Shelby SIDELIGHTS

By RENN DRUM.

Here's one for you to ponder on: Why do people always want to hold to the end seat in church, in the court room, in a theatre, and elsewhere?

A reader hands in that query, and he says "I've always noticed that men and women when they get on the end seat at church and elsewhere cling to it. Often ushers have to ask them to move over. What instinct causes that?"

Guess we'll have to write Einstein, Dr. Copeland or Dorothy Dix about it.

Shelby Shorts: Doras Willis, former proprietor of the Palace barber shop, is one of those Shelby fellows who has been places and seen things. Mention almost any spot on the globe and you'll learn that he has been there. You see, he served 13 years in Uncle Sam's army and four years in the navy. . . . Here's a flap at your set rules for living far into old age: the 94-year-old grandfather of a Shelby man smokes a pack of cigarettes and takes his today daily. . . . This checker tournament between the players of York and Shelby recalls the days of the old Central hotel when Sampson, the sign painter, could take 'em all on and lick 'em. . . . Why not get up a horseshoe tournament so that some of us county-bred boys might strut our prowess? . . . George Magness, the barber, has figured it out and it is his opinion that a shine boy gets as much money out of the average pair of shoes as do the manufacturer, whole-sale and retail merchants. At 10 cents per shine, he's not far wrong. . . . Reference to the two brown derbies being worn in Shelby now brings the information that a Forest City man, a strong supporter of Alfred Emmanuel Smith, has been wearing his brown headgear since 1928 and hopes to keep on wearing it, he says, until Al gets in the Pennsylvania avenue mansion where the Hoovers are rooming now. . . . "If," says a long-headed Cleveland county farmer, "the farmers of Cleveland county do not live at home this year, they'll be living at the county home next year." . . . Remember war days when we had to toss down a penny or two with our nickels to get a dope? Well, that's what we think about the proposed sale tax—not that what we think will likely cause a special might session of legislature. . . . If it will not offend his dignity, Horace Eason has a face and a personality that would be good assets for a movie star or radio announcer. . . . How many pins did you say there were in a new shirt when it comes from the store? Count them and report.

They may not matter very much, but they are things which we occasionally wonder about:

What do you suppose the second initial in Odus M. Mull's name stands for?

Or the second one in Chas. C. Blanton's name?

Or these other ones—The "R" in R. Ed Campbell, in Fred R. Morgan and John R. Dover? The "B" in Claude B. (Pat) McBrayer? The other "S" in Solomon S. Roytzer and Carl S. Thompson? The "A" in Julius A. Suttle? The "A" in David A. Beam and also in the names of all of his sons? The "M" in John M. Best and Sam M. Gault? The "C" in Thad C. Ford?

Incidentally, do you know either name of J. C. McNeely or W. A. Pendleton?

Yes, Clyde Hoey's middle name is Roark.

"Since," chimed in a curious reader, "you couldn't name that most beautiful Shelby woman referred to in the column, can you tell us who is the Clara Bow, or 'It,' girl of Shelby. Sure we can, but for several reasons we will not.

(To all you girls who think we're referring to you—we are.)

Recently, in connection with the 35th anniversary of the T. W. Hamrick jewelry firm, we wondered if all in the column, can you tell us who is the Clara Bow, or 'It,' girl of Shelby. Sure we can, but for several reasons we will not.

(To all you girls who think we're referring to you—we are.)

the graves of Yankee soldiers? A rumor wafted our way has it that during the Civil war a number of Federal soldiers were buried where the school is now located.

And they tell us, too, that back in the days when the red skins fished in Broad river and trapped rabbits in No. 7 township that there was a big Indian camp ground located where the old city pump station is. Hundreds of arrowheads have been found there—so they say.

"I can tell you," informs a reader, "one reason why highway 20 was routed up East Warren street instead of East Marion street: It is the straightest route along Marion street as the highways enters and leaves the city, but the highway along Marion street would have passed in front of two schools."

And the same reader doesn't think the present routing will be changed soon.

Head and Back Quit Hurting

"A few years ago, I found that I was very weak and nothing I ate seemed to give me any strength," writes Mrs. R. B. Douglas, 704 South Congress St., Jackson, Miss.

"I suffered intense pain in my head and back. At times I would have to hold to something to steady myself, so as to do my little work. I was worried about my condition.

"My mother told me that I should take Cardui. After taking two bottles, I felt stronger, but I kept on taking it until my head and back quit hurting. I took about six bottles in all, and have never quit praising Cardui."
