At The Theaters

Good pictures all week, and three days of vaudeville, is the Lyric program for the week. A special production—"Hell on the Border"—a captivating story of the outlaw Villa's raids and his conflict with the Texas Rangers is on today. Announced for Wednesday is a Paramount production—"Fast Company"—a hundred per cent talkie. A fast vaudeville program is due the last three days of the week.

The Webb is announcing a full week's program in the advertising columns of The Star today. The picture today—"The Awful Truth"—has Ina Claire for the star. Miss Claire, as theatre fans all know, is one of the greatest of Broadway stars, the wife of John Gilbert. "The Awful Truth" is a great picture, revealing the qualities upon which marriage endures. "Her Private Affair" is the offering Tuesday, with Ann Harding in the lead. This is a play featuring plot, which is extraordinarily good.

"The Sky Hawk" a picture in which Manager Sipe, of the Carolina, is taking the deepest interest, is the feature of the Carolina today and tomorrow. This is a thrill picture, done with all the finesse and art of the great dramatic productions. And it's a great show. It is an all talking production, and as the name implies, is an aerial drama. If you love action, and romance, a heart tripper, you will eat this up. "The Marriage Playground" is due Wednesday and Thursday. Mary Brian is the star of this modern production.

TO RID ROADS OF OLD AUTOS FOUND UNSAFE

New York—The "collegiate flyver" and other wheezing, palsied automobiles of venerable vintage are doomed to the scrap heap.

The National Automobile chamber of commerce announced that the industry would expend $15,000,000 this year in removing unsafe cars from the highways. The plan, endorsed by the chamber's board of directors, involves the scrapping of 350,000 machines in addition to the normal scrapping by the motor companies, and proposes that the manufacturers provide a fund for removing permanently those automobiles that menace the safety of other highway users.

"This expenditure of $15,000,000 will not clear away every unfit old car, Alvan McCauley, president of the chamber said, "but it is so big a move that the experiment will demonstrate fully whether it is worth while to carry the program further."

Edison, At Age 83 Backs The Dry Law

Thinks It Will Succeed; Has Faith In Conference.

Thomas Alva Edison, genial wizard of the age, celebrated his eighty-third birthday Tuesday and philosophized on prohibition, politics, education and life in general he said:

"The London naval conference will result in a reduction of armament for the general good of humanity; prohibition will ultimately be enforced and the proposed modification of the Volstead law will not help the cause of temperance; a young man, after being graduated from high school should enter business and not college; the five-day week is 'O. K.'; aviation needs more experimental work before its commercialization; and the 'machine age' is increasing, not hampering, man's creative genius."

These were some of the answers to the twenty-four questions propounded to him by a corps of newspaper correspondents in his annual interview with the press.

Returning from a short fishing trip to his flower-laden estate on the banks of the Caloosahatchie river, the inventor of the electric lights, the phonograph, the motion picture camera and numerous other devices smiled benignly upon the waiting reporters as he came in and took a seat at his desk.

The questions had been typewritten, his deafness prevented verbal answers; and so the ageing genius sharpened his pencil and set to work.

Despite the severe attack of pneumonia he suffered several months ago, Mr. Edison seemed in excellent health. When asked "how old do you feel?" he said: "Usually about fifty, but some microbes are experimenting with my internal machinery which makes me feel about eighty-five years old."

Mr. Edison was specific on the prohibition question. He said it would some day be accomplished in the United States and that the proposed modification of the law which would permit the manufacture of light wines and beer would not benefit the cause of the issue.

A "DIFFERENT" PICTURE!

This space could be cluttered with well-worn adjectives but why hang 'em on. You'll furnish the praise when you see and hear it. We'll just say it's a swell talkie and let it go at that. If you're "air-minded" you'll like it. But even if you don't know a strut from a tailspin you'll like the good, clean romance, the tremendous climax and the magnitude of the production. And it's "different" because nothing has ever been done like it before, and that's no fib. Take a tip: Don't miss it!

Washington Saved And Now We Spend!

IN the days when Washington was leading a ragged, ill-equipped band of colonists against the most impressive army in the world he could not afford to waste a crust or a cartridge. He had to make every shot, every cent COUNT. He did it, and his success is mirrored in the rich nation which he helped to found. The economy of yesteryear brings the riches of tomorrow.
