

Chiefs of U. of California

Retiring President W. W. Campbell, left, of the University of California (Berkeley) is shown wishing his successor, Robert G. Sproul, "best of luck." Lauded by world-known educators, Dr. Robert G. Sproul was formally installed as president of the university. The installation followed a procession from the Sproul, "best of luck." Lauded by world-known educators, Dr.

LOCAL and PERSONAL News

Mrs. Henry Kendall left yesterday for Danville, Va., to visit relatives for a week and be with her son Mr. Henry Kendall who leaves the last of this week for Shanghai, China, to be gone a year. He will be connected with a large export tobacco firm of Danville, Va., which maintains a foreign office in Shanghai.

Misses Ruth Blanton and Inez McLaurin, both of Charlotte, were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Yates McSwain.

Messrs. Graham Anthony, of Hartford, Connecticut, and John Anthony, of Baltimore, are at home this week, having arrived Sunday to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. J. A. Anthony, which took place Monday.

Mrs. G. F. Lane and infant daughter, who was born at the Shelby hospital on November 5, were able to leave the hospital on Sunday and go to the home of Mrs. Lane's parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Elam, in the Dover Mill village. Mrs. Lane was formerly Miss Bright Lane. She and Mr. Lane are at present making their home at Franklinton.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Smith went to Rutherfordton on Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mrs. Ross Hill, who died in a Philadelphia hospital last Thursday. She was formerly Miss Fannie Justice and a native of Rutherfordton.

Miss Mary Faye Penninger, who has been making her home in Gastonia with a brother recently, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Julian Thompson, and Mr. Thompson.

Miss Myrtle Harris of Waynesville, spent the week-end here with friends at the hospital.

Governor and Mrs. O. Max Gardner, of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Bate Gardner, Miss Sara Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gardner and children, all of Gastonia, and Mrs. Jake Alexander and Miss Nell Young, of Forest City, were here Monday to attend the funeral of their relative, Mrs. J. A. Anthony.

Miss Gertrude Taylor, a member of the high school faculty, spent the week-end with relatives in Rutherfordton.

The many friends of Miss Myrtle Warren, who has visited Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hoye here on many occasions, will be distressed to learn that she has been quite ill with diphtheria. Her condition is reported as somewhat improved at present.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Dellinger, Misses Faye and Vivian Dellinger, and Dr. R. Dellinger, Jr., spent Sunday in Gastonia with Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Caldwell.

Mrs. H. T. Bess is in the hospital where she had her tonsils removed this morning. She is doing well after the operation.

Mrs. Hugh Miller, Jr., and Mrs. J. C. Smith are spending today in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Arey and Mr. and Mrs. Will Arey left this morning for Lakeland, Fla., where Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Arey will spend the remainder of the winter, the others will return home in about two weeks.

Mrs. Julius Suttle, Miss Betty Suttle and Mrs. Will Lineberger are spending today in Asheville.

Mr. Lewis B. Forney left this morning for Charlotte where he will visit his brother, Mr. J. A. Forney, and Mrs. Forney. Later he will go on to Richmond to visit his sister, Mrs. Will Charlton, and Mr. Charlton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoye are spending today in Charlotte.

Mr. D. Augustus Beam accompanied his daughter, Mrs. Kemp Fungerburk, and her daughter, Nancy Beam, of Monroe, left Monday for Raleigh where they will spend this week with relatives. They will attend the wedding of Mr. Robert Beam to Miss Lina Mangum at Wake Forest on Friday.

Womanless Wedding At Polkville School

On Saturday night, Nov. 22, at 7:30 o'clock an entertainment consisting of a "Womanless Wedding" and a Husband's convention will be given at Polkville high school. This production provides a variety of entertainment for both old and young. It is a riot of laughter from beginning to end. However there is a serious side to this production. The proceeds will go to the athletic department to help pay for new balls, uniforms and other necessary expenses.

Health Nurse Finding Many Pupils Unfit

Finds Numerous Children In School Here With Physical Defects.

Miss Cora Beam, nurse from the state board of health, continues to find many children in the local schools who are physically defective. During her first week she examined 501 children in the South Shelby and LaFayette schools. There are 385 of them defective in some particular.

A complete itemized listing follows: Nutrition 50, posture 8, vision 64, teeth 218, throat 320, orthopedic 6, skin 4, other 13.

Her work the second week was in the LaFayette and Graham schools. She examined 391 children and found 300 defective. The number defective under the various classifications is given below:

Nutrition 48, posture 3, hearing 2, vision 56, teeth 161, throat 238, skin 4, other 5.

Already a number of parents have taken steps to make corrections. It is hoped that every family will do likewise. Immediate attention may save permanent impairment of health.

Young's Jewelry Runs Auction Sale

The first jewelry auction sale of a week's series was held last night at Young's Jewelry store, on LaFayette street, with a large attendance of bidders. The crowds came early, before the doors opened at seven-thirty, and the sale continued with lively bidding until after ten o'clock. The sale is being conducted by Max Rauch, licensed and bonded auctioneer.

There will be two sales daily, 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

FALLSTON NEWS OF CURRENT WEEK

Miss Royster Entertains Y. W. A. Home Economics Club To Meet Friday.

(Special to The Star.) Fallston, Nov. 19.—The Y. W. A. of Fallston Baptist church met with Miss Roberta Royster Saturday night at 7:30. A very interesting program was rendered after which delicious candy, cake and hot chocolate were served. A large crowd was present and the members will meet with Miss Nellie Stamey next time.

Miss Bertha Willis, student nurse at Rutherfordton spent the week-end with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Willis and father, Mr. M. R. Willis.

Messrs. Woodrow Morris and Lloyd Morgan, students at High Point college spent the week-end here with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hoyle and little daughter, Ruth, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Royster Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Sweezy and sons and Miss Minnie Royster attended the birthday dinner given Mrs. Ida Allen at her home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Bowen and family of Double Shoals were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Royster Sunday.

Mrs. P. O. Ross and daughter Miss Laura Ross are spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jenkins at Lattimore.

Miss Nathalie Lackey came home from High Point college Monday afternoon to attend the funeral of her uncle Dr. F. H. Lackey.

Mrs. C. A. Biggerstaff and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Baxter.

Mr. and Mrs. Odus Falls was a Charlotte visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Coyt Tillman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Carpenter at Casar.

Miss Rhea Lattimore spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lattimore near Polkville.

Mrs. Ida Allen of Shelby spent Sunday night with her sister, Mrs. Tom Sweezy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogburn Lutz of Shelby visited Mr. and Mrs. Max Boggs Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Moore and children of Rutherfordton and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hoyle and children and Mrs. Laura Hoyle were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Lee Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Royster visited Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Ross Sunday.

The home economics club will meet Friday afternoon at the club room at 2 o'clock. Officers will be elected for the coming year and other important business will be attended to. All members are urged to be present.

Delight Community News Of Week-End

Mrs. Ledford Home From Hospital. Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. White In Hospital.

(Special to The Star.) Delight, Nov. 18.—We are glad to have Rev. J. M. Barber back on Polkville circuit again.

Mrs. Enoch Ledford is at home again after being in the Shelby hospital for a few weeks.

Miss Mattie Lee Ledford was the dinner guest of Miss Inez Ledford. Mrs. Tom Jenkins and also Mrs. Clem White are in the Shelby hospital at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ramsey and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Queen and also Mrs. C. F. Ramsey spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Ledford.

Miss Annie Turner is ill at this writing.

Miss Pearl Sweezy and her mother from Lawndale spent Sunday morning with Mrs. Enoch Ledford.

Waco Wins Second Game Of Season

The Waco high school boys captured the second basket ball game of the season Tuesday by defeating the Piedmont outfit by a score of 15 to 21.

The line-up for Waco was: Howell and Cline, forwards; Smith, center; Goforth and Stroup, guards; Howell and Cline were the leading scorers.

Fiddlers To Play At Waco Friday

There will be a fiddler's convention at the Waco high school Friday night, Nov. 21st at 7:30 p. m. Several attractive cash prizes will be offered; prizes for the best string band, violinist, best entertainer, etc., will be given.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend and enjoy an evening of delightful entertainment.

A small admission will be charged for all except competing musicians.

There is probably little truth in the story that a man on Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, recently yelled "Oh, commissioner!" and nine men stopped.—Louisville Times.

Among the other old-fashioned things that need a new definition to bring them into harmony with the times, is the term "securities."—Norfolk Virginian-Pilot.

Mt. Sinai News of Late Happenings

Party At Miss Jackson's Teachers Meeting Friday. Personal Mention.

(Special to The Star.) Shelby R-2, Nov. 18.—Our regular teachers meeting will be held at church next Friday night at seven o'clock. Each teacher is urged to attend and all visitors are welcome.

Miss Bessie Moore of South Shelby returns to her home Wednesday after spending two weeks with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Harrill.

Mrs. Clarence Self and son, Jean, were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Champion last Wednesday.

Mr. J. D. Branton arrived from Hagerstown, Md., last Tuesday to spend a while with relatives.

Miss Ida Humphries of Beaver Dam is spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Ellis this week.

Mrs. Cecil Baber of Shelby spent Sunday night with Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Putnam. She was accompanied home Monday by Miss Edna Putnam who will visit her for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Blackburn of Lawndale were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bridges over the week-end.

Mr. Mal Hopper of Shelby visited relatives in the community last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Weaver and Miss Norine Rollins were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Rollins Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Hawkins and son of Shelby were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hawkins last Friday night.

Among those who attended a party at Miss Sara Jackson's of the Patterson Springs community Saturday night were: Misses Eunice and Ruby Rippey, Messrs. Hugh Conley, Wayne Hunt, Gay and Arvil Putnam.

Miss Ruth Hunt spent the day Sunday with her sister Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Rollins.

Mr. Taft Putnam of High Point was the guest of his parents over the week-end.

Messrs. Miller Ellis and Gay Putnam were callers in Cliffside Friday morning.

Mrs. Evans Bostic, Miss Buna Rollins and Mr. John Rollins spent Friday in Spartanburg, S. C. shopping.

The month's palm goes to the one, whoever he may be, who referred to overoptimistic bulletins from the government departments as "Polly-ananias."—Detroit News.

Wealthy Victim of Stock Shark

Incredulity of the fact that she has been swindled is revealed in the expression of Miss Mary Hotchkiss, wealthy New England spinster, as the glaring facts are explained to her by Deputy Attorney-General Colanese. Walter Miller, high-pressure stock salesman, is being held on a charge of defrauding her.

Webb Theatre "EXTRA-EXTRA-SPECIAL"

4 Big Days Wed.-Thur.-Fri. and Saturday

Here They Are

In Their First Feature Motion Picture

AMOS 'N' ANDY

in DOUBLE CHECK

- Admission -
MATINEE 15c - 30c
NIGHT 15c - 40c

Show Starts Promptly At One O'Clock, Running Continuously Until 11 O'Clock.

SPECIAL NOTICE — We Will Have A Kiddies Matinee Saturday Morning at 10 O'Clock. Admission Will be 10c To All Children Under 10 Years Of Age.

— COME EARLY FOR SEATS —

Webb Theatre

What the New Victor R-15 brings you:

- 1 Screen Grid!
- 2 Gets the station you want...anytime...separate from all others.
- 3 Famous Victor Tone... that only a man-sized Victor can give.
- 4 Compact... space saving... easily moved.
- 5 Exquisite fashioned cabinet.
- 6 All plus... Victor master craftsmanship and dependability... at a revolutionary low price!

A VICTOR RADIO

at $112.50

(Less Radiotron)

Backed by the guarantee of the Victor name . . .

THEY come in curious, skeptical... they are thrilled, astounded. The New Victor Radio R-15 is not just another radio... but it brings Victor quality within the very low price-range. Only Victor resources and Victor musical experience could do it.

Yes... here is man-sized Victor Performance, Tone, Quality... big enough for New Victor acoustical perfection... compact enough for any corner... light enough to shift wherever you want it at will.

In a gem of a period cabinet, trim, beautifully finished... a masterpiece of the world's famous Victor craftsmen.

No matter how big your income may be, today you want the most for your dollars. Ask about our remarkable special terms. Find out how rich and truly satisfying modern radio entertainment can be... for $112.50.

The new VICTOR RADIO

PENDLETON'S MUSIC STORE
SHELBY and KINGS MOUNTAIN

Kick-Off To Safety

— BUT LET YOUR BALL BE IN THE FORM OF A

Savings Account

It will mean much to your personal assurance of a winter and spring free from the cares caused by the lack of money.

Start Saving Today

AT THE

First National Bank

RESOURCES OVER FIVE MILLION DOLLARS.