Bailey Defeats Simmons

Allen Wins; Two Second Races Likely

Allen Winner For Sheriff; Clear Majority

Present Sheriff Re-Nominated

Leads Marvin Blanton, Second Man, By 1,304 Votes, 567 Over Majority.

Irvin M. Allen, veteran law enforcement officer serving his first term as sheriff of Cleveland county, was the winner in the three-cornered race in Saturday's primary with a lead of 1,304 over Marvin Blanton, his nearest rival.

The Allen vote was 3,526; Blanton 2,222; Sam Baber 171.

A total of 5,919 votes was cast in this race, and the vote needed for a majority was 2,959. Allen's 3,526 gave him 567 votes more than was needed to assure there would not be a second primary.

The present sheriff's lead over Blanton was 1,304, and over both candidates 1,133.

In a notice appearing in today's paper, Mr. Allen expresses his appreciation for the support and urges Cleveland Democrats to rally together for a Democratic victory this fall.

Mrs. Pruett Is Heart Victim

Sister of C. C. and D. D. Hambright Dies While On Visit To Neighbor.

Mrs. Georgia Pruett, wife of G. Carl Pruett died at one o'clock Sunday morning while visiting at the home of a neighbor, Mrs. Charlotte Wright. She had started through a door when she fell dead from heart trouble.

Before marriage Mrs. Pruett was Miss Georgia Hambright. She was only 37 years of age and a fine Christian character, greatly beloved by her host of friends. Seven years ago she was married to Carl Pruett who survives with three daughters, Madge, Evelyn and Merle. Also surviving are four brothers, C. C. and D. D. Hambright of Shelby, H. L. Hambright of Kings Mountain, Bate Hambright of Clover, S. C. and one sister, Mrs. C. R. Goforth, of Kings Mountain. Mrs. Goforth was a twin sister of Mrs. Pruett.

Mrs. Pruett was the daughter of D. M. and Maggie Hambright who, it will be recalled, died within 48 hours of each other about a year ago. At the age of 14 years she joined Elizabeth Baptist church and remained a devoted Christian.

Funeral services were held this morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Davis and Rev. W. E. Lowe and interment was in the cemetery at Patterson Springs Baptist church.

IRVIN ALLEN

Edwards Winner For Legislature

Young Lawyer Defeats County Judge Kennedy By 500 Votes.

Henry B. Edwards, young Shelby attorney, is the Democratic nominee for county representative to the General Assembly.

In winning Edwards defeated Recorder Horace Kennedy by 581 votes in a race in which 5,779 votes were cast.

The vote was: Edwards—3,165; Kennedy—2,584.

Edwards carried 17 precincts and Kennedy nine in many of them, however, the vote was very close.

Dorothy McKnight Is Critically Ill

Miss Dorothy McKnight, the attractive and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. McKnight has been critically ill for several days at the Shelby hospital, suffering with a kidney trouble and complications which caused a breakdown in health while she was a student at the North Carolina College for Women at Greensboro. Her condition continues very grave with little hope for her recovery.

D. A. R. Meeting On Flag Day, Saturday

A postponed meeting of the local chapter Daughter of the American Revolution will be held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Woman's club rooms. It is announced by Mrs. Harry Speck. Saturday is national flag day and all merchants and business men are urged to cooperate by placing out their American flags.

Eastern Star Meet.

A meeting of the local Eastern Star chapter will be held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

County Boards Remain Intact; Young In Lead

County Board of Education And County Board of Commissioners Unchanged.

The county board of commissioners and the county board of education remain unchanged in personnel as a result of Saturday's primary. Charlie Reinhardt was seeking a place on the board of commissioners but was low man out of the four candidates for the three positions and was thus eliminated. A. E. Cline, R. L. Weathers, and Geo. Lattimore, incumbents, were re-nominated with R. L. Weathers leading the ticket in this race.

Unofficially the vote from the 26 precincts is reported to The Star as follows:

Weathers—4,619; Lattimore—4,254; Cline—3,574; Reinhardt—3,153.

Young Heads Ticket.

In the race for the five positions on the county board of education, A. L. Calton was eliminated, thus leaving the old board uninterrupted. Calton and Willis were both candidates from Lattimore, No. 7 township, hence their strength was split and these two men were low on this ticket.

C. S. Young, of Shelby, was honored with the highest vote any candidate received on the entire county ticket, receiving 4,867 votes. In this contest the unofficial vote stands:

Young—4,867; Hord—4,490; Ridenhour—4,312; Forney—4,223; Willis—3,513; Calton—3,223.

WILSON WARLICK

Weathers Wins Over Beam For County Judge

Maurice Weathers will be the next judge of the recorder's court, succeeding Horace Kennedy, as a result of the Saturday primary in which he won the nomination over his opponent, Speight Beam, by 1,602 votes.

According to unofficial figures the total vote for the 26 precincts of the county stands:

Weathers—3,612; Beam—1,910; Weathers majority 1,702. Weathers carried every precinct in the county by varying majorities.

Warlick Leads Judgeship Race; Falls In Second

Warlick Does Not Have Majority, But Falls Undecided On Second Race.

Attorney Wilson Warlick, of Newton, is the leader in the district race for the superior court judgeship, with Judge B. T. Falls running second in a four-cornered race.

At noon today, with only a few precincts missing in the entire district Warlick was ahead of Falls between 17 and 18 hundred votes. At that hour Judge Falls informed The Star that he had not as yet prepared a statement regarding a second contest, in view of the fact that Warlick did not have a majority, but said that he might make a statement during the afternoon.

The district vote with only four precincts not in was:

Warlick—7,937; Falls—6,176; Quickel—244; Yount—764.

In Cleveland county the vote was as follows:

Falls—4,245; Warlick—1,273; Quickel—344; Yount—107.

The vote in the other counties of the district was as follows: Lincoln—Quickel 2,517; Warlick 273; Falls 163; Yount 40.

Burke (one precinct out)—Warlick 3,224; Falls 1,026; Yount 62; Quickel 64.

Caldwell (one precinct out)—Warlick 742; Falls 671; Yount 95; Quickel 36.

Catawba (two precincts out)—Warlick 4,225; Falls 109; Yount 457; Quickel 36.

Bailey Wins By 60,000 Votes; Simmons Not To Run Independent

With Little More Than 200 Precincts Not Reported Bailey's Lead In State Is 61,905. Simmons Concedes Win, Ridicules Run As Independent.

Charlotte, June 9.—Josiah William Bailey, Raleigh attorney, defeated United States senator Furnifold M. Simmons, of New Bern for the Democratic nomination for senator on the basis of incomplete returns from Saturday's Democratic primary election.

JOSIAH W. BAILEY

He will be opposed in the November election probably by either George E. Butler, of Clinton, or George M. Pritchard, of Asheville, Republican.

Butler and Pritchard were leading on the face of scanty returns from the first statewide Republican primary ever held in North Carolina with Irving Tucker of Whiteville and H. Grady Dorsett, of Wake Forest receiving enough votes to prevent either getting a majority.

In the Democratic race 1,514 out of the state's 1,799 precincts gave Bailey a lead of 61,905 votes over Simmons and the veteran senator who has served his state at Washington for 29 years, admitted this afternoon that returns he had received indicated his defeat. The vote was Bailey 183,390; Simmons

County Rallies Behind Bailey

Total Vote In County 5,919

The total vote in Saturday's primary was slightly under 6,000 which is about in line with what John P. Mill, chairman of the county board of elections anticipated. Two years ago a total of over 7,500 votes were cast but a presidential race was on then and the senatorship was the best the election had to offer this year.

However, the largest vote was cast in the sheriff's race. In this contest 5,919 votes were deposited for the three candidates, Allen, Blanton and Baber. Next in interest seemed to be the race for U. S. senator in which 5,828 votes were cast.

Ideal weather prevailed for the primary throughout the county. It had rained on Friday and farm work was at a standstill and the industrial plants were idle.

Simmons Carries One Precinct, Grover, of 26 In County.

Cleveland county, North Carolina Democratic stronghold, reiterated a strong belief in party regularity Saturday by giving Josiah W. Bailey almost a two and one-half to one vote over his opponent, Furnifold M. Simmons, for the Democratic nomination to the United States senate.

The veteran senator carried only one precincts of the 26 voting precincts in the county. That precinct was Grover and his lead over Bailey there was only one vote. Simmons received 86 votes there to Bailey's 76.

Senatorial Vote.

The senatorial vote was: Bailey—4,105; Simmons—1,666; Estep—57.

The Bailey lead over Simmons in the county was 2,439, and over both Simmons and Estep the Raleigh man's lead was 2,382.

Good Predictions.

The outcome, as far as this county was concerned, was pretty much in line with advance predictions. Cleveland was one of the counties in Piedmont and Western Carolina to stick entirely to the Democratic ticket in 1928, and on Saturday the voters of the county re-affirmed their Democratic convictions in no uncertain terms. They said it with ballots, and thereby classified Cleveland as one of the outstanding Bailey counties and Democratic strongholds in the state.

Prior to the voting it was estimated that the towns of the county would show the greatest Bailey strength with the rural sections of the county leaning to Simmons. But such was not the case. Rural precincts tossed, in proportion to size a vote for Bailey every time the towns did.

It was pretty well known before the final check-up came in that Cleveland was a strong Bailey county, for as the early reports were announced over the amplifier to the hundreds milling in front of The Star building, the gathered throng cheered lustily every Bailey announcement.

Second Primary For Congress Is Likely

A. L. BULWINKLE

All indications today point to a second primary to determine the Democratic congressional nominee for the ninth district with Major A. L. Bulwinkle, of Gastonia, former congressman, and Attorney Hamilton C. Jones, of Charlotte, as the contestants.

At 12 o'clock today Bulwinkle was slightly ahead in the district as a whole but the margin between him and Jones so close that neither was a decisive winner with Dr. Sams, the third candidate having a fair vote.

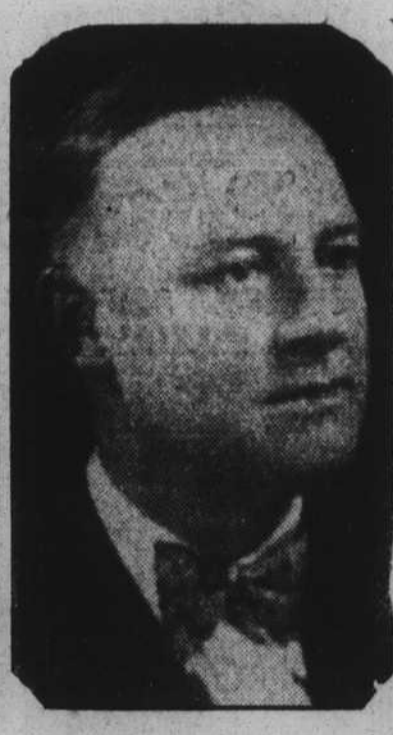

With 237 precincts of the 247 in the district reported at noon today the vote, according to Charlotte information, was:

Bulwinkle—17,786; Jones—17,199; Sams—2,211.

The ten precincts yet to report will not change the vote enough to give either Jones or Bulwinkle a majority.

Cleveland's Vote.

In Cleveland county Mr. Jones ran slightly ahead of Major Bulwinkle. The congressional vote complete in this county was:

H. C. JONES

Jones—2,871; Bulwinkle—2,615; Sams—286.

Throughout the entire county the vote was pretty well divided between the two leading contestants.

Bulwinkle's heavy strength in the district as a whole came from his home county of Gaston, while Mecklenburg was equally faithful to Jones, Mecklenburg's own candidate. It was very much a stand-off between the two candidates as far as the remaining counties in the district was concerned.

Roscoe Lutz Wins Coroner's Contest

Shelby Undertaker Wins Nomination From Squire Sylvanus Gardner.

Mr. Roscoe E. Lutz, Shelby undertaker, will in all likelihood succeed Squire T. Cline Eskridge as coroner of Cleveland county. He won the Democratic nomination Saturday from Squire Sylvanus Gardner.

The vote was: Lutz—3,963; Gardner—1,604.

Official Canvas Of Votes Tuesday

Tuesday is the day for the official canvass of the votes in the 26 precincts in the county. Election officials will bring their returns and the exact results tabulated. There may have been some errors in the returns as received by The Star, but these returns were gathered with as much accuracy as possible over rural telephone lines, but it is thought the official count will not up-set the standing of any candidate.

The Star will endeavor to publish a tabulation of the various precincts in its Wednesday's issue.

One Man Killed When Car Strikes Grover Automobile

Mrs. C. F. Harry, Mr. And Mrs. Hambright of Grover And Children Hurt.

Fay Green of near Ellenboro was instantly killed and eight others were injured in an automobile wreck at Forest City Sunday morning at 4:15, when two cars ran headon into each other. Green, who was driving a coach, was injured to such extent that he never regained consciousness, dying at the hospital. He was accompanied by two other young men, Earl Burgess and Bill Taylor, both of Spindale, who were slightly injured.

Grover People Hurt.

There were six in the other car, Mr. and Mrs. Hambright of Grover, and their three children, Mary Frances, Edna and Robert Hambright and Mrs. C. F. Harry, all of Grover. The Grover people were en route to Marshall and it is said that the car driven by Green, who was killed, ran into the Grover car after Mr. Hambright had pulled to the side of the road, trying to get out of his way. Two ambulances were called after the crash and the injured rushed to the Rutherford hospital for medical attention. Burgess, after his wound were dressed, was arrested but released on bond.

This morning Mrs. Harry was reported as not doing so well. She was internal injured and suffered a hemorrhage. Ed Hambright is cut in the head and face, his left arm broken and a knee out of place. Two of the children are cut about the face and head. One child escaped unhurt. All have been discharged from the hospital except Mrs. Harry

Newton Lacks 62 Votes Having Majority In Solicitor's Race

Gardner Has No Statement About Run-Off Until He Checks Official Vote.

J. Clint Newton, according to the unofficial tabulation lacked 62 votes of having a majority in the three-cornered county solicitor's race in Saturday's primary, and it is not definitely known as yet if there will be a run-off race between him and Solicitor P. Cleveland Gardner.

The unofficial vote was: Newton—2856; Gardner—2380; Pat McBrayer—590.

Newton's lead over Gardner by this count was 466 votes. A total of 5,836 votes was cast in the contest and this requires 2,918 votes, or 62 more than Newton received for a majority.

At one o'clock today Mr. Gardner said that for several reasons he had not as yet decided whether he would go into a second race. He will wait, he added, until he can check the official figures in the race. The county board of elections is working today upon the official figures, but the board is totalling the State races first and did not have the official county figures ready at press time for The Star.

A second race may also depend, it is surmised, upon whether or not there will be other second races.

Bob Kendrick Wins Constable Contest

Bob Kendrick, one of the county's most widely known officers, is the Democratic nominee for constable in No. 6 township, in a race that attracted considerable interest Saturday considering that it was a township race. He led his nearest opponent, Pink E. Lackey, by around 230 votes.

The vote was: Bob Kendrick—1,308; Pink Lackey—1,076; C. H. Simpson—103.
