Birthday Party.

Mrs. Ernest Johnson entertained a number of little children and their mothers Tuesday afternoon at her home on Cleveland Springs road, honoring her little daughter, Sara Lou, in celebration of her third birthday anniversary. The home was artistically arranged with spring flowers, the dining table having as central decorations, the birthday cake holding three tiny red candles. The little honoree was daintily dressed in a dotted print. Mrs. Johnson was assisted by Misses Gladys and Helen Goodwin and Gertrude Boland in entertaining and serving the children with ice cream, cakes, and candies. The mothers were served a tempting salad course with hot coffee.

Cecelia Music Club Meets.

The regular business meeting of the Cecelia music club was held at the club room Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. George Hoyle, the president, presiding. The roll call and minutes were dispensed with. An invitation from the Lincolnton music club was extended to the Cecelias to be their guests on Saturday, March 29, at 3 o'clock, with the Cecelias giving the program. The program committee reported the program well underway. There was one vacancy in the club membership and Miss Mary Helen Lattimore was voted to fill this place. Following the business meeting, a half hour was spent on choral practice.

Mrs. Washburn Hostess At Large Tea.

Beautiful in every detail was the large tea given Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 by Mrs. Chas. W. Washburn at her home on N. Morgan street in honor of the Entres Nous club of which she is a charming member.

The home was arranged throughout with a profusion of early spring flowers. Mrs. Will King, president of the club welcomed the guests at the front door. Mrs. Washburn, handsomely gowned in Lucerne blue chiffon, with flesh fisher studded with rhinestones, introduced her first honoree, Mrs. Chas. Jonas of Lincolnton, a recent bride, who wore her wedding dress of ivory satin. Mrs. Dale L. Kalter, also a recent bride stood next wearing a blue taffeta and tulle costume with shoulder bouquet of sweetheart roses and valley lilies. Mrs. L. B. Hayes was attired in red chiffon velvet and Mrs. Horace Eason wore egg-shell georgette with shoulder bouquet of sweetpeas and swansons. Mrs. Grover Eason directed the guests to the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with yellow and green, the color scheme being cleverly carried out both in decorations and refreshments. The table was covered with a handsome lace piece and centered with a large green bowl of buttercups, stocks and greenery, with green candlesticks holding lighted yellow tapers at each corner of table. Entertaining in the dining room and serving pretty plates of yellow cream, individual green cakes and nuts were Mesdames Cline Hendrick, W. T. Alexander, George Washburn and F. G. Gardner. Receiving in the hallway were Miss Oeland Washburn and Mrs. Charles Eskridge. Directing the guests to the music room were Misses Martha Martin and Abbie Jane Wall. Presiding at the piano and furnishing lovely music were Misses Mary Helen Lattimore and Bertha Bostick.

At the register were Misses Jane and Virginia Washburn, daughters of the hostess. Bidding the guests good bye at the side entrance were Mesdames D. E. Honeycutt and Boyce Dellinger.

The guest list included about two hundred and fifty.

Literary Division No. 2 Meets.

Mesdames Rush Thompson, F. H. Sanders and S. M. Gault were joint hostesses to the members of the literary division of No. 2 of the Woman's club which was held at the club room Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

In the business session Mrs. D. Z. Newton, the chairman, appointed the following ladies on the nominating committee, Mesdames Chas. W. Washburn, Herman Eskridge and J. R. Robinson and the program committee, Mesdames W. T. Alexander, Dan Frazier and L. B. Hayes. Mrs. Alice Lineberger had charge of the following entertainment program on "Edna St. Vincent Millay" and her life sketch was given by Mrs. Russell Laughridge. Mrs. Grady Lovelace sang a Scotch song "Bonnie Sweet Bessie." Mrs. Pitt Beam playing her accompaniment. Mrs. Harry Speck repeated some of Millays poems and Mrs. J. F. Roberts read some of Millays plays. Miss Mary Lillian Speck gave two humorous readings after which Mrs. L. B. Hayes played Chopin's Fifteenth Polonaise. A delicious ice course was served emphasizing the color note of yellow and green of the decorations. The invited guests were Mesdames J. R. McClure, A. H. Morgan, Oscar Palmer, Grady Lovelace and Pitt Beam.

Evening Division Of Club Meets.

A very delightful and interesting meeting of the evening division of the Woman's club was held at the club room last evening, with Miss Mame Jones and Mrs. Irma Wallace as joint hostesses. Twenty-two regular members responded to the roll call and the following invited guests were present: Misses Rosa Watson, Mary Helen Lattimore, Gussie Sisk, Ruth Price, Elizabeth Wallace and Mrs. Nance. The chairman appointed the following to act on the program committee: Misses Oeland Washburn, Ettalie Moses and Mrs. Irma Wallace. Miss Alexander was leader of the program, the subject being on "Italy." Mrs. Isabel Hoey, who went abroad last summer told in a very entertaining manner of her visit in Italy, especially to Rome and Venice. Miss Mary Helen Lattimore beautifully rendered "The Rigoletto" by Verdi. Mrs. Hugh Pratt read an interesting paper on "Italy—Old and New" and Mrs. D'Young concluded the program with a paper on "The Vatican."

The hostesses served delicious block cream, with cakes, sandwiches, coffee and nuts the St. Patrick idea suggested throughout. The club room was prettily decorated with large vases of spring flowers and a large bowl of gorgeous pink and white roses graced the table.
