Toluca And Knob Creek Cleanings

Thieves Steel Slot Machine, Groceries, Etc. Mr. Mull Under Operation.

Toluca, Feb. 12.—We sure have had some fine groundhog weather. It seems as if the old ground hog has forgotten his prophesy. People are keeping the plows busy and a lot of plowing is done. Most everybody has gardens planted.

Thieves visited Toluca again last Sunday night. They entered the store of Mr. Everett Linhardt, formerly the one operated by Ellis Bingham and made a get-away of a large part of his groceries and took a slot machine. Fortunately he had emptied the machine Saturday night. They entered by prying the door open. At first they attempted to use a 3-1-2 inch auger. They also

A $20 Hat Copied for Only $2.95

Isn't this a stunning hat? It's one of the new "My Own" hats just received. We paid $20 for the original. You get the copy for $2.95. The sketch shows both front and side views. It's made of black and white visca braid—trimmed with burnt goose. And it's just ONE of the many new styles we received—a new "halo" hat is in the shipment, too!

No wonder Ward's "My Own" hats are such favorites all over America.

clipped the lock to one of his gas tanks and helped themselves. Mr. L. M. Williams is working on a new plan for a barb wire fence which he hopes to get a patent. He patented a terrace drag several years ago for which he received about seven dollars.

The attendance at Sunday school at Carpenters Grove has been off some for the past few Sundays on account of sickness. Mr. A. T. Mull, one of our oldest members and one of the most regular in attendance, not having missed, but very few Sundays since the church was organized is in the Baptist hospital at Winston-Salem and has undergone a serious operation. He stood the operation better than was expected and is getting along fine. The church hopes to soon have this good member back with them. Also Mrs. S. T. Carpenter has had flu. Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sain are now sick with it but are improving.

Regular preaching days in this community Saturday at 2:30 p. m. and Sunday a. m. Everybody invited. Also the Woman's Missionary society will meet just after preaching Saturday.

Mr. Carroll Mull from Charlotte spent the week-end with his mother Mrs. D. M. Mull.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Conner were to visit Mrs. Owen Seagle last Sunday. Mrs. Seagle has been quite ill for some time but is improving.

Miss Lounette Norman of Belwood and Miss Inez Propst spent last Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Boyles.

Valentines Tipped With Venom Flood Market This Year

Washington—Valentines flooded with venom are flooding the market this year.

The old comic has come back, but in more sophisticated cynical guise. The 1931 comic Valentine touches with broad satire current phases of life and human weaknesses.

The modern teacher gets hers, but she is no longer a sour-visaged "old maid" with ringlets, out a flapperish person who walks home from an auto ride.

The earnest suffragette is nearly nalled with this: "You boast of women's suffrage. And what you'll do next fall. If your club meets on election day You'll ne'er show up at all."

The druggist gets a sarcastic "bawling out" for his sidellins, and wonder is expressed if he carries any drugs at all. He is pictured surrounded by toy trains and sandwiches.

Women are among the chief buyers of the returned "comics," dealers say, whether it is the lure of the

To Plan Scout Year At Monday Meeting

An organization meeting of the Boy Scout work for the year 1931 is to be held at the Hotel Charles, 7130 o'clock, Monday evening, February 16th.

All scoutmasters, assistant scoutmasters, committeemen, and other scout officers will be expected to be present to help make plans.

The way things are shaping up, it looks as if this is to be the best year in the history of scouting in Shelby. It can easily be if everyone does his part.
