At The Theaters

One of the stellar lights of Hollywood, John Gilbert, in a romantic drama entitled "His Glorious Night" is the feature at the Webb today and tomorrow. This is Gilbert's latest, and the favorite of millions of scores again. It is an all-talker. A comedy and news reel enliven the program. Due Wednesday, Thursday and Friday—that glorious super production, heralded all over the land—"Rio Rita." This celebrated picture, which recently packed em in in Charlotte for several weeks, is done in technicolor.

"The Cock Eyed World," by Lawrence Stallings, who wrote "The Big Parade" and "What Price Glory" is the whoop-em-up attraction at the Carolina today and tomorrow. Victor McLaglen, who starred in "What Price Glory", Edmund Lowe and Lily Damita, the latter a headliner with Janettes in "Variety" are the stars. Raoul Walsh, one of Hollywood's best with the megaphone, directed it. Fox produced it. It is one of the big pictures of the year, dramatic, humorous, vital—a great picture.

No Need For Lawyer.

Two medical students were charged with driving to the danger of the public. Have you a lawyer? asked the judge. We're not going to have any lawyer, answered the elder of the students. We've decided to tell the truth.
