

VOTE FOR HENRY B. EDWARDS

FOR THE LEGISLATURE

Henry B. Edwards, candidate for the Legislature, was educated at Wake Forest College where he received his A. B. degree and also studied law. Immediately after receiving his license to practice law he located in Shelby and this is the fifth year in which he has been engaged in the practice of his profession.

Henry B. Edwards is a married man and a Christian gentleman. As a citizen of Shelby and Cleveland County he has always been public spirited and willing to aid in civic matters.

Since announcing as a candidate for the Legislature in January, Henry B. Edwards has unhesitatingly stated to the people that he is opposed to higher taxes, opposed to any form of sales tax, and against the issuing of any other bonds without a vote of the people, that he is obligated to no group or clan and honestly desires to represent the PEOPLE of this county, and that if elected he will appreciate suggestions from the citizens of the County as he intends to represent ALL the people.

Plans Irish-American Oceanic Hop in June

Squadron Leader Kingsford-Smith, Australian airman, has just arrived in London from Dublin after completing most of the arrangements for his projected flight from the Irish Free State to the United States, probably in June. The route will be toward the State of Maine and then southward to New York City, provided sufficient fuel remains.

Brummitt To Speak On Scout Program

Parents and Friends of Scouts To Gather at Lake Lanier July 4th.

The committee in charge of the Fourth of July celebration to be staged at the Boy Scout camp, Lake Lanier, near Tryon, has successfully completed arrangements to make this one of the most pretentious affairs ever staged in the interest of the 1,400 Boy Scouts of the Piedmont council, their families and friends. This committee, appointed by the president, James W. Atkins, of Gastonia, is composed of the following men: George R. Gillespie, chairman; Major B. Sharpe and Francis P. Bacon of Tryon; Clarence Griffin, Spindale; Lee B. Weathers, Shelby; W. M. Pickens, Lincolnton, and A. F. Harlow, of Statesville.

The address of the day will be delivered by Hon. Dennis G. Brummitt, attorney-general of North Carolina.

Rutherford Gets A $95,000 Tax Check

Rutherford county received the largest check for taxes Monday that it ever has in the history of the county, i. e., at one time when the Henrietta Mills paid a total of $95,091.82 in back taxes for three years which had been in dispute.

It will be recalled that the mills paid what they thought was a just tax in 1927 and refused to pay the full assessment. It went through several courts and was finally settled by the highest court in the land some months ago, after a long and bitter fight.

PETE'S LETTER.

Hit shore has bin a long time since I have rote a letter to the Star; I shore am a pore man tu rite an tell eny thing cause Peggy (my wife) does all thu talking at our house lessen she pulls my chains (as she says.) But I am still a boy vit in sun ways, fur instance tother day Maggy got mad at me because I wouldn't give her a dime tu git her self a pack uv snuff so she got a hat pin an stuck me in the britches good and hard that made me jump clean out in thu yard. Corse I lit on the seat uv my britches. I hadnt more than got on my feet when thu rollin pin dug in thu ground rite whar I got up from if I hadnt tuve thunk in time she shore would nocked me cold with that do roller.

Corse me an peg. has kissed an made up but she got the snuff all the same an my wife is spitting red vit over hit from the fecks uv that snuff. I do despise snuff ever since my wife got tikvled telling me a tale one day hit come night tu putting my lis out. She blowed snuff all in my lis an hit shore did run me wild fur about a our or more. I put in a cud uv backer an putty soon I fergot all about hit.

Well peg wants tu cum tu town this spring. I think ill crank that ponyack-pollyvoo-coopa-runaway an haul her tu town but I shore dread hit fur she beets the jews telling me uv thu ruff places an thu curves. Gosh she says we are shore going tu git bumped off shoer on sum uv tham sharp bends. Its lookout pete thars a hole, or lookout youll hit that kar, or slow down that highway controller will pull us an all that kind uv junk till I dont no rite from rong thats right now what will I ever make of being talked tu like that.

Webb And Blanton Win Insurance Trip

C. R. Webb and J. L. Blanton, life insurance men of Shelby, by winning membership in the Pilot club are being awarded the coveted honor of a trip to Sedgfield-Greensboro, the location of the Pilot Life Insurance company which they represent in this section. They will leave shortly to attend the annual agency convention to be held there June 3-5.

Only those who qualify for the Pilot club are awarded this trip. Convention headquarters will be at Sedgfield Inn, located in the heart of a residential park and country club just west of Greensboro. All manner of sports events, including trap shooting, golf, putting, horse-shoe contests, tennis, swimming, croquet tournaments, are on the entertainment program, Mr. Webb has been notified.

Mr. Webb has won the distinction of being president of the Pilot club for two years in succession.

Webb and Blanton are also members of the McAllister clan, highest agency honorary organization with company. The clan will have a leading part in the program to be staged during the convention.

The American Child Health association, organized by Herbert Hoover in 1921, found that "The infant is the best looked after of any age group—the child from 2 to 6 is the most neglected—the average citizen knows very little about the health work being done in his own city."

Pillar of Drys Converted to Prohibition Reform

Despite the fact that she has been an ardent dry all her life and is a descendant of three generations of total abstainers, Dr. Katherine Bement Davis (above) has announced her abandonment of the dry cause and her enlistment in the cause of prohibition reform.

MORRISON DONATES TO BAILEY FUNDS

Raleigh Candidate for Senate Lists Expenditures and Receipts Of $7,963.

Raleigh.—Josiah William Bailey, entering the semi-final of the championship match, reported expenditures for the senate, and Cameron Morrison, former governor, tops the William Gibbs McAdoo gift to the Simmons campaign by $1,000. Mr. Morrison chips in $2,000.

But the most significant of the contributions is the first in the list, as it was indeed the first to be made. Mrs. W. N. Jones, sister of Mr. Bailey, gave $100. The contribution will be a silencer. The subtlest campaign report of the season has been that representing Mrs. Jones as opposed to her brother. It is one of the 1928 carry-over. In that campaign, though Mrs. Jones' son, William Bailey Jones, was a red-hot Smith man coming and going, Mrs. Jones was advertised as a Hoover speaker. She did not speak and specifically declined to make any campaign addresses for either side. The inference was inevitable that she supported Mr. Simmons. She is not helping Mr. Hoover, who also supported Mr. Hoover by speech and advice. Her interest in her brother's cause will not be doubted longer.

McLean Was Missing. It is significant that while Governor Morrison puts in the Bailey fund one-fifth of that allowed for campaign expenditures, Governor A. W. McLean's name does not appear among the honors of the Simmons campaign. The Bailey men, however do not account this a favoring circumstance. They have rated from the very first the support of Mr. McLean to the Simmons cause as the most powerful prop the senator will have.

RUTHERFORD COUNTY CANDIDATES NAMED

No Dark Horses File in Contest. Light Vote Predicted in County.

From the Rutherford Sun.

The entry book closed at midnight Friday and one candidate, a Republican, arrived to file for the office of constable of Cool Springs township just ten minutes before it was too late, in other words at 11:50 p. m. The belated starter in the political races, to be run off on June 7, was John Lee Robertson. There were no dark horses entered at the last moment, though some wise politicians thought there might be.

The following is a list of candidates who filed for office. D indicates Democrat and R. is for Republican.
