

Things I See, Or Things I Read About

T. W. HARRICK
San Francisco, Cal.

A very large and handsome church in San Francisco, has a sign on side of door "You are invited to join us in prayer every Thursday evening—all colors admitted."

Have just found out that the nurse who gives me treatments at the hospital, is the doctor's wife. Haven't been quite so talkative since.

I appreciate all the unsigned letters I receive, expressing love and good wishes, however I would enjoy them a little bit more, if you would put your names at the bottom.

Found 25 cents on the streets of San Francisco, for which I can get a nickel's worth of most anything I want.

Lid Lifted on Ewald Case

A sweeping State inquiry into the reputed general practice of buying and selling New York City judgeships is forecast as Governor Roosevelt (lower) directed the Attorney-General to supersede District-Attorney Crain (right), of New York, and Supreme Court Justice Phillip McCook (left) to convene court for extraordinary trial on the charge that $12,000 was paid to secure the appointment of ex-Magistrate George F. Ewald. (International Newsreel)
