IN A BANK

THE CAPITAL, RESOURCES, CASH RESERVES, CONSERVATIVE LOANS and Large Surplus are the TANGIBLE or Known Assets, that give Confidence in a bank, but there are certain intangible things, the assets that are not in dollars and cents, that go a long way in maintaining public confidence. These are the personal attention and interest given by qualified officers and directors, who have spent their lives in their efforts to create

Miss Margaret Bost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Bost, who is a student at Strayer's business college in Washington, D. C. is expected to arrive home tomorrow to stay until after the Christmas holidays.

Miss Virginia Laughridge, who holds a position in Washington, D. C., came home last Saturday and will spend this month here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laughridge.

$8,000 For Hair.
Boston.—Eugenia Hubert, vaudeville dancer, was awarded a verdict of $8,000 for the loss of her hair and scalp burns suffered while receiving a permanent wave at a beauty parlor.

Air Pocket Engulfs Man.
Red Wing, Minn.—When an airplane underneath a mass of clay on which he was standing suddenly burst through, William Smith, 29, slipped into a clay vat and suffocated.

Put Spikes On Track.
Hammond, Ind.—Stanley Soco, 23, was captured shortly after he had placed spikes and iron bolts on tracks in an effort to wreck a fast train.

Cotton Market

New York, Dec. 5.—Cotton was quoted at noon today on New York exchange for southern delivery: December 10.32, Jan. 10.42.

Rain forecast for central and eastern belts. Charlotte special says southern mill situation shows little change for week. Mills manage to keep up fair schedule on orders. Moderate business in Worth street. Eighty by eighty print cloths broke to 7 5-8 at which price about 10,000 pieces sold but no buying volume was attracted by the lower figure. Expect narrow market awaiting bureau at 11 a. m. Monday.
CLEVENBURG.

MAN, 92, QUITS AFTER 63 YEARS' BAY STATE PUBLIC OFFICIAL

Boston.—The Bay State's oldest public servant was mustered out when Governor Frank G. Allen approved the retirement papers of Colonel Illard D. Tripp. The colonel, a veteran of the Civil war, is 92, and has served the commonwealth sixty-three years.

Failing eyesight, the colonel said, compelled him to quit his post as chief inspector of settlement and support claims in the department of public welfare.

Governor Allen offered the old soldier his congratulations and praise and presented to him a gold pin bearing the state seal.

Thin Ice, 3 Die.

Winnipeg.—While four year old Jacques Champagne was sleighing on the Red River, the ice broke through and Lorenbo Tougas, 8, and Lionel Tougas, 10, were drowned while attempting to rescue him.

This is the time of the year to buy Christmas seals. Use them on your mail.
