Portrait In Pen And Ink.

He'll find her heart a smooth, suburban lawn
Where no intrusive weed presumes to grow,
Where any spear of grass that dares to show
A head above its fellows is cut down.
Straight, neatly weeded paths will lead him on
To goals assured. No little, winding way
Will tempt his too adventuring feet to stray
Beyond trim boundaries already known.
In proper beds, at proper intervals,
The proper flowers will ornament the green;
The world will be shut out by ivied walls,
And all within, well ordered and serene.
But will this neat enclosure hold a lover
Whom jesting fate has fashioned for a rover?
—Roselle Mercier Montgomery in New York Times.

The Louise English circle with Miss Lucille Nix at 4 o'clock.

Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Entertained.

The members of the Tuesday afternoon bridge club were charmingly entertained on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Gerald Morgan as the gracious hostess. Ruby colored crystal bud vases filled with flowers centered each of the four tables and bowls of roses and other flowers decorated the room in which the tables were placed. Contract bridge was played during the afternoon and when the scores were added Mrs. Oliver Anthony was found to be the fortunate winner of high score prize and Mrs. Hal Schenck received the prize for low score.
A delicious salad course with punch was served by the hostess with Mrs. Fred Morgan and Mrs. B. O. Stephenson assisting.
Mrs. A. L. Minor, of Washington, D. C., sister of the hostess, and Misses Agnes and Ruby McBrayer were special guests of the club on this occasion. Mrs. McBrayer presented Mrs. Minor with a beautiful pair of silk hose as guest prize.

PERSONAL—

Mr. Grover C. Hamrick left for Albany, Ga., Wednesday morning after a ten days visit to his mother, Mrs. M. N. Hamrick.
Mrs. N. W. Pyle, of Charlotte, has been spending the past few days with her daughter, Mrs. John Schenck, jr., and Mr. Schenck. Mrs. Schenck and two children will return home with her today to spend the week-end.

Meeting Of No. 2 Afternoon Division.

The afternoon division No. 2 of the Woman's club met on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at the club room with Mesdames J. C. Smith, L. B. Hayes and Hugh Arrowood as hostesses. The meeting was opened with a business session presided over by the chairman, Miss Elizabeth Ebeltoft. After the business session the program was turned over to the leader, Mrs. Z. J. Thompson, and the subject for the afternoon was Knut Hamsun. A "Biographical Study of Knut Hamsun" was given in an interesting paper by Mrs. Horace Grigg. Miss Elizabeth Ebeltoft gave an excellent review of "The Growth of the Soil," and Mrs. Z. J. Thompson reviewed Selma Lagerlof—"Gosta Burling." Two songs were sung by Mr. Dale Katter, and Miss Annie Ruth Dellinger gave two readings.

Special guests of the club were Mesdames L. U. Arrowood, Lamar Gidney and Hugh Miller.
The hostesses served delicious sandwiches and tea.

Evening Division Met Last Evening.

The evening division of the Woman's club held an interesting meeting at the club room on Thursday evening with Mrs. Mary E. Yarbrough and Miss Elizabeth Alexander as hostesses. A brief business session was conducted by the chairman, Miss Carobel Lever, after which the program was turned over to the leader for the evening, Miss Lucille Nix. The first number on the program was a piano solo played by Miss Mamie Roberts. A paper on "Aircraft," written by Mrs. DeYoung, was read by Mrs. Roy Newman. Mrs. Jessie Ramseur, a guest of the club on this occasion, told in a most interesting manner some of the facts in the life of Commander Byrd. Miss Elizabeth Roberts gave an interesting account of her visit to the ship, in which Commander Byrd made his trip to Little America, while it was in dock at New York City this summer.
Mesdames C. B. Alexander, Jessie Ramseur, Charles Hoey, J. L. Blanton and Misses Mary Crowell and Stella Murchison were special guests of the club.
The hostesses served sandwiches and tea.

Cecelia Music Club Meets.

The Cecelia music club enjoyed a most delightful meeting on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. W. C. Harris as hostess at her lovely home on N. LaFayette street. The meeting was called to order and conducted by the president, Mrs. John Schenck, jr. The meeting was opened with a short business session during which the roll was called and minutes read by the secretary, Mrs. W. B. Nix. The business was followed by choral practice.
The subject of study for the afternoon was "The Music of France." An interesting paper on this subject was read by Mrs. C. B. Suttle. A group of instrumental solos, beautifully rendered followed: "Au Matin" by Gounad, played by Mrs. DeWitt Quinn; "Funeral March of a Marionette" by Gounad, played by Mrs. Earl Hamrick; "Habenera" by Bizet, played by Mrs. Will Arey. Mrs. Thad Ford sang "Elegie," by Massenet. Mrs. John Schenck, jr., delighted the group with a violin solo, and Mrs. Dwight Houser, a visiting artist, also played a violin solo.
After the program a social half hour was enjoyed during which Mrs. Harris was assisted by Mrs. Heywood Hull, Mrs. Herbert Wilsniant, and Misses Sara and Amanda Harris in serving a delicious salad plate with accessories.

Marion P. T. A. Holds Meeting.

The Parent-Teachers association of the Marion school held its first regular meeting of the fall on Wednesday afternoon at 3:15. The meeting was called to order and presided over by the president, Mrs. Tom Gold. The second grade, in charge of Mrs. Jimmy Blanton had charge of the program for the afternoon, which consisted of several musical numbers given by the children of this grade. After the conclusion of this part of the program the minutes were read and the roll was called by grades. Mrs. Blanton's room received the prize for having the largest number of parents present. Committees were appointed and grade mothers were elected as follows: First grade, under Miss Cornwell. Mrs. William Andrews; 1st grade, under Miss Annie Hamrick, Mrs. A. F. Champion; 2nd grade, under Mrs. J. L. Blanton, Mrs. H. N. McDiarmid; 2nd and 3rd grades, under Miss Mary Crowell, Mrs. R. D. Crowder; 3rd grade under Mrs. Edd McCurry, Mrs. Louis Forney; 4th grade under Miss Minnie Eddins Roberts, Mrs. J. C. McNeely; 5th grade under Miss Lucy Hamrick, Mrs. C. H. Hardin; 6th grade, under Miss Alpha Gettys, Mrs. V. D. Ross; 7th grade, under Miss Nettie Mull, Mrs. M. C. Putnam. Following this election of grade mothers, Miss Cornwell gave a talk on the duties of the grade mother, and Supt. B. L. Smith also made a short talk.
The group decided to sponsor a picture, in co-operation with the other Parent-Teacher associations of the town, during education week, on October 18. After the conclusion of all business the meeting was adjourned.

Methodist Business Woman's Circle To Meet.

The Business Woman's circle of the Central Methodist church will meet on Monday evening at 7:45 at the home of Mrs. Walter Panning with Mrs. Dale Katter and Mrs. J. T. Beason acting as hostesses.

Miss Theo Jarrett Celebrates Birthday.

Little Miss Theo Jarrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jarrett, celebrated her ninth birthday last Friday afternoon with a delightful party from 4 to 5:30 o'clock at the home of her parents on W. Warren street. About thirty of her little friends were invited. The young hostess received her guests in a yellow crepe de chine frock with yellow bow of ribbon in her hair.
The children enjoyed games on the lawn for an hour after which they were served ice cream, cake and candy. The little hostess received a number of lovely gifts.
Mrs. Jarrett was assisted by Mrs. R. G. Freeman and Mrs. B. M. Jarrett in entertaining her daughter's guests.

Piano Recital At Cherryville.

Mrs. Ruth Rankin Rutherford, of Atlanta, gave a piano recital at Cherryville on Thursday evening, which proved an unusual treat to music lovers of this section. Mrs. Rutherford, who is a niece of Mrs. B. L. Smith, is one of the South's finest musicians, having won all the honors in music which can be bestowed by musical organizations in the South Atlantic states. She has held a fellowship in the Julliard school of music in New York City for five years, where she studied under Madame Olga Smaroff. This is an honor which has rarely been accorded students of music at this school.
Among the Shelby people who had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Rutherford last evening were Mesdames B. L. Smith, Hugh Plaster, W. B. Nix, Mary Helen Lattimore, and Rush Thompson.
Mrs. Rutherford spent last night here with Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Smith.
