The opinion that the Central prison building is a veritable fire trap seems to be unanimous but as it is the usual custom of the human race when it's the other man's troubles or menace, very few people appear sufficiently interested to make any move to remedy the defects, particularly when there happens to be some expense attached. Mr. George seems to be unanimous but as it is just about the only thing within these walls which is safe from the menace of fire is the several thousand concrete culverts belonging to the state highway commission which adorn a large part of the already crowded space in our "back yard."
