

THE MARKET. Cotton, per lb. 15c Cotton Seed, per bu. 45c

Warmer Tuesday Today's North Carolina Weather Report: Fair and continued cold to night. Tuesday fair with slowly rising temperature in west and north central portions.

Name New Planet. Flagstaff, Ariz., May 25.—"Pluto" has been selected by scientists of Lowell Observatory here as the name for the recently-discovered trans-Neptunian body which they believe is the long-sought planet.

Roberts Heads Masons Again. Local Masons Re-elect Old Officers At Meeting Friday Night.

Capt. J. Frank Roberts, one of Shelby's veteran and most prominent Masons, is again head of Cleveland lodge 202 A. F. and A. M. At the regular meeting of the lodge held Friday night at the temple here Capt. Roberts was re-elected worshipful master, and the other officers of last year were also re-elected.

Those Elected. The other officers re-elected were W. V. Metcalf, senior warden; J. C. Weathers, junior warden; R. G. Laughridge, and H. H. Massey treasurer.

Negro Drowned At Insane Hospital. Officers Here Unable To Locate Father of Drowned Negro Sims.

Sheriff Irvin Allen's office here was notified by telegram Saturday that a negro from this county, Frank Sims, was drowned at noon Saturday at the state hospital for the colored at Goldsboro. The message did not give any details other than that Sims had been drowned and that he was the son of Jesse Sims.

Record Number Of Puppies Sold Here. Legion Auxiliary Realizes More From Sale of Poppies Than Any Previous Year.

Poppy day in Shelby Saturday was a big success, it was announced today by officials of the American Legion auxiliary. Two thousand poppies were sold on the streets Saturday and $240 was realized from their sale, the money to be used for disabled World war veterans and their families in this section.

Three Well Known People Very Ill Now. Three prominent people of the county are seriously ill. Mr. Hayne Patterson continues very low at his home at Patterson Springs and no hope is held for his recovery.

Mercury Jumps Down Then Hops Up Again. Freakish weather has prevailed in this section since Saturday. Mercury in local thermometers after climbing to 84 degrees during the week suddenly flopped Saturday night and Sunday morning to 58 degrees.

Couples From Kings Mountain Patronize Home Wedding Mart. When Dan Cupid engenders a love affair in the Kings Mountain section he must whisper something into the ears of the young lovers about patronizing home industries.

Merchants To Meet On Tuesday Night. There will be a called meeting of the Cleveland Mutual Business Protective Association on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at the Campbell Department store.

Twenty-Five Democrats Seeking County Offices

Hays Speaks To Graduates Of Shelby High. Methodist Minister Preaches Sermon. Crowd Packs First Baptist Church For High School Baccalaureate Sermon.

Taking for his text a verse of scripture in Matthew where Jesus had called his twelve disciples and after instructing them said "Freely you have received, freely give," Dr. L. B. Hayes, pastor of Central Methodist church preached the baccalaureate sermon Sunday night to the graduating class of the Shelby high school, 65 in number.

The large auditorium was filled to capacity. Only on two previous occasions has all seats been filled and standing room space occupied, first when the new church was opened and again when the state Baptist convention met here. Last night all seats were filled, chairs were placed in the aisles and many people stood throughout the program.

First School of Jesus. "When Jesus called his twelve unlettered disciples and instructed them, that school of Jesus was the first ever held. After he taught them and told them of his mission in life, Jesus preached the first baccalaureate sermon when he said 'freely you have received; freely give.' Upon this background Dr. Hayes preached an eloquent and powerful sermon, reminding the graduates that the standing on the shoulders of the men of all the ages.

There were two beautifully rendered anthems by the choir with Mrs. Hugh Plaster as organ accompanist. Other up-town churches suspended their services and met together for the baccalaureate sermon, Rev. H. N. McDiarmid delivering the invocation and benediction and Dr. Zeno Wall reading the scripture lesson.

Colored Minister Goes to Philadelphia. Rev. John A. Hunter, highly esteemed colored minister of Shelby, left last week for Philadelphia, Pa., where he becomes pastor of the Williams Temple, colored Methodist church there.

Man Arrested For Stealing A Pistol. Arnie Greer, white man, was arrested early Sunday morning in No. 8 township by Deputy Lorin E. Hoyle on the charge of stealing a pistol from Mr. J. M. Gardner, of the Double Springs section.

Tarriff Schedule Brings Universal Protest

Washington, D. C., May 26.—The ever present bugaboo of Mr. Average Man—the high cost of living—will take on a more menacing aspect than ever, if the tariff schedule about to be sent to President Hoover is approved. Economic experts estimate that from one to two billion dollars will be added to the aggregate price of existence if this measure is ratified.

Examination Week And Finals Program On At Shelby High

School In Midst Of Exams Now. Finals Begin On Wednesday Night. This is examination week and also commencement at the Shelby High school, and, incidentally, this is the busiest and biggest week of the year.

Marion School Finals Are On Wednesday. Finals for the Marion street school will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the school building.

Only Nine People Vote At Ellenboro. Forest City.—Ellenboro, a Ruthersford county town of about 500 population, recently held a municipal election.

Recital Thursday At Graham School. Piano pupils of Mrs. P. L. Hennessy gave a recital Thursday of last week at Graham school.

Man Arrested For Stealing A Pistol. Arnie Greer, white man, was arrested early Sunday morning in No. 8 township by Deputy Lorin E. Hoyle on the charge of stealing a pistol from Mr. J. M. Gardner, of the Double Springs section.

Mercury Jumps Down Then Hops Up Again. Freakish weather has prevailed in this section since Saturday. Mercury in local thermometers after climbing to 84 degrees during the week suddenly flopped Saturday night and Sunday morning to 58 degrees.

Couples From Kings Mountain Patronize Home Wedding Mart. When Dan Cupid engenders a love affair in the Kings Mountain section he must whisper something into the ears of the young lovers about patronizing home industries.

Merchants To Meet On Tuesday Night. There will be a called meeting of the Cleveland Mutual Business Protective Association on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at the Campbell Department store.

Grover Man Dies Suddenly This Morn

R. L. George Will Be Buried Tuesday At Grover. Was Forty-Six Years Of Age.

R. L. George, of Grover, died suddenly this morning at 3:30 o'clock and will be buried Tuesday, the funeral services to be conducted from the First Baptist church by Rev. W. E. Furcron, pastor. Mr. George was born in Lincoln county but had lived in and around Grover for the past twelve years.

Honor Farmer Has Health At Seventy

W. C. Jones Who Lives At Home Still Works At Seventy And Has Good Health.

W. C. Jones, of Lattimore, is another honor roll farmer and although seventy years of age works daily in the field and enjoys perfect health. This is due largely to the fact that he never drank whiskey, used tobacco or strong coffee.

Lady Falls From Tree, Back Broken; Was To Visit Here

Young Lady Of Mocksville Was To Visit Mr. and Mrs. Burrus Here.

Mrs. B. C. Clement, young married lady of Mocksville, had planned to come with other girlhood friends of Mrs. Chas. A. Burrus to Shelby for a dinner party Saturday at the home of Mrs. Burrus on the Cleveland Springs road, but she fell from a cherry tree Friday and sustained a broken back.

Baseball League Needs One Member

Spindale Drops Out. Union Or Hickory May Enter Semi-Pro Loop.

The semi-pro baseball league for section is still only a possibility this summer. At a meeting held in Shelby Saturday night it was definitely learned that Spindale would not enter the two-game-per-week league, and a movement is now on foot to secure a fourth team.

Formal Opening Of Peter Pan Tomorrow

The management of the new Peter Pan golf course at the Victor Hotel on South Washington street, is announcing a gala celebration and entertainment in its formal opening tomorrow evening beginning promptly at seven-thirty. A musical program has been arranged to delight the guests who will be invited to play a round of golf on the new course.

Shelby And County Club Baseball Games

Several Shelby and Cleveland county club participated in baseball games Saturday, all the contests being featured by considerable scoring.

Candidates File For Eight Contests Here

Two Candidates For Representative, Recorder, Treasurer, Coroner. Three For Sheriff, Solicitor. Newton, Hamrick Are Unopposed.

Twenty-five Democrats had filed as candidates for county offices here Friday night when the county board of elections closed the filing books, according to a list made public today by Judge John P. Mull, election board head.

Three Unopposed In Primary

Two Democrats now holding county offices were without opposition when the filing period ended and their names will not go on the ticket as they are automatically the nominees of the party. They are A. F. Newton, register of deeds, and A. M. Hamrick, clerk of superior court.

Two Unopposed

Three candidates are seeking the office of sheriff and three are seeking the nomination for solicitor of county court. There are two candidates in each of the following races—recorder, representative, treasurer, and coroner. Four men are candidates for the three places on the county board of commissioners, and six men are candidates for the five berths on the county school board.

Full Ticket

The following ticket will face the Democratic voters of Cleveland county on primary day, Saturday, June 7:

Sheriff—Irvin M. Allen, S. L. Baber, Marvin Blanton. Representative—Horace Kennedy, Henry B. Edwards. Recorder—W. Speight Beam, Maurice R. Weathers.

Solicitor—P. C. Gardner, J. C. Newton, C. B. McBryer. Treasurer—Mrs. Mary E. Larbrough, Miss Georgia Lutz. Coroner—Roscoe E. Lutz, Sylvanus Gardner.

Commissioners (vote for three)—G. R. Lattimore, A. E. Cline, R. L. Weathers, C. H. Reinhardt. Board of education (vote for 5)—C. D. Forney, C. S. Young, J. L. Ford, W. A. Ridenhour, Ivey Willis, A. L. Calton.

Township Races. Township balloting will be held in No. 6, 7 and 8 townships. In No. 6 there are three candidates for constable—R. B. Kendrick, Pink E. Lackey, and C. H. Simpson.

In No. 7 township there are two contests, for constable and the road commission. Candidates for constable are J. L. Dixon, Lorin E. Hoyle, and S. B. Cooper. Only one is to be nominated. There are six candidates for the three places on the township road commission. They are T. C. Stockton, D. P. Washburn, Grady Burrus, M. M. Greene, W. E. Walker, and Forrest S. Crowder.

In No. 8 township there are two contests, one for justice of the peace and the other for constable. The four candidates for the three offices of justices of peace are W. F. White, George Gold, E. M. Eaker and W. J. Bridges. The two candidates for constable are W. G. Powell and L. E. Lee.

County Republicans will have no contests in the primary, but their full list of nominees were filed Friday with the election board as is required by law. This list was exactly the same as published in The Star last week with the exception of one change wherein C. G. Hambrick is the Republican candidate for coroner instead of V. A. Costner. The Republican did not nominate a candidate for solicitor of county court.

Three Unopposed In Primary. Two Democrats now holding county offices were without opposition when the filing period ended and their names will not go on the ticket as they are automatically the nominees of the party. They are A. F. Newton, register of deeds, and A. M. Hamrick, clerk of superior court.

Formal Opening Of Peter Pan Tomorrow. The management of the new Peter Pan golf course at the Victor Hotel on South Washington street, is announcing a gala celebration and entertainment in its formal opening tomorrow evening beginning promptly at seven-thirty. A musical program has been arranged to delight the guests who will be invited to play a round of golf on the new course.

Shelby And County Club Baseball Games. Several Shelby and Cleveland county club participated in baseball games Saturday, all the contests being featured by considerable scoring.

The Shelby mill club, with Sheriff Hamrick, high school star, pitching, defeated Union 7 to 2. Hamrick struck out 17 hitters. The heavy-hitting Lawndale team defeated Bessemer City 19 to 14, while the Cleveland Cloth mill team lost to the strong Lowell aggregation by an 8 to 2 score. Hal Farris, captain of the 1930 Shelby high state champions, caught for the cloth mill.

Two Unopposed. Three candidates are seeking the office of sheriff and three are seeking the nomination for solicitor of county court. There are two candidates in each of the following races—recorder, representative, treasurer, and coroner. Four men are candidates for the three places on the county board of commissioners, and six men are candidates for the five berths on the county school board.

Full Ticket. The following ticket will face the Democratic voters of Cleveland county on primary day, Saturday, June 7:

Sheriff—Irvin M. Allen, S. L. Baber, Marvin Blanton. Representative—Horace Kennedy, Henry B. Edwards. Recorder—W. Speight Beam, Maurice R. Weathers.

Solicitor—P. C. Gardner, J. C. Newton, C. B. McBryer. Treasurer—Mrs. Mary E. Larbrough, Miss Georgia Lutz. Coroner—Roscoe E. Lutz, Sylvanus Gardner.

Commissioners (vote for three)—G. R. Lattimore, A. E. Cline, R. L. Weathers, C. H. Reinhardt. Board of education (vote for 5)—C. D. Forney, C. S. Young, J. L. Ford, W. A. Ridenhour, Ivey Willis, A. L. Calton.

Township Races. Township balloting will be held in No. 6, 7 and 8 townships. In No. 6 there are three candidates for constable—R. B. Kendrick, Pink E. Lackey, and C. H. Simpson.