

PASSING OF THREE MIGHTY WARRIORS

Capt. Ed Dickson, Deveney Parker And O. D. Price Are Extolled.

Editor Cleveland Star: This is meant as a recapitulation of events transpiring here within the last six months. In the first place Cleveland county has witnessed the passing of three remarkable veterans of the sacred Lost Cause; both as to longevity and accomplishments. The first to be garnered by the Grim Reaper was the lamented Captain Ed Dickson, who had corded up a record of approximately 97 mile posts. Whether as a military officer whose calm voice stilled his columns of intrepid followers in the roar and tumult of gory Gettysburg while his eagle eye directed their movements, or featuring as a successful father, directing church and S. S. activities; or active as soldier for his constituents at Raleigh; he was ever a serene success. Besides being a replica of Sir Gallahad on the bloody field of conflict, he was a soldier of the cross in the army of the Lord. When the final summons came he entered with lofty courage into the ebon approaches to the Valley of the Shadow. Captain Deveney Parker featured as the bravest of the brave in all experiences; but was not notable as a financier. But he never faltered in honor nor rectitude, nor was his life spent in whining nor repining. "Where the vanguard rests today the rear shall halt tomorrow," was ever his watchword in the grim realities of human life. While he left his good right arm at crimson Chickamauga, he saw the colors of the Southern Confederacy float above remnants of the enemy as he was borne from the bloody field; and his grim rule of action as applied to human opponent or a less tangible foe, was "You don't falter on your advance upon me or my works by reason of the arm I left at Chickamauga; but by reason of the strong left duke that is appended from my left shoulder." The last passenger of the Grim Ferryman was the late noted Major O. D. Price, the most versatile man of the three, and gifted in comparison with almost any body of men. He heard the roll call on the Shores of Immortality when his fading vision had witnessed the passing of more than 86 vernal seasons. A successful farmer, a skilled mechanic and gifted in eliciting dulcet notes from an inspiring fife even as the Pied Piper of Hamelin; he kept his face to the land of the morning and steadfastly waited till dreams came true. When the inimitable Bob Taylor of sunny Tennessee revived a vanished custom of the "old time singing," Major Oliver was an adept in the fading festival. They met to sing "treble," "tenor," "counter" and "bass," and scorned such helps as organs, pianos, violins and cornets. "Tenor" is now soprano; "treble" is present day tenor; while "counter" answers for baritone, alto and contralto. "Bass" is still a heavy rolling male voice, that, properly rendered, imparts a rolling melody like the lumbering thunder of distant, heavy artillery. When the tidings were circulated that Uncle Oliver Price was going to conduct an "old time singing," the clans of music lovers made that appointment their mecca. They came sometimes to scoff, but remained to sing. He blended the old customs with the new. Mrs. George A. Hoyle was then Miss Lucy Baber, and a cunning-fingered daughter of music in evoking melody from the piano grand. The late Bill Martin T. Green and other fiddlers with supple elbows, blended the dulcet note of violin; wit piano and vocal harmony; and the devotees of music were enraptured. If a man is a benefactor who causes two blades of grass to grow where one grew before, how much more of a philanthropist is the man who inspires melancholy mortals with tuneful raptures? M. L. WHITE.

Two Accidents At Grover On Sunday

(Special to The Star.)
Grover, June 3.—Mr. T. A. Adams, better known as "Uncle Antny" among his friends here in Grover where he spent most of his life, died in Dallas, last Friday. He had made his home at Dallas for several years. His funeral was held in the Grover Baptist church Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. W. G. Camp, of Cherryville, assisted by Rev. J. T. ## VOTE FOR

SAM BABER FOR SHERIFF
Put This Horny Handed, Open Minded Man With "Guts" In Office, And Everybody In Cleveland County Will Be Insured A Square Deal At The Court House.

Sam Baber belongs to Cleveland County from the sole of his muddy boots, to the crown of his old felt hat—knows these people from having been one of them for FORTY-SEVEN YEARS. He is now fifty-six, (at his best), a man of mature years, judgment and character—came to Shelby as a lad of nine, when the town was a straggling, unpainted hamlet, just a wide place in the road, and the county was rough, wild, and is one of those who worked and helped to make his home bailiwick the boast of the state. That's the man to put in office to represent you—an honest WORKER, a man who has STUCK and helped make his home place a BETTER PLACE.

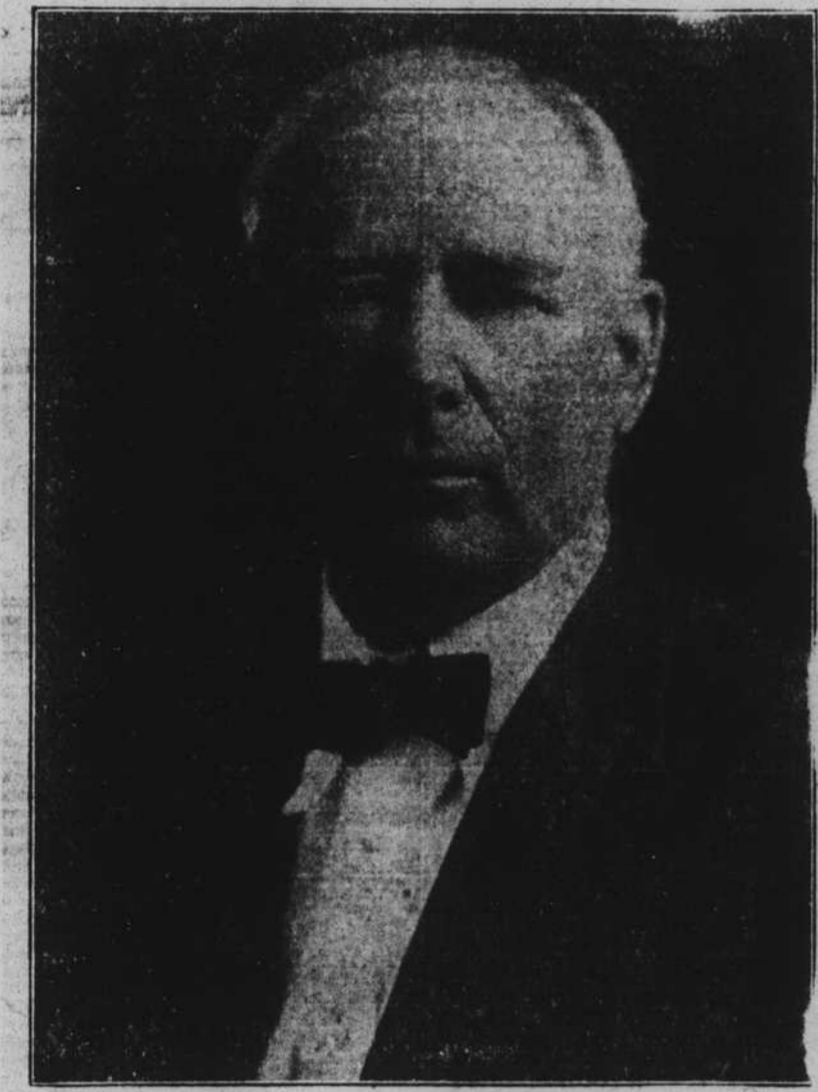

Sam is the Sheriff "type"—heavy set, square jawed, plain, earnest, confident—he has the look and air of authority. One look at him and you know you will get a square deal from him every day in the week, but he is the sort of many nobody trifles with.

Now, all you have to do to be sure that these dreadful germs will not infect a wound, is to wash that wound, however small, thoroughly with Liquid Borosone, the modern antiseptic.
