CAN'T WRITE NAME, BUT IS JAILED FOR FORGERY

York, S. C.—Eon Dover, young white man of the western section of York county, was arrested here on a charge of the forgery of a check. It is charged that Dover tried to forge the name of one Moss to a check in amount of about $23.50. It is alleged that he tried to cash the check, which was drawn on the Loan and Savings bank in both York and Clover. Dover is unable to write his own name, officers say. A Clover man may be jailed for alleged connection in the case.

Meeting The Devil Dr. Wall's Subject

Attractive And Appropriate Music For All Services On Sunday Next.

"Meeting the Devil," will be the subject of Dr. Zeno Wall, in the service at the First Baptist church on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The services of the day will open with the Sunday school at 9:30 o'clock. An effort is being made throughout the Sunday school to carry the attendance to an average of 1,000 each Sunday morning. This is the average goal set by the workers council. In the evening at 6 o'clock the 13 B. Y. P. U.'s will meet for study. The goal of 300 is set for next Sunday evening. Every member is urged to be on time. In the evening service, which will be held at 7 o'clock, Dr. Wall's subject will be, "The Cry of the Outsider." Perhaps the largest night congregation which has been seen since the opening of the new church was present on last Sunday evening. A great number of visitors from over the county are present each Sunday evening to worship and hear the inspiring messages of Dr. Wall and enjoy the splendid musical programs led by Mr. Eason. The musical programs of the day follow: Morning, 11 o'clock—Anthem, "Fear Not, O Israel," Spicker by several soloists and the choir; offertory number, "Seek Ye the Lord," Roberts, with tenor and obligato and choir. Evening: Song service of old familiar hymns; anthem—"The Radiant Morn Hath Passed Away," Woodward by the choir; male chorus, "Wonderful Peace." This number was rendered over radio station WBT, Charlotte, this week and met with approval by the radio audience. Everyone is invited to all services of the church. Tunney And Women. New York.—Sundry women have books autographed "Gene Tunney—No Reason whatsoever," Mr. and Mrs. Tunney attended a lecture by Hugh Walpole, British writer, on "The Art and Immorality of the Platform for autographs. Mr. Tunney acted as second to his friend in meeting demands. STRONG PROGRAM FOR S. S. WORKERS

(By G. G. PAGE.)

Every worker in every Sunday school in the Kings Mountain association is urged to attend the January meeting at the First Baptist church in Shelby Sunday afternoon, January 12, at 2:30. The following associational officers will be elected for the year: associational superintendent, secretary and six group superintendents. A nominating committee will be appointed at the beginning of the session for the purpose of selecting and nominating all these officers. A strong program of addresses will be made setting the pace for the year. All the speakers will endeavor to point the way to more and better work and encourage all workers to new enthusiasm and effort. Each pastor and superintendent is urged to do all he can to have a large representation from his church at this meeting. Make it a special order for that afternoon. Program. 2:30 song service led by H. B. Eason; 2:40 devotional service led by Dr. Zeno Wall; 2:50 appointment of nominating committee; 3:55 "My Task in my Sunday school this Year," by a pastor, Rev. Rush Pagett—train officers and teachers; utilize the Sunday school organization to locate and reach the lost and unaffiliated church members, teach the Bible effectively, win the lost and enlist the saved, build up the preaching service, teach missions. 3:15 "My Aims for 1930," by a superintendent, J. L. Loden, general superintendent, Kings Mountain First Baptist Sunday school; Attain and maintain the standard of excellence, maintain a good weekly teachers' meeting, proper use of the six point record system, take and use a census, maintain program of visitation, carefully prepare and render opening programs of worship. 3:55 "Four Things I Want to Go This Year as a Teacher," Mr. O. V. Hamrick: Reach and hold every possibility for my class, seek to teach the Bible that its message will be accepted and practiced, to be faithful in my relation to the superintendent, the pastor and the church, so to live that my life will be above reproach and my teaching enhanced by my daily conduct. 3:55 "Help Along the Way." Attendance upon associational meetings, Regular monthly reports as a check upon the work, unity of effort with all church leaders. 4:10—Election of officers, 4:15—adjourn.

Walker Is Head Of County Club

Miss Bernice Borders Is Sponsor For Newly Organized Club At Wake Forest.

(Special to The Star.) Wake Forest, Jan. 8.—The boys from Cleveland county who are now in Wake Forest college have recently organized a Cleveland county club with F. G. Walker, president; T. A. Parker, vice president; A. A. Powell, secretary and treasurer. The following are members of the club: Charles J. Hamrick, John C. Hamrick, J. Floyd Hollman, M. H. Hollman, S. W. Hughes, L. P. Barnett, F. G. Walker, A. V. Washburn, T. A. Parker, G. A. Souther, A. A. Powell. Our number is not so large, but we are one hundred percent strong for Wake Forest and more especially for Cleveland county. We are doing our best to uphold the fine record that former Cleveland men have made at this college. We take pride in the fact that among the host of alumni who have gone out from this college into a life of success and fame that Cleveland county ranks high. The records made by former Cleveland men at this institution is such that no boy who halls from old Cleveland county is expected to do less than to rank among the best students. The college professors take it for granted that he will do so from the very beginning. We hope that the young men who are expecting to enter college next year from Cleveland county will not forget that Wake forest bids them a warm welcome to her historical campus. The 1929-30 catalogue is now being revised and will be sent to any one who will send him name and address to E. B. Earnshaw, Wake Forest, requesting that he send them one. At a recent meeting of the club Miss Bernice Borders of Shelby was selected as sponsor. She, being a charming young lady of Cleveland county and a former student of our sister institution, Meredith college, was unanimously selected. The members of the club wish to express their thanks to the officials of the Cleveland Star for their promptness in sending us their paper and for the variety of news articles that it contains. It was recently announced by the president of this college that a new gymnasium and a student activity building will soon be under construction. Both buildings are greatly needed and we hope that they will be hastened to completion. —A. A. POWELL.

Mrs. Susan Weaver Buried At Rehobeth

(Special to The Star.)

Mrs. Sarah Elliott Weaver died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Charlie Williamson, with whom she had made her home for several years, January 6, aged about 87 years. She was a daughter of Adam Finch Elliott, the youngest son of Martin Elliott. Her mother was Verella Green, a sister to the late Walton Green of Shelby. She was the last one of the third generation from Martin Elliott and was the second wife of Adam Weaver who died about 20 years ago. Interment was at Rehobeth Methodist church where she had been a devoted member from early childhood. She was industrious and frugal, hale and hearty, until weakened by age. I am in my 83th year and oldest of the fourth generation from Martin Elliott and I have a great grandson leading the seventh generation on that line of descent. Our Elliott family came here from Virginia in 1806. JAMES C. ELLIOTT. Men make love to blonds, says a color specialist, and marry brunets. Statistics also probably show that brunets can shoot straighter than blonds.
