald says strong undertone to spot cotton has been given fresh impetus with snow and cold in northern half of the belt which contains the remainder of unharvested crop. Temperatures down to 20 and ten inches snow in eastern Arkansas, definitely shut off prospects of producing additional grades of any material value. Ideas as to final ginning are being jiggered to around 14,750,000. Worth street Saturday with prices easier.

Sales for week light. London cable says Manchester has had a steady stream of inquiries during past week but actual results below expectations. This is first notice day for December contracts, tenders expected to be large. Market should do better after they are stopped.

At The Theatres

Gloria Swanson in "The Trespassee," declared to be the greatest of all talking pictures—a United Artists production—is the feature at the Webb today and tomorrow. Says the press sheet:

Gloria Swanson's first talking picture has been admitted by critics everywhere to be the star's finest production and the best talking drama to date. Gloria Swanson oozes sings and speaks, abetted by a cast of Broadway celebrities. "The Trespassee" will, it is conceded, make the screen's best dressed star a bigger favorite than ever.

The story was written and directed by Edmund Goulding, ace craftsman, who wrote "The Broadway Melody" and who has produced some of the screen's foremost hits.

Picture fans, especially those followers of the rugged western life portrayed on the silver screen, will be delighted to hear that "Ranger," the handsome black horse that shared in the popularity of Col. Tim McCoy who appeared in a score of real western hits, will be at the Princess today and tomorrow.

"Ranger" is owned by Mr. Charles Ellis, of Wyoming, who caught the horse running wild on the western plains. "Ranger" was four years old when Mr. Ellis caught him and the animal showed a remarkable amount of intelligence and he was leased to the producers of "Tim McCoy" pictures. He has since the lapse of his contract with the picture producers been offered tempting sums for "Ranger" but he will not part with him.

Mr. Ellis has a two reel picture in which "Ranger" plays the leading part and he and the horse will appear on the stage immediately after it is shown.

TEACH THEM
THE VALUE OF MONEY

THEY are learning fast. Now is the period when their brains receive the most lasting impressions.

NOW is the time for them to realize the value of money.

LET them earn small sums for the chores they do, and encourage them to put the money into the bank—into savings accounts of their Very Own.

WHEN they want little things, let them pay for them with their own money. This will discourage extravagance.

AS they grow up they will acquire a realization of the true value of money, the basis of every successful career.
