A SONG.

Ye happy swains, whose hearts are free
From Love's imperial chain, Take warning and be taught by me,
To avoid the enchanting pain:
Fatal the wiles to trembling flocks Fierce winds to blossom prove,
To careless seamen, hidden rocks,
To human quiet, love.

Fly the fair sex, if bliss you prize;
The snake's beneath the flower;
Who ever gazed on beauteous eyes,
That fasted quiet more?
How faithless is the lover's joy!
How constant is their care!
The kind with falsehood to destroy, The cruel, with despair.

—George Etheridge.

Music And Arts To Meet On Wednesday.

The music and arts division of the Woman's club will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the club room with Mrs. Earl Honeycutt and Mrs. J. W. Harbison as hostsesses.

Mrs. Frazier Club Hostess.

Mrs. D. E. S. Frazier was a charming hostess on Saturday afternoon to the members of the contract bridge club and a few invited guests at her home on North Morgans street. Christmas decorations were used throughout the home and the same idea was carried out in the place cards. Bridge was played at four tables during the afternoon and when cards were laid aside and scores added, Mrs. Rob Laney was winner of the high score prize and Mrs. Clyde Nolan was awarded the prize for second-high score. Mrs.
Frazier gave Mrs. Luther G. Thompson a sandwich tray as guest prize.
After the games Mrs. Frazier was assisted by Mrs. J. S. Dorton and Mrs. B. D. Hulick in serving a salad course with sweets and coffee.

Guests outside the club who enjoyed this hospitality were Mrs.
Luther G. Thompson, Mrs. John Fox, Jr., of Teaneck, N. J., Mrs.
Robert Laney, of Monroe, and Mrs.
Joe Nash.

Mrs. Morgan Entertains Club.

Mrs. F. R. Morgan was a charming hostess on Monday afternoon to the members of the 20th Century club at her handsome home on Cleveland Springs road. Mrs. Julius Suttle, the president, called the meeting to order and during a business meeting the club voted to become members of the "Pound-a-Week" club, each individual in the club thereby pledging herself to contribute a pound of food each week to be distributed among the poor.

The program was suggestive of the approaching holiday season, as Mrs.
Will Roberts opened it by reading a story, "The Christmas Angel," by Van Dyke. Mrs. Julius Suttle gave an interesting group of current events, and Miss Mary Helen Lattimore played a selection from Chopin and followed this by playing a medley of Christmas Carols which was her own arrangement.

At the close of the program the guests were served at beautifully appointed card tables at which they found their places by Christmas place cards. A delightful salad course with coffee was served, and was followed by an iced and sweet course. Mrs. Morgan was assisted by Mrs. B. O. Stephenson and Mrs.
Charles Williams.

Special guests of the club on this occasion were: Mrs. Charles Burrus, Mrs. D. Z. Newton, Mrs. Mayme
Wray Webb, and Miss Mary Heier Lattimore.

Beautiful Tea For Mrs. Pendleton.

The most beautiful social affair of the season thus far was the tea given on Friday afternoon by Mrs.
R. E. Campbell as a gracious compliment to her daughter, Mrs. Esley Pendleton, a bride of a few weeks.
The entire lower floor of the home was made more attractive for the occasion with the soft light of candles and lamps, and with great bowls and baskets of red and white gladioli, snap dragon and red roses, the color note of red and white being emphasized throughout. In the dining room the table presented an exquisite motif for the decorative scheme. It was covered with a pretty lace cloth and a huge bowl of red roses, white snapdragon, and fern, gracefully arranged, was used as a centerpiece; on each of the four corners stood silver candlesticks, tied with white tulle and holding tall, lighted, red tapers. In the sun parlor, where the register was placed, a gaily decorated Christmas tree with colored lights flashing on and off lent a holiday atmosphere to the occasion.

When the guests arrived they were greeted at the door by Mrs. J. L.
Lackey, who presented them to the receiving line, which was headed by Mrs. Campbell with the honoree, Mrs. Pendleton beside her. Mrs.
Campbell wore a becoming dress of powder blue moire, with long white kid gloves and a shoulder corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Pendleton had chosen for the occasion a youthful frock of white satin on molded lines with which she also wore long white gloves and a shoulder spray of orchids. Receiving with the hostess and her daughter were: Mrs. Lowery Suttle and Mrs. Hopson Austell, both recent brides; Mrs. W. A. Pendleton, mother-in-law of the bride; and Mrs. Lee Wray. Mrs. Grady Lovelace, Miss Mary Adelaide Roberts, and Mrs. A. Pitt Beam furnished music in the living room during the calling hours. Mrs. Or-burn greeted the guests between the living room and hall and Mrs. C.

B. Suttle received and entertained in the hall. With her here was Miss Elizabeth Campbell who met the guests at the front door and directed them to the side entrance. Mrs.
A. D. Brabble stood at the entrance to the dining room and directed the callers within where Misses Mary Suttle, Nancy Suttle, Mary Brandt, Switzer, Virginia Hoey and Katherine Dover served salad plates with coffee and passed gay little cakes iced with red, white and green and decorated with Christmas designs.
Receiving and entertaining in the dining room and sun parlor were Mrs. Colin Hull and Mrs. W. H.
Hudson. Misses Betty Suttle and Minnie Eddins Roberts presided over the register in the sunparlor and Mrs. Earl Hamrick stood at the door and bade the guests good bye.

About two hundred and seventy guests called during the afternoon.

Club Meetings For Tuesday.

The Contemporary book club will meet on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock with Mrs. Charles Hoey as hostess.

Mrs. John Honeycutt will be hostess to the members of the Mother's club on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 at her home on W. Warren street.

Jefferson P. T. A. Monday Evening.

The Parent-Teachers association of the Jefferson school will meet in the auditorium of that school building on Monday evening at 7 o'clock.
The children will give a Christmas play and that with a string band will furnish the program for the evening. A good attendance of the patrons is urged.

Delightful Meeting Of Chicora Club.

Mrs. O. M. Mull was hostess on Friday afternoon to the members of the Chicora club at an interesting meeting at her home on N. LaPayette street. Mrs. J. F. Jenkins presided over the meeting and conducted a brief business session after which the remainder of the afternoon was devoted to the program.

Mr. Mull made an instructive talk what the state penitentiary is doing for the criminals of the state and their families. Miss Kathleen Hord gave an interesting resume of the Passion Play which she witnessed at Oberammergau on her trip to Europe last summer.

At the close of the program Mrs.
Mull was assisted by Mrs. Paul Webb, sr., Mrs. Paul Webb, jr., Mrs.
Otto Long, Miss Kathleen Hord and Miss Montrose Mull in serving an elegant party plate with turkey, with all accessories, sweets and coffee.

Invited guests outside the club who enjoyed the occasion were: Mrs.
Paul Webb, jr., Mrs. Long, Miss Hord, Mrs. Carl Thompson, Mrs.
Jap Suttle, Mrs. Luther G. Thompson, and Mrs. Esther McBrayer.

Club Meeting To Be Postponed.

The meeting of the Chicora club which is scheduled for this Friday, with Mrs. Mitchell as hostess, will be postponed until sometime in January.

Quilting Party Last Tuesday Night.

The Fidelis Bible class of the First Baptist church held an old fashioned quilting party at the home of Mrs. Charles Washburn last Tuesday evening. During the evening they quilted a comfort which will be presented to some needy family or institution. The "quilting" was in the nature of a social meeting.

Fidelis Class To Observe White Christmas

The Fidelis Bible class of the First Baptist church will observe White Christmas with gifts for the needy. Any member of this class who has any old clothes, food, or contributions of any nature to give are asked to take them to Mrs. Robert Doggett or to Mrs. Herbert Champion. If it is not possible for any individual to take their contribution, if they will phone either one of the above mentioned ladies, they will send out to the homes and collect your contribution.

Mrs. Austell Gives Bridge Luncheon.

Mrs. Hopson Austell was hostess on Saturday at a delightful one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. C. B. Suttle honoring Mrs.
Esley Pendleton, a recent bride. The guests were all served at one large table which was beautifully appointed with its lace luncheon set and centerpiece of red roses and yellow chrysanthemums. Two tall red candles were used at each end of the center piece. A delicious four course luncheon was served, after which the guests were invited into the living room where, bridge was played at two tables. After several hands of bridge Mrs. Austell presented Mrs. Pendleton with a pair of attractive plaques.

Guests enjoying this occasion were: Mrs. Pendleton, Mrs. R. E.
Campbell, Mrs. Lee Wray, Mrs. John
