Rev. Suttle Winds Up 15 Years With Double Shoals Ch.

Two Charter Members Are Present. Church Was Organized In 1899.

(Special to The Star.) Double Shoals, Nov. 27.—Sunday was a good day at the Baptist church. A large crowd was present for Sunday school and preaching.

At the Sunday service a short history of Double Shoals church was read by the clerk. The church was organized in 1899 and has had six pastors. The present beloved pastor, Rev. J. W. Suttle, delivered a great sermon on "A Joyful Thanksgiving."

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Spangler of Shelby were back last Sunday for preaching. These two faithful charter members held their membership here and attend the monthly services regular when their health permits.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Toney and children of Shelby attended service at the church last Sunday.

Misses Theda and Lona Smith of Shelby were visitors last Sunday at the church services.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Costner of Shelby spent Sunday p. m. in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Pink Shytle of Shelby spent Sunday in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Royster attended a business meeting last week at Boiling Springs junior college.

J. M. Green of Shelby attended services at the church on Sunday. Mr. Green was a charter member and was the first church clerk.

Mrs. Oliver Spangler of Durham is spending a few days here with relatives.

Shelby Boys Termed 'Good Sports' There

(Avenue Ambler in Gastonia Gazette.)

"I never saw such a good display of sportsmanship as I saw at the high school game here Friday with Shelby," said a man who attends many football games.

"Usually, you know the games with Shelby are mighty bitter and hard fought. I have seen many a fist fight in games with Shelby in other days. But, in this game here Friday, the Shelby boys displayed an unusual degree of good sportsmanship. Many a time when a Gastonia boy made a good tackle, the Shelby player would pat him on the Thanksgiving Program at the Public School Given Wednesday Morning.

(Special to The Star.) Poplar Springs, Nov. 27.—The Poplar Springs school enjoyed a very delightful Thanksgiving program Wednesday morning before their holidays on Thursday and Friday. The scripture used was the 100th psalm.

"First Thanksgiving," Pauline Turner; reading, "Thanksgiving Day," Rea Wilson; "Acrostics," 12 3rd and 4th grade pupils; reading, "Grandma's Kitchen," Addie Mae Turner; story, "Our First Thanksgiving," Wilma Wright; "Puritan Girls," Margaret Cabanis; Elsie Eddings, Estelle Greenway; Elsie White; Thanksgiving day song by school.

The honor roll for November is: First grade: Muriel Eddings, Roy Lall.

Second grade: Minnie Pearl Porter.

Third grade: Corrine Porter, Bonnie Lovelace.

Fourth grade: Mildred Conner, Beatie Swink.

back as he got up in commendation of his good tackle. So far as I could see, there was not the slightest sign of ill feeling or of that bitterness that has been evident in some other games."
