

WASHINGTON'S CHERRY
TREE REPLY SAVES THEM

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Edward Dalglish, seventeen, and Richard Prendergast, sixteen, were arraigned in morals court accused of chopping down two cherry trees near their homes.

"We cannot tell a—" began the youths.

"Oh, yes. Never mind." Teplied the magistrate. "What did you do it for?" "To make hockey sticks," said the youths. "Well, that's a good one," said the magistrate. "Go home and shhiney no more."

SONGS WITH HIS WORK
NOT WANTED BY HOOVER

Washington.—President Hoover is extraordinarily fond of music, but he doesn't care for it to the point of having songsters warble at him as he sits at his desk.

Consequently, the request of a widely known Indian tenor for permission to croon to the chief executive has been declined with thanks.

Paradox.

Prof.—"Can you give me an example of a paradox?"

Speedy Relief
for Sore ThroatThis Doctor's Prescription Requires No Gargling.

No longer is it necessary to gargle and choke with nasty tasting medicines to relieve sore throat. Now you can get almost instant relief with one swallow of a doctor's prescription. This prescription was refilled so often and became so popular that the druggist who originally filled it decided to put it up under the name Thoxine and make it available to everyone.

The remarkable thing about Thoxine is that it relieves almost instantly, yet contains nothing harmful. It is pleasant tasting, and safe for the whole family, and is guaranteed to relieve sore throats or coughs in 15 minutes or money back. Just ask for Thoxine, 35c., 60c., and $1.00. Sold by Sun's Drug Store and all other Good Drug Stores.

SICK AT HIS STOMACH

"I WAS suffering from stomach trouble in 1917," says Mr. C. K. Nelson, a railroad engineer living in Pulaski, Va. "I had a tightness in my chest, a shortness of breath. There seemed to be a heavy weight in the pit of my stomach, and quite a bit of nausea, yet I couldn't vomit. I tried different remedies, yet I suffered on just the same. When in West Virginia on a work train, I was in such a condition that I just gave up and came home. I could not stand to work, in my condition. Some one told me about Black-Draught. I started taking it in small doses after meals. It helped me, and I went back to work."

Democrats To Have
Hard Time Getting
Jonas Out Congress

Many Believe It Will Take Hoey Or Morrison To Redem District Seat.

Raleigh.—Democrats in part of the piedmont and mountain sections of North Carolina are by no means certain that the ninth and tenth congressional districts, which went over to the Republican columns last year, can be reclaimed by the Democrats next fall, according to lawyers from both districts who have been here for supreme court arguments during the past few weeks. Even in these two wayward districts are to be reclaimed, it is not yet certain just who will be the Moses to lead them back into the proper column, they say.

Charles A. Jonas, Lincolnton, who defeated Maj. A. L. Bulwinkle, Gastonia, last year, seems to be getting hold that will take a strong Democrat to break, it is frequently heard, relative to the ninth district and George A. Pritchard is likewise entrenching himself effectively in the mountainous tenth, it is also said.

For a time it appeared as if there would be a dozen or more candidates to oppose Mr. Jonas, but the talk has at least quieted down and is not being heard so much now, credited, to the splendid congressional record, if even Democrats are to be man he is apparently making. In fact, one leading Charlotte Democrat and politician, one of the old school, and one who voted it straight from top to bottom last year, said while here recently that he was not sure he would not vote for Mr. Jonas next time himself.

It was believed for a time that both Major Bulwinkle and Zebulon Weaver of Asheville were merely victims of the unpleasant situation which developed last year, but now many of them see that it means more and that some unusually popular and able candidate must take the stump and make a vigorous campaign if those districts are to be reclaimed.

It has been talked that either one of two men would be necessary to reclaim the ninth, former Gov. Cameron Morrison, Charlotte, or Clyde R. Hoey, Shelby. Neither, it is assured, wants the task. Also, it has been confidently stated that J. A. Bell, Charlotte, outside of one or the other of these, would be the best man to make the race.

Several Charlotte men are reported as having inclination. In the list is Walter Clark, son of the late chief justice and at present state senator from Mecklenburg; F. Marion Redd, former Charlotte mayor; Hamilton C. Jones, for several years Mecklenburg Democratic chairman; Edgar W. Pharr, former speaker of the house of representatives and probably others.

KISSING OF HANDS IS YET CUSTOMARY

Kissing the hand—a custom connected with royalty only in Britain—still remains a custom among politicians and diplomats on the continent.

The hand kiss as a social duty from a man to a married woman is also customary throughout Europe among persons of social positions or social pretensions.

In Berlin, Vienna, Rome and Budapest it is not unusual to see a man enter a drawing-room and bestow as many as ten hand kisses before he sits down for a cup of tea.

In Austria when a customer leaves a shop or a restaurant the proprietor and the assistants, both men and saleswomen, say "I kiss your hand," although it is merely a verbal formality, in fact the phrase is repeated by everybody to whom one gives a tip in Austria.

The Christmas kiss to a bishop's finger ring—an act of homage expected from believers of both sexes—prevails in the church of all countries; but outside Russia (where the Easter and Christmas kisses are distributed indiscriminately) kisses are not otherwise associated with religion nowadays.

Diplomatic Kiss. The diplomatic kiss has not been discredited—as some of our own statesmen can attest—even at Geneva.

King Michael of Rumania, who at the age of seven has already occupied a throne for more than two years, is already aware of how the hand kiss should be applied. Prince Faruk, son of King Fuad of Egypt, receives the gesture of homage with equal savoir-faire.

One of the many pictures ceremonies at the court of Spain takes place when the Bishop of Santiago conveys the greetings of the Holy Roman church to the king by means of a kiss on the hand.—World-Wide News Service.

The Nation's Pulse.

Many things do not constitute a wrong in themselves until they displace something of greater value. Many amusements are morally legitimate, but if they keep us from church they do us a moral injury. The church is the pulse of national righteousness. It means hospitals, colleges, civic organizations and national government; it means better schools, cleaner politics, purer social life; it means law and order and respect for those ideals that make a nation great; it means the reformation of individual life, it is the voice of God in the midst of the people, calling them up and on. There is danger of that voice being silenced with the clatter of our materialism. Let us think of all that the church has done, of all means today, and then give its sacred influence first place in our hearts and minds.
