Cotton Market

Cotton quoted at noon today southern delivery Oct. 10.93, Dec. 11.10, yesterdays' close, Oct. 11.94, Dec. 11.13.

Raining at Macon on last night's map 14 recorded at Fort Worth, maximum temperatures 104 at Abilene, 96 at Fort Worth 92, at Oklahoma City, forecast West Texas, fair, east Texas unsettled, south portion, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, fair, Georgia, showers. South Carolina, part cloudy.

Dallas News this a. m. says this week saw further deterioration of the Texas crop with the bulk of the state reporting present prospects below average. Only 33 counties, mostly in south, southeast, and lower central Texas reported crop as average or above. Weeks dains largely negligible and of benefit on a few scattered localities. Extreme temperatures induced further shedding of squares and small bolls and causing premature opening effect a general rain is a subject of a dispute as it would damage grades in south Texas where bolls are practically all open. Oklahoma prospects below average. Worth Street reports 12-000,000 yards prints cloths sold in past 60 days in addition to other sales of moderate proportions. Market was strengthened by news from south that prospects for a shut down for entire month of Sept. were brighter stop. Rallies continue to meet hedge selling.

Living Descendants Of Hugh Borders

each of the ten children of Maj. Borders, giving names with dates of births, marriages, and deaths, up to and including the fifth generation. The total descendants of Maj. Hugh Borders and wife to date are as follows: children, 10; grand-children, 58; great-grandchildren, 118; great-great-grandchildren, 88; and great-great-great grandchildren, 3; grand total, 277. Of these, 30 have died, leaving 247 still living. In addition, the history covers 117 "in-laws" and 16 other persons.

The principal address of the occasion was delivered by Hon. Grady Gaston, of Gastonia, a grandson of the common ancestor. His subject was, "A Review of the Past and an Appeal for the Future of the Borders Family." It was an excellent speech worthy of the man and the occasion.

Dr. Black President.

The officers of the organization for the next year were elected as follows: president, Dr. H. R. Black, of Spartanburg, S. C.; honorary president, Mr. William Borders, of Blacksburg, S. C.; the sole surviving son of Maj. Borders; secretary, J. H. Quinn, Shelby; assistant secretary, Mrs. J. Emmett Plaxico, of Blacksburg, S. C.; and treasurer, Mr. O. Forrest Austell, Earl.

Antioch Baptist church, three miles east of Grover, was selected as the place for the next annual reunion, the exact time to be fixed by the president. The committee appointed last year were continued. A beautiful picnic dinner, consisting of everything that appeals to the inner man, was served on a 100-foot table in the beautiful grove. The committee provided an abundance of ice cold water and lemonade.

The meeting was largely attended. In addition to those present from Shelby and Cleveland county there were many present from surrounding towns and cities, including Blacksburg, Gaffney, Spartanburg, and Greenville, S. C., and Gastonia, Belmont, Bessemer City, and Charlotte, N. C. It was a most delightful occasion, a meeting and greeting of relatives and old friends and the forming of new acquaintances. While this was the second reunion of this clan, it is fully settled that, so long as this generation lives at least, the annual reunions will be a fixture and it is believed that future generations will carry them on.

The committee in charge of this reunion desire to extend their thanks and highest appreciation to the Campbell Department store, Lutz and Jackson Funeral home, and to D. A. Beam and sons for courtesies extended on this occasion.

Three Wanted In Row Wednesday

a short distance from Zora church. A fight, it is said, soon developed between one of the older Rice boys and one of the older Putnam boys. Within a short time the other Rice boy, the father of Putnam, one grown brother and a younger brother joined in.

It was a battle, reports say, that raged in full fury until practically all participants were laid out in one manner or another or became too tired to battle longer.

Fists, knives, scantlings, or sticks, were the main weapons employed.

David Rice's skull was caved in on the left rear side from a blow with a stick or scantling and his skull fractured. Clarence Rice was cut about the head and also suffered a concussion from what appeared to be a blow on the head, according to hospital surgeons. Gordon Putnam was severely cut about the head, face and hands, one gash running for quite a distance across the head and neck near an ear. The elder Putnam and the other boys were not severely injured, officers say.

The two Rices and Gordon Putnam were taken to the hospital, where surgeons had quite a rush for some time in treating their injuries. Gordon Putnam was able to return home Wednesday night. Clarence Rice left the hospital yesterday, being kept over the night, surgeons say, so that a slight concussion of the head might be treated.

A preliminary hearing for the participants in the fray was set for the county court docket today, but since David Rice is still in the hospital the hearing will not likely be held until he is considerably improved and able to attend.

This morning, Dr. Sam Schenck, hospital surgeon, stated that "Rice is getting along as well as could be expected. It was necessary to remove a piece of skull about the size of a nickel."

Gin Prices Cut In Georgia Cotton Belt

Cochran, Ga.—The cotton gins have reduced the price of ginning cotton from 50 cents per hundred to 40 cents per hundred, or from $2.50 to $2 per 500-pound bale. A group of farmers held a meeting here recently and went on record as favoring the reduction. The price paid for picking cotton also was fixed at this meeting. The price agreed upon was 50 cents per hundred pounds. Various prices were paid by the farmers here last year for picking and it is the aim of the farmers who participated in this meeting to have a uniform price for the entire county if possible.

W. H. Wall To Open Revival On Sunday

Rev. Wilbur H. Wall, of Shelby, who closed a big tent meeting at Marion last week, will open his tent revival Sunday afternoon in north Henrietta, he announces.
