

LOCAL SCOUTS AT PIEDMONT CAMP

Over 100 Scouts at Lake Lanier This Week. Belwood, Lawndale and Shelby Boys Present.

(By Alvin Propst.)

Belwood, Aug. 14.—Boy Scouts of Belwood troop No. 1 recently spent one week at the Piedmont Boy Scout camp, which is located at Lake Lanier, near Tryon.

There were over 100 scouts in camp the week we were there, from the different counties which make up the Piedmont council. Cleveland county was well represented at camp during this week, having as its representatives: Troop No. 1 of Belwood, troop No. 1 of Lattimore, troop No. 1 of Lawndale and a few scouts from Shelby who were staying over or several weeks.

Over 100 merit badges were awarded at the weekly court of honor which is held each Friday night.

Some of the awards being to members of the Belwood troop were: Senior Red Cross living saving to Scoutmaster J. Alvin Propst and to assistant Scoutmaster Dickson Willis. The merit badge for swimming was awarded to assistant Scoutmaster Luther Houser and Scouts Wayne Carpenter and J. A. Hubbard.

Mr. H. A. Dabbs, national scout camp inspector, with headquarters at Atlanta, Ga., spent three days inspecting the camp while we were there. He pronounced the camp to be in good condition and gave it a very high rating.

Every scout should begin to plan now to spend at least one week in camp next summer.
