Misses Cabanis and Roberts Hostesses.
Misses Mammie Cabanis and Elizabeth Roberts were joint hostesses to the members of the evening division of the Woman's club in their regular meeting entertaining at the club room which was prettily arranged with spring flowers, Thursday evening. The following very delightful program had been arranged by Miss Elizabeth Roberts: Piano solo, Miss Ethel Elmore; reading, Miss Virginia Hamrick; vocal solo, Mrs. Ben Suttle; reading, Miss Carobel Lever; piano solo, Miss Mary Helen Lattimore.
During the social half hour a very delicious fruit salad with sandwiches, olives, cakes and hot tea was served, using the St. Patrick napkins and souvenirs. The invited guests included Misses Ethel Elmore, Virginia Hamrick, Mary Helen Lattimore, Mrs. Ben Suttle and Mrs. J. F. Roberts.

Mrs. Schenck Hostess.
The hospitable home of Mrs. John Schenck, Jr. in the southern part of town was beautifully arranged with early spring flowers. Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Schenck charmingly entertained the Cecelia music club members with a lovely card party. The dining table was covered with a lace cloth and graced with a huge green bowl of yellow jonquils, buttercups and spruce and the card tables were graced with miniature bowls of the same flowers, a color note of green and yellow being emphasized throughout. The top score prizes were won by Mesdames W. B. Nix and L. P. Holland and the low score prizes went to Mesdames Hugh Plaster and W. C. Harris. At the close of the game, the hostesses was assisted by her mother, Mrs. N. Pyle, Mesdames William McCord, Willis McMurry and Ben Suttle in serving an elaborate colation in two lovely courses, consisting of cream-of-chicken in ramekins with hot rolls and salad, followed by pure strawberry ice cream with individual angel food cakes. Invited guests beside club members were Mesdames D. R. Sibley, Willis McMurry and Miss Elizabeth Ebeltoft.

Hamrick-Stalnaker Marriage.
A marriage of much interest to their many friends throughout the Carolinas was that of Miss Ruth Hamrick of Shelby to B. Louie Stalnaker of Plant City, Fla. The ceremony, a very pretty affair was performed at high noon Tuesday in the First Baptist church of Rock Hill, S. C. by the pastor, Dr. E. I. wards.

The bride, a charming young woman of the younger social set of Shelby was becomingly gowned in a going away suit of blue with accessories to match. The young couple motored to Rock Hill, S. C. accompanied by the brides mother Mrs. M. Flay Hamrick, Misses Margaret Hamrick, Sara Michael, Sara Richbourg, Mr. Howard Spry and other relatives and friends.
Mrs. Stalnaker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Flay Hamrick and granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. G. Hamrick of Shelby and Mr. and Mrs. John Michael of Asheville.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Stalnaker of Plant City, Fla. and holds a responsible position with the Southern railway.

After the ceremony the happy couple left by train for Williston, S. C. where they will make their home for the present.

Afternoon Division No. 2 Meets.
A very interesting meeting of the afternoon division No. 2 of the Woman's club was held at the club room Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Mesdames W. C. Harris, J. R. Robinson and B. L. Smith as hostesses. The club room was decorated with a profusion of jonquils and other spring flowers.

Mrs. D. Z. Newton, the chairman, presided. The home safety survey was discussed and it was announced that the Woman's club would sponsor an entertainment given by Mrs. John S. Alken, a very talented dialect reader, next Friday night at the Central school auditorium. Mesdames John Lovelace and Hal Whitsman were welcomed as new members. Mrs. Fred Baber had charge of the following program on "Robert Frost." Mrs. Thad Ford first sang "Just Awearin for You" by Carrie Jacobs Bond. Mrs. Will King gave a sketch of Frost's life. Mrs. Shovine Beam read the work of Frost before 1920. Miss Mary Helen Lattimore played "Concert Etude." Mrs. B. O. Hamrick read a paper on New Hampshire. Mrs. Carobel Lever closed the program with a humorous reading. The hostesses served a delicious mint julee with cake and nuts carrying out a color scheme of yellow and green of the decorations. Special guests were Mesdames J. H. Hull, O. V. Hamrick and Miss Amelia Stevenson.
