At The Theaters

"Animal Crackers" opened this afternoon at the Carolina, for a two-day run. Groucho Marx, the much lauded captain from the African jungles, creates many problems for the host of his social reception. Occasionally he solves a problem, but more often he only finds a solution... an falls in it. The stars of "Cocoanuts" are partners in pandemonium. Wednesday—another picture in keeping with Laugh Week—Slim Summerville in "Troopers Three."

The Webb is opening the week with a bit of fun and football in "College Lovers" starring Mariat, Nixon and Jack Whiting. Three fellows and a girl create a new situation in this picture. The ending does not come as expected, with the hero winning the football game. It's different, and it's funny, too. In today's advertisement columns the Webb is announcing a list of select film releases to be played in the near future. Among these new pictures are "Dixiana," "Whoopee."

$10 IN GOLD FREE

WHAT IT'S ABOUT

A prize of $10 in gold will be given to the person submitting the most complete list of "wise cracks" after seeing the Marx Brothers' comedy, "Animal Crackers," at the Carolina theatre next Monday and Tuesday, October 13 and 14.

HERE'S HOW—

See "Animal Crackers" and make a list of as many wise cracks as you can remember from the picture.

Use just enough wording to identify each laugh line as it is spoken in the picture.

The list must be arranged (as nearly as possible) in the order the gags appear in the story. The wording, however, need not be the same as that spoken by the actors. Number the laugh lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and so on.

Write your list on a sheet of white paper, seal it in an envelope and deposit it in the "Animal Crackers Laugh Contest Box" in the lobby of the Carolina Theatre. Give name and address complete.

THE CONTEST CLOSES THURSDAY NIGHT
OCTOBER 16, AT 9 O'CLOCK.

The $10 Prize Will Be Awarded
Friday Night, October 17, At The Theatre.

EVERYBODY IS ELIGIBLE TO
