Mrs. George Hoyle, the president, presented each member with a Christmas gift from Mrs. O. Max Gardner, who is a charter member. The envelopes when opened, proved to be a splendid photograph of the club taken at the mansion, when they were on a week end visit to Governor and Mrs. Gardner in November. Following the practice Mrs. Hamrick was assisted by Mesdames Grady Lovelace and Pitt Beam in serving delicious cranberry salad, coffee and fruit cake.

Afternoon Division No. 2 Meets.

The Woman's club room was attractively arranged with calendulas and lace ferns in floor baskets and bowls Thursday afternoon, when Mesdames Chas. and Russell Laughridge and Fred Baber delightfully entertained the members of this division and a few invited guests. Mrs. D. Z. Newton, the chairman had charge of the meeting. The following ladies were welcomed as new members, Mesdames B. D. Hulick, C. H. Shull, and W. L. Patterson. Mrs. Harry E. Speck, who has been absent for some time was also heartily welcomed. After the regular routine of business the program was turned over to the leader, Mrs. W. T. Alexander. The subject for the afternoon was on "Eugene O'Neill" and interesting papers were read by Mesdames J. R. Robinson, S. M. Gault and A. D. Brabble. Miss Margaret Ford played a piano selection, Miss Eloise Young gave a reading and Mrs. Dwight Houser rendered a piano solo. During the social hour the hostesses served a delicious frozen salad with sandwiches, coffee, doughnuts and stuffed dates, beautifully emphasizing the color note of yellow and green of the decorations. Special guests were: Mesdames Baxter Kirkpatrick, John McClurd, George Hoyle, and Roger Laughridge.

Dinner Party.

Miss Myrtle Harris delightfully entertained her Sunday school class, last evening with dinner at the Wayside restaurant. The members of the class present were, Misses Elizabeth LeGrand, Edith Reid Miller and Mary Virginia Lefler.

The four bridge tables and rooms were decorated with vases of cut flowers and greenery. The high score prize was won by Mrs. Frank Hoey and the low score prize by Mrs. Joe Nash. After the games, a tempting salad course with accessories was served. Misses Lillie Taylor and Eleanor Hoey assisting.

Mesdames Champion And Elam Entertain.

Mesdames Herbert Champion and Boyd Elam charmingly entertained with two bridge parties Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at their home on South DeKalb street. The rooms and tables were decorated with silver vases of pink sweet-peas and ferns, a color scheme of pink and green being cleverly carried out in the refreshments at both parties. At the afternoon party the honor guest, Mrs. W. A. Hord, was presented with a pretty gift, the high score prize was won by Miss Betty Suttle and the low score prize by Mrs. C. M. Dennis. At the evening party, the high score prizes were won by Mrs. Ray Lutz and Tom Abernathy and the consolation was cut by Mrs. Dean Duncan. The hostesses were assisted in serving at both parties, by Mesdames C. M. Dennis, Roland Elam and Everett Whisnant, a delightful salad and sweet course.

Mrs. LeGrand And Miss Lever Hostesses.

The members of the evening division of the Woman's club and a number of visitors were delightfully entertained last evening at the lovely home of Mrs. R. T. LeGrand on South Washington street, with Mrs. LeGrand and Miss Carobel Lever as joint hostesses. Miss Lever, the chairman, presided over the meeting, after the roll call and minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, the following very entertaining program was given. The subject for the evening being "Two European Capitals, London and Paris." Short sketches of these cities were read by Misses Mamie Jones and Mayne Roberts, after which, Miss Isabel Hoey, who visited both cities, while abroad last summer, told in a very interesting manner of her experiences during her stay in these cities. Mrs. Shovine Beam beautifully sang "Can't You Hear Me Calling, Caroline." Mrs. Plaster playing her accompaniment. The program was closed by Mrs. Dwight Houser skillfully playing two piano numbers, "Crescendo" by Lassen and "Dawn" by Rudolph Friml. The hostesses were assisted by Mesdames J. O. Corbett, Chas. Lever and Miss Elizabeth LeGrand in serving a delicious salad, with sandwiches, coffee and nut bread. The invited guests were, Mesdames Chas. Lever, J. O. Corbett, Shovine Beam, Dwight Houser, H. S. Plaster, O. M. Suttle and honorary members, Mes-

James R. L. Ryburn, Jessie Rainsaur and Charles Hoey.

School Hatchery Is Doing Business Now

(Special to The Star.)
Ellenboro.—The Ellenboro school hatchery, owned and operated by the agricultural department of the Ellenboro school, opened its 1930 season Tuesday when the first eggs were placed in the incubator which has a capacity of 7,000 eggs. In addition to selling chicks at reasonable prices the hatchery will again do custom hatching for those who have their own breeding flocks. Excellent breeding flocks have been selected by the agricultural teacher. One flock produced an average of 217 eggs per hen last year.

Although she is blind, Miss Elsie Manders of London is at the head of the honors list of the University of London.

While welcoming guests at the celebration of his 92nd birthday, William M. Marlin of Leeds, Eng., dropped dead.

MONTGOMERY WARD & Co. announces Sensational Increases in Riverside Guarantees

... with no increase in prices!

ACTUAL mileage records developed by our own large fleet of test cars, and the experience of millions of users have conclusively proved that the former mileage guarantees on RIVERSIDE tires . . . while most liberal . . . did not fully express the superlative quality of the tires themselves.

To more closely represent actual RIVERSIDE performance, we announce these new and greater mileage guarantees—covering a complete line of tires that conform to such specific standards of service only because they embody the finest of materials, the most modern design, and the expert workmanship that all superline tires must receive.

Back of each of these sensational guarantees stands the prestige and responsibility of an organization whose record of 57 years of fair-dealing is unquestioned!
